Wood, Morrell & Go., have "tolerated" the Post until they became thoroughly disgusted with our "semitreason." Are these New England squatters into Pennsylvania aware that a majority of the people of the State, and nearly two thirds of those of the county in which their iron works are located, are subject to the same charge, which they apply to us? Having lett New England, they should have left their notions of toleration behind them, because in Pennsylvania we regard each other as equals, un til reminded of particular cases of inferi ority by the insolence and falsehood of such upstart and brainless puppies as our Johnstown correspondents. They "tolerate" papers expressing the honest convictions of their betters! It is well that such fanatics and falsifiers can't help them-

Our discussion of that calamity was entirely legitimate, as subsequent events demonstrated, which justifies us in flinging back into the teeth of Wood, Morrellat Co., the charge of falsehood which they apply to us. THAT CONVENTION.

Our readers remember that immediately after the October elections, which exhibited the death of Abolitionism, certain patriots, here in Pittsburgh, issued a call for a convention to form a new party. The 25th of November was the day fixed upon for the gathering, to which were invited all "the friends of civil and religious liberty," in order to strengthen and protect these inestimable blessings throughout epistle, from Wood, Morrell & Co., has "the New World." Message.

The message of Governor Curtin to the Senate and House of Representatives was read on Wednesday. We have only room for a synopsis. The figures showing the state of the finances of the commonwealth exhibit balance in the Treasury on the 30th of November last of $2,172,844 10; an unexpended balance of the military fund $195, 576 27; an excess of receipts for 1862 over 1861 of $1,030,176 82 and a decrease of expenditures in 1862 of $95,317 16 .-The public debt on the 1st December 1862, was $40,448,213 82, towards the extinguishment of which the State holds bonds amounting to $10,781,000. By the operations of the Sinking Fund the debt has been reduced $262,801 67. The Governor

"Should there be no extraordinary de mand on the Treasury, there can be appropriated from the large balance now on hand and the increasing revenues, at least a million and a half of dollars during the coming year towards the payment of the public debt."

He next speaks of Pennsylvania having first paid her share of the direct tax, amounting to $1,946,719, 33, on June 14th, 1862, and of the payment of the inconvenience to that, I would not urge it. But it is cruel to leave them to the care and (I regret to say it) frequently to the thousand bonds to the Philadelphia and company, and says:

"The company has now received three of the inconvenience to that in the immediate vicinity of all the abundant comforts which the solicitude of the five millions of bonds deposited in provide for them.

"The company has now received three of the inconvenience to that, I would not urge it. But it is cruel to leave them to the care and (I regret to say it) frequently to the neglect, or worse, of strange officials, at points in the immediate vicinity of all the abundant comforts which the solicitude of their families and friends would rejoice to provide for them.

To the inconvenience to that, I would not urge it. But it is cruel to leave them to the care and (I regret to say it) frequently to the neglect, or worse, of strange officials, at points in the immediate vicinity of all the abundant comforts which the solicitude of their families and friends would rejoice to provide for them.

The late of their State, to be so rendered as not to field should therefore lose the most inestimable rights of citizens. I recommend that the necessary steps be forthwith taken to amend the consutition, so as to give the right lot suffrage to the citizens who are thus excluded.

I cannot close this message without speaking of the unbroken loyalty and spirit of the freemen of Pennsylvania. They feel that on the preservation of the Unton and the suppression of the unbroken loyalty and spirit of the freemen of Pennsylvania.

"The company has now received three of the five millions of bonds deposited in the State Treasury. With the proceeds of the bonds issued, fifty-two miles of road have been completed, making with what had formerly been finished a total of one hundred and ninety nine miles, leaving eighty nine miles unfinished of which nearly all is graded and ready for the iron.— The bonds still in the Treasury will yield an amount ample to complete the road, nd thus open this important route of trade and commerce. The development of the vast mineral and other resources of our north western counties by this means, will undoubtedly in a few years render valua-ble the securities of the Sunbury and Erie Rollead Comments

In addition to the expense of attending and bringing home our sick and wounded as above stated, I have expended less than $4,000 in the transportation of friends of sick, killed, or wounded volunteers, and sick, killed, or wounded volunteers, and other persons sent by me for their care to the several battle fields and hospitals, and in bringing home for interment the bodies of those slain. The whole expense incurred under the joint resolution was five thousand one hundred and nineteen dollars and eighty three cents, the details of which will be found in the report of the Surgeon General and of the Chief of Transportation.

I have uniformly, when applied to, allowed the expense of transportation of one person to the field to bring home the body of his friend or relation, and the expense of his return with the body. The cost of this has not exceeded $600, which is included in the sum of least the $4.000.

s included in the sum of less than $4,000 above stated. In this connection I must speak with ap plause of the active benevolence of our citizens, who have without compensation devoted their time and care to their suffering fellow citizens, disabled by the casual-ties of war. Not only have many gone to the field, to administer their kind offices, but in every part of the Commonwealth, thousands have applied their means and xertions to the same end, and especially have the women of Pennsylvania, obeying their true womanly instincts, shown that they are worthy to be the mothers, I wives and sisters of the brave men whom they have stimulated to their duty, and soothed and nursed in the sufferings that have ensued in the performance of it.

In compliance with his views, I was reluctantly obliged to discontinue the system, but I have not ceased to urge on the War Department the propriety of sending our sick and wounded men into the State, where they can be nursed and cared for by their friends, and have to say that at length such an arrangement was made with the authorities at Washington, which it was provided that citizens absent from home in actual military service, might exercise their right of suffrage as if they were present at the usual places of election.
