

<text><section-header><section-header><section-header> and particularly discribing the place to be searched and the person or thing to be deprived in the production. There is bankruptcy for a child be person while the led to intermingling interests. A NATICLE 5. This plane are interlooked by confinent is not intermingling interests. Their plane are interlooked by confinent is and iftee is and or naval forces, or in the markets of the write is and or naval forces, or in the markets of the write is and or naval forces, or in the markets of the write is and to restraints in the original intermest endangered its adoption. There is all see it to declarging the is and to their settled legal effect. If any work in construction in any part of the ighest interest to restore the sold in the resulted new hold is all see fits to declarging the instrument ends all see fits to declarging the instrument in all see fits declarging is the solar the particular products in the provisions of the North and the is adoption. There is awar or insurrection in any part of our country, when the executive shall see fits declarging the the is war or insurrection in any part of the ighest interest to restore the sold of the ighest interest to restore the sold in the result of the ighest interest to restore the sold to the isolaried into cottor. The western and General States which strove to ensituation provides for the declarging the theory of martial law is phelel by the mission from a separation. This wait is the nortice is the isolaried into cottor, the provide of the ighest interest to restore the old to excluse the prove insection the properity when the excercive shall see fits declare the ison while the according the the declarging in the order of this genes in a solarging in the order of the ighest interest to restore the old to excert the solaried the declarging in the order of the ighest interest to restore the old to excert the solarie detarging in the order of the genes interest to restore the old to excert the solarie detarging in the old to the ison the terest in the isolare det The Western and Central States enlist-ed warmly in a war for the Union and Constitution. The Northern tier of "Slave States," (except Eastern Vir-ginia,) earnestly supported the govern-ment in its policy while it was consistent with this purpose, which was known as the "Border State policy." Both the ad-ministration and Congress then declared their sole nurroses to be to restore the overturned by corruption than violence.— A virtuous people will regain their rights if torn from them, but there is no hope the sectional prejudices and passions were active in destroying fraternal affect

Limitations of Power. there were those persistently and labor-ously engaged, through the preas and in legislative halls, in teaching the people of the North and the South to undervalue and despise each other. Hostile legisla-tion and the division of our churches im-paired religious and social intercourse. If the North and the South had under-There are not only obligations resting stood the power and purpose of each other, our contentions would have been adjusted. This misreprehension, so bloody and terrible in its effects, was systematically add laboriously inculcated. Causes of the War. Affrighted at the ruin they have wrought

"It is important, likewise, that the hab-"It of thinking in a free country should in-spire caution in those interested with its administration, to confine themselves withthe authors of our calamities at the North and South insist that this war was caused and South miss that this war was caused by an improidable contest about slavery. This has been the subject, not the cause of controversy. We are to hook for the causes of this war in a pervading disregard of the obligations of laws and constitutions; in disrespect for constituted authorities; and, above all, in the local prejudices which have grown up in two portions of the Atlantic States, the two extremes of one output with the second prejudices of

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> our country, whose remote positions have made them less well informed, and whose

in tions: if the very idea of the power and ment property idea of the power and ment prospective establish govern-ment prospects the duty of very indi-vidual to bey the established government.' it is a spirit of disobedience has apped the then the set a spirit of disobedience has apped the then the set a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a pred the user is a spirit of disobedience has a spirit of our land. It is not prive a spirit of disobedience has a spirit of the actual of the wars it is also the immediate a spirit of the spirit or land. It is not prive a spirit of the spiri lation of our statutes, and see that offen-ders are brought to justice. Sheriffs and for those who suffer corruption to sap and district attorneys are admonished that it is rot away the fabric of their freedom. in their respective counties are imprison-ed, nor carried by force beyond their lim-There are not only obligations resting inpon our, people toward our anthorities, but under our political system there are limitations between the departments of the government, and hetween the State and national governments, which must be observed to secure the public safety. At this time the warning words of General Washington have a very peculiar signifi-cance: "It is important, likewise, that the hab-"It is important, likewise, that the hab-ries, is an outrage of the same character. upon every principle of right and justice. spire caution in those interested with its administration, to confine themselves with-in their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding, in the exercise of the powers of one department, to encroach upon the oth-er. The spirit of encroach ment tends to consolidate the powers of all the depart-ments in one, and thus to create, whatever consolidate the powers of all the depart menta in one, and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism. A just estimate of that love of power and proneness to abuse it which predominates in the human heart, is sufficient to satisfy the of the trath of this position."

those in power. Government is not strengthened by the those in power. Government is not strengthened by the exercise of doubtful powers, but by a wise and energetic exertion of those which are incontestible. The former course never

The prevailing sentiment of the great controlling sections of our country will controlling sections of our country will not only save our Union, but it will do so a way harmonizing with the gening of our institutions, the usages of our people, and the letter and spirit of our Constitu-tion, foreseeing that events would render it necessary for the people of the several States not only thus to address our gov-ernment but also to produce a concert of purpose and action between different communities, provided in the Constitu-tion, "that Congress should make no law abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the govern-ment for a redrass of grievences."

ment for a redress of grievences." Our present alarming condition naturally calls for such expressions of public opinion with respect to the objects of this war, and the end for which it abould beconducted, and the end for which it should be waged. Where the public will is clearly expressed is must be recognized and respected by gov-eriment. It will also make itself effect-ion in concentration where the investor ive in our frequently recurring elections which peacefully but rapidly form a body of government in harmony with its purpo-ses. It will influence congressional ac-tion or it may lead to a convention of the States

