Washington, April 9th, 1862—To Maj. Gen. McClellan—Dear Sir: Your dispatches complaining that you are not properly sustained, while they do not of fend me, pain me very much. Blenker's division was withdrawn from you before you left here, and you knew the pressure under which I did it, and, as I thought acquiesced in it; certainly not without reluctance. After you left I ascertained that less than twenty thousand unorganized men, without arms, without a single field battery were all you designed to be left for the defense of Washington and Manassas Junction, and a part of these even were to go to Gen. Hooker's old position. Gen. Banks' corps, designed for Manassas Junction, was divided and tied up on the line of Winchester and Strasburg, and the Baltimore division. ine of Winchester and Strasburg, and scould not leave it without again exposing the Upper Potomac, and the Baltimore and Ohio road. This presented or would be gone, a great temptation to the enemy to turn back from the Itappahannock and sack Washington. My explicit directions that Washington should, by the judgment of all the commanders of corps be left entirely secure, had been entirely neglected. It was precisely this that compelled me to days of pleasant weather, waiting a clear ance from the Custom House. H. D.
