THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAPH Judge Ludlow's Decree. ITEMS PROM RICHMOND PAPERS. LATE FROM WASHINGTON. Resolution to Replace McClellan.

A slight fire occurred at the Polymorama of the War, last night, during the exexhibition of the Diorama of the combat between the Merrimac and the Monitor. It was caused by a defect in the gas pipe, and beyond the burning of a yard or two of the curtain, resulted in no material damage. The audience of a yard or two of the curtain, resulted in no material damage. The audience which was very large, were a little excited. We have even failed to notice the fact officially that arbitrary arrests have been made in this county, because, as we have been made in this county, because, as we have been made in this county, because, as we have before intimated, we had hoped that they would cease. That hope has been made in this step, and not to county."

Mr. Chanfrau's Benefit.

All who have seen Mr. F. S. Chanfrau against the authority of the general government, will agree to embarass the general government, while the rights of citizens have been protected. We have even failed to notice the fact officially that arbitrary arrests have been made in this county, because, as we have before intimated, we had hoped that they would cease. That hope has been destroyed.
