County Commissioners, wherin Daniel Mitchell, crier of the District Court, who, having been refused a warrant on the Treasurer for the amount due him, sues for an order compelling the Commission ers to draw such a warrant, was argued, on Saturday morning, before Judges Hamp-ton and Williams. R. B. Carnahan, Esq., County Solicitor, appeared on behalf the Commissioners, taking the ground that they had been prohibited by the United States Courts (citing the decisions of Judges Grier and McCandless) from is ruing Warrants until the judgments entered there were satisfied. Mr. Wood appearing for the relator, contended that the question of the power of the Commission question of the power of the Commissioners to issue warrants was no where raised in the decisions alluded to. He took the ground that the Commissioners should issue their warrants, and, if the Treasurer refused to pay them, the holder could proceed against him, either by mandamus or by a physics. him, either by mandamus or by entering suit on the warrant. If the Court would grant a mandamus against the Treasurer, for refusing to boy the warrant upon its presentation, then the question as to what constitutes an appropriation of the monor. him, either by mandamus or by entering suit on the warrant. If the Court would constitutes an appropriation of the money in the treasury can be properly raised. It can then be decided whether the ordinary expenses of the county must be resulted.

Circuit Court, or whether the holder of the warrant must enter suit against the county, as prescribed by act of Assembly. Indee Hampton remarked that he had discovered nothing in the decisions of the Circuit Court which would prevent the issuing of warrants by the County Comhrown of the warrants and the warrants are warrants by the County Comhrown of the warrants are warrants and wa missioners. There were intimations thrown out that the Commissioners ought not to issue warrants until the judgments against the county were paid, but the question of power to issue warrants was not fine health and spirits. raised. A warrant was not merely a cer-tificate of indebtedness, but it was also an tificate of indebtedness, but it was also an appropriation of money in the treasury not otherwise legally appropriated. A decision will be given in a short time, which will be looked for with interest. Curious Case.

A case somewhat novel in its character is now on trial in Harrisburg. The Adams is now on that in Harrisburg. The Adams Express Company brings an action against the Hagerstown Bank for the recovery of upwards of $8,000, erroneously paid to them. It appears that the Express Company had received a package of money at Baltimore to be supped to the Hagerstown Bank, containing upwards of $9,000, and whilst the parcel was in the office in Harrishney upwards of $3,000 were abstracted whilst the parcel was in the office in Harrisburg upwards of $3,000 were abstracted and paper placed in the parcel in place of the money so abstracted; the package was then re-seated and forwarded to Hagers town, where it was duly delivered, and upon opening it, discovered that a large amount had been abstracted. The company was notified of the occurrence, and paid the missing sum over to the bank.

After this, search was instituted for the person who had abstracted the money, and in the course of a week it was dis covered that a person employed in the office, who was subject to aberration of the oince, who was subject to aperration of the mind, had taken the money and destroyed it, burning the same in Wetzel's swamp, about one mile above the city. Heavy Bank Defalcation. The Chicago Times gives the following account of recent developments of heavy detalcations, just brought to light in that detalcations, just brought to light in that city:

A lively sensation has been created in this community within the past day or two by the anticouncement, which has just been made public, of a stupendous defalcation which has occurred in the old Marine Bank of this city, under the management of J. Y. Scammon, as President, and B. F. Carver, as Cashier, in which the last named gentleman is a defaulter to the bank in the sum of over! $500,000; the then Assistant Cashier, Alfred Spink, a defaulter in the same bank, a defaulter in the sum of $88,000; also a Teller in the same bank, a defaulter in the sum of about $12,000. The facts in regard to these stupendous frauds have not yet been placed in tangible shape and at this time we can say little more than that the public will have all the facts presented as soon as they can be reached. These series of defalcations date back to city: than that the public will have all the lacts presented as soon as they can be reached. These series of defalcations date back to 1859-60, at about which periods they were known to the Directors of the Marine known to the Directors of the Marine Bank, but who if we are not misinformed, allowed the matter to be kept quiet until the right of prosecution had elapsed by provision of the statue. We understand that, at a injecting of the Directors, held at the residence of Mr. Scammon on Saturday evening last, the above defalcation was then for the first time, formal the excellence of these apper instruction was then for the first time, formal the excellence of these apper instructions and that an outside comly announced, and that an outside com mittee was appointed to investigate and report on the same at a meeting called for next Saturday evening.
