On Monday, a man named Edward Pal. mer was taken before Judge Stowe on a writ of hubeas orpus, a discharge being asked for on the ground that he was ille-gally restrained of his liberty. Palmer; it was alleged, hired as a substitute for a drafted man in Capt. Cope's Company, 168th regiment, and after wards, deserted, which fast coming, to the knowledge of the Provos Marshal, he had him atreated. It was argued in behalf of the prisoner that he never enlisted in the 168th; that he never went as a substitute; that his name was not Edward Palmer, but E. C. Palmer, and that his imprisonment in the Preparations, are about being made at the Fort Pitt Works for casting atwenty inch gun, which will weigh in the rough seventy five to one hundred tons.
