

The Constitution is at issue. The Union is at stake. The people are at the mercy of a few men.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 24.

FOREIGN MEDIATION.

The prominent reason given by the English government for its refusal to mediate in the present civil war, is that such mediation would be tantamount to a recognition of the belligerents.

It is not necessary to say that the English government is not a party to the war. It is not necessary to say that the English government is not a party to the war.

It is not necessary to say that the English government is not a party to the war. It is not necessary to say that the English government is not a party to the war.

Has not the Gazette got a specific contract for the printing of this notice, and was it not continued as long as it possibly could to save the price of the publication, and to avoid damages for its contract?

The charge that an improper notice is published in our paper is one of those weak and contemptible resorts of cowardly, whipped schoolboys, who reproach his antagonist in whispering voice with 'you're another!' 'You began it!'

Why did not the Gazette call public attention to anything like this that may have appeared in our paper before now? If it was really bad why was it not exposed and denounced? We promise the Gazette one thing: that we will not blame our 'emulator' for letting anything unbecoming appear in a decent journal.

Now that its advertising space has been purged of its vices, will the owners turn their attention to the editorial columns and admonish the employees to be more careful in future? A few lessons in morality to the lay and clerical scribblers of that ancient canon, might be of advantage to many good meaning people who read that sheet.

Probable French War. The New York Express says: Not Mr. McDougal, the Senator from California, alone expresses in public the idea that, within a year, we shall have war with foreign powers, but others, even Republican journals, there is a rumor in New York, that the French Minister in Washington, says the French Government will recognize the Southern Confederation, in consequence of the opposition of his profier for consultation between the North and the South. The New York Times (supposed to be in the interest of Mr. Seward) says:

It may be that there is no immediate prospect that the Southern Confederation will be recognized by any of the leading powers of Europe, though indications of such a result are by no means lacking. It is true that the French Government will not take the ground that such recognition is so long as we continue the war and maintain it with sufficient force to constitute a period of peace, and will follow up by corresponding acts.

Mr. Lincoln, our 'Government,' will be clear war against France, if France recognizes the rebel Government. Void (they) to comment on this!

Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20. A Territorial Government for Arizona—French Intervention—History of the British Ministry—Operations on the Mississippi, &c.

A territorial government for Arizona is now proposed. The project was introduced at the last session, but is brought forward under more promising circumstances. It is believed by many that the territory will be a great benefit to the country.

First Edition. LATENT NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. Hostilities Commenced at Vicksburg. SLAVE PROPERTY IN MARYLAND. LATE FROM SAN FRANCISCO. Fire at Titusville, Penn'a. XXXVIIIth CONGRESS, (2d Session) &c., &c., &c., &c.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—A special Memphis dispatch, dated Saturday, furnishes advice from Vicksburg to the 18th. It says that active hostilities against Vicksburg had commenced.

On that day mortar boats were towed into position, and opened briskly. The firing was responded to by three batteries, when our position was found to be too much exposed for effective operations, and it was changed.

The bombardment was then renewed. BALTIMORE, Feb. 21.—The appraisers of the property of the late Charles Carroll, of this State, one of the largest slave owners of Maryland, have made their report. The estate, consisting of the Carroll place, and other lands, is valued at the sum of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—A serious case of fever, which originated in the Valley over the boundary question, is now spreading rapidly in California and Nevada, both sides of the Sierra Nevada. The disease is a form of typhoid fever, and is characterized by a high temperature, and a delirium.
