CITY AND NEIGHBOBHOOD INTELLIGENCE

Ettle Henderson in London

Standard Theatre, last month. After commending the piece, he says: "Miss Henderson is possessed of a pleasing voice, as the for face and figure, which enabled her to win the sympathies, of the crowded addience at outer. To these natural attractions are adds a thorough knowledge of stage business, a striking capability of individualizing the characters and a scharming delicacy of manner and gesture. As Fan-chon, she plays with an admirable piquan-cy, interspected with touches of real feel. Gold. Dur brokers and those who had been peculating; in specie were a little more of the second sec

Gen. Negley. Maj. Gen. Jas S. Negley was expected here last night, having leave of absence from his command for twenty days. A number of persons were waiting at the Al-legheny depot last evening to greet him on his errival by the night train from the West. He was expected to spend the night with a relative in Allegheny city. 209

On Wednesday evening, about nine o'clock, Mr. Joseph Eberhart, residing on East lane, Allegheny, was knocked down and beaten by two men whom he encoun-tered at the Pittsburgh end of the railroad bridge, and who were offended because Mr. E. refitsed to give them a "quarter" to buy liquor with.

Stealing Oil.

Several barreis of oil, and a barrel of benzole, were recently stolen from a boat on the way between Franklin and this city. Soon after the theft, a house in the vicini ty was appaared by fire, and the supposi-tion was that somebody had attempted to as a portion of the banzole for oil, when an explosion and the burning of the house followed.
