CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

Meeting of the Bar. har meeting was held on Saturday, the District Court room, to take some ac the parties court room, to take some action relative to the decease of the late Hon Hopewell Hepharn. Judge Shaler presided, with Thos. J. Keenan and Jno. H. Balley, Esqra., as Secretaries. A Residued, That the members of the bar of Alleyheny county have heard with deep regret of the decease of the Hon. Hope well Hepburn, formerly an Associate street, to represent Grant's Hill. These belong to the Schenley estate and will not, probably, be cut down to the level for some time. Truly, the encroachments of well Hepburn formerly an Associate Judge of the District Court, and subsequently one of our most respected and exemplary practitioners.

Resolved, That by his knowledge and skill in the science and practice of law, his sound judgment, and his kind and courteons demeanor, this able judge and

That Dog Fight.

Severe must have been the disappointment of those humane and refined gentlemen who had for so long a time been looking forward to an exciting canine conto an exciting canine con-test, in which the important question of the superiority of the lighting dogs of Pittsburgh and Baltimore was to be for-ever set attrest, and grievous was the vexation of the amateurs who were deprived. by the relientless ministers of the law, of the felicity of witnessing the contest, the expected details of which were so minutely foreshadowed by the "sporting editor" of the Chronicle a few days since. As we are told, the "aports" of the city had for a week been anticipating fun from this rare event—the dog, a splendid specimen of the canine race, had been in "training" seeluded spot in Huntingdon county, where it was thought there would be 'none to molest or implications, one fluntingdon, two large delegations, one form Baltimore and one from this city, the latter numbering as many as could be comfortably stowed in one railroad car. But, when the preliminaries had been arranged and everything was in readiness, the Sheriff of Huntingdon county, in the most heartless, abrupt and inconsiderate manner, informed the pleasure could be readers who she had been arranged and everything was in readiness, the Sheriff of Huntingdon county, in the most heartless, abrupt and inconsiderate manner, informed the pleasure could be readers who she had been arranged and everything was in readiness, the Sheriff of Huntingdon county, in the most heartless, abrupt and inconsiderate manner, informed the pleasure could be readered and single terms. They were under the dayies and volume and the consideration and the consideration and the s most hearties, abrupt and inconsiderate March 3, 1863. that the fight could not go bn—if it did he would consider it his duty to arrest all engaged and act accordingly. This was a damper, effectually blocking the game in that locality. The Pittsburgh boys, plucky as usual, and determined not to be baulked of their sport, offered to fight it out at any other place but the Baltimore "roughs" with had seen the champion dog of Pittsburgh and were not inspired, by his appearance, with any hope of victory, declined the offer and declared the match "off" Solliour boys were compelled to come home with their 'dorg,' the hand lers,' 'judges,' 'tasters,' and the Express, which is now being rigged out as money which they expected to double on the issue of the fight. We could wish and Jeffersonville ferry boat, Jas. Tompon the issue of the fight. We could wish (but for the inhumanity of the brutal conflict,) that the fight had come off and that they had been fugloriously defeated, losing every cent they had staked, provided such an example would have the effect of discountenancing any such exhibitions hereafter; as it is we will merely suggest to the centlemen who table part in this these: John Heichteathaler was engaged as a brakesman on a coal train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and was in the immediate emiloy of Messrs. Dickson, Stewart & Coff coal merchants. On the 22d of November, 1862, while the coal train was running up past the oil refinery of Messrs. Lockhart & Frew, located at Negley's run, the cars were thrown off the Negley's run, the cars were thrown off the two houses in the back ground. At the track and Leiphenthaler was killed. The accident having been attributed to the negligence of the defendents, in piling oil negligence of the defendents, in piling oil barrels so close to the railroad track as to come in contact with the cars, suit was entered against them for damages sustainentered against them for damages sustained by the widow in the loss of her husband—the amount claimed being $10,000. The jury found a verdict for plaintiff for $8,000 and costs. The case will go to the Supreme Court. Marshall and Brown for plaintiff and Woods and Hampton for defendants. The chief assignment of error is that the Court overruled certain points, one of which was that deceased, having expressed a fear that the engineer of the court overruled certain points, one of which was that deceased, having expressed a fear that the engineer of the court overruled by his recklessness, cause coal train would by his recklessness, cause his death, placed himself voluntarily in a precarious situation and that therefore his

A large part of this elevation has been cut down to the established grade and the change in the appearance of the hill part of the city above the Court House, during the last fifteen years, has been very great. The original surface of the hill has been nearly all cut away, excepting a strip of about one hundred and fifty feet, nearly in the centre of the square bounded by Fourth, Fifth, Grant and Smithfield streets, divided in the middle by Diamond street. URISTADURU'S HALB FERENCE IN THE RESIDENCE OF THE RESIDEN Facts about Brandreth's Pills. Mr. G. Tan Krok Sheldon, Editor Sing Sci Mr. G. The Evox Sullions. Editor Sing Sing Republicans.

Dear Sir—I would state that I was induced to use BRANDR STH'S PILLS, through the recommendation of John R, Swiff, of Croton, Westchester county, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick for some two years, very contive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandrich's Pill every day for three days, and then took one Pill every day, with an occasional does of rix. In one month he was able to go to work, and in three months he well, gaining 40 pounds in weight.

Yours truly, EDWARD PURDY.

Westomested C. 1877, as:

Edward Purdy being duly sworn, says that he resides in the town of New Castle; that some years ago he was very sick with a soro on his lag, which had been running for over five years; that he was also much distressed by a pain in his clear, and bosides very costive and despeptic that after trying various remedies and poster that after trying various remedies and poster. and besides very costive and dyspeptic; that afser trying values remedies and many physicians, he commerced using Brandreth's Pills, six to eight three times a weak, and at the end of one month, the sere on his leg healed, and at the end of two months he was entirely cured of costiveness, dyspeptia and pain, and has remained well ever
