TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 17.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

Death of Reese C. Fleeson, Esq.

After a lingering and painful sickness, Reese C. Fleeson, Esq., senior editor of the Daily Dispatch, died about two o'clock on Monday morning, at his residence in Manchester. His decease had been expected for weeks, since the breaking of an abscess, and he bore his illness with Christian fortitude and resignation. Mr. Fleeson, who was in the fiftieth year of his age at the time of his decease, was a native of Mississippi, and came to this State while very young, and, having served an apprenticeship as a printer with Mr. Perry, of Philadelphia, removed to Greensburg, where he published the Westmoreland Intelligencer, a spirited Whig organ, from 1830 to 1836. He then came to Pittsburgh and started the Spirit of Liberty, an independent paper, which proved unsuccessful, and later the Temperance Banner, which was not sustained. He was for a time employed upon the Gazette (then edited by the late Neville B. Craig, Esq., his uncle), subsequently upon the Commercial Journal, with the late R. M. Riddle, Esq. In 1850 he purchased an interest in the Dispatch, then a comparatively new enterprise, but meeting with good success as the only penny daily in the city, and became associated in its publication with J. Heron Foster, Esq., with whom he maintained a business connection up to the time of his demise. Until about a year since (though never a robust man) he took an active part in the editorial department of that paper, wielding a fearless but caustic pen. He was an original and consistent abolitionist, and used his best efforts to promote the success of that faction for many years. Latterly he had been so much prostrated that he was compelled to give up writing except on rare occasions, being confined to his room and frequently to his bed.

As we have said, Mr. Fleeson's mother was a sister of the late venerable Neville B. Craig. While in Greensburg he was married to a daughter of Rev. John Black, who died many years ago. After taking up his residence in Pittsburgh he married a Miss Dickson, resident here, who survives him.

Mr. Fleeson was a man of correct moral principle, generous impulses and warm friendships. He was also endowed with considerable energy and untiring industry and possessed of many other good qualities. A true Christian in profession and practice, he won the respect and esteem of good men generally. His circle of friends was very wide and many abroad will learn of his decease with genuine sorrow. Those who knew and loved him here will take a mournful pleasure in paying the last sad respects to his mortal remains.

Mr. Fleeson's funeral will take place at ten o'clock Wednesday forenoon. The funeral services will commence at half past nine.

Stamp Duties on Promissory Notes.

The following are the new provisions relative to the stamp duty on promissory notes: Any memorandum, check, receipt or other written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at a time designated, shall be considered as a promissory note within the meaning of that section, and shall be stamped accordingly; and that any inland bill of exchange, draft or order for the payment of any sum of money exceeding $20, otherwise than at sight or on demand, and any promissory note shall, (in lieu of the duties prescribed in schedule B.) have the following stamp or stamps affixed thereon: One Cent—Upon every sum of $200, or any fractional part thereof, if payable on demand, or at any time not exceeding thirty-three days, including the grace, from the date or sight. Two Cents—If payable at any time not less than thirty-three days as aforesaid, and not exceeding sixty-three days, including the grace, from date or sight. Three Cents—If payable at any time not less than sixty-three days, as aforesaid, and not exceeding ninety-three days, including the grace, from date or sight. Four Cents—If payable at any time not less than ninety-three days, as aforesaid, and not exceeding four months from date or sight, including the grace.—Six Cents—If payable at any time not less than four months, as aforesaid, and not exceeding six months from date or sight, including grace. Ten Cents—If payable at any time exceeding six months from date or sight.

Liquor Licenses.

The Judges of the Court of Common Pleas were busily engaged yesterday in acting upon applications for liquor licenses, and renewals of old ones. A rigid inquiry was made into the character of each applicant, and a strict compliance with the law required. Few of the new applications were granted, and some renewals were refused. A new order has been issued that hereafter applications shall be heard month by month on the Wednesday next succeeding the last Monday in each month, at 10 o'clock of said day. In connection with this order, applicants are notified that they must comply with the provision of the law requiring them to file their petitions in the Clerk's office three weeks previous to the day fixed for a hearing.

East Birmingham Nominations.

At a "citizens'" (Republican) meeting in East Birmingham, on Saturday evening, the following ticket was nominated:—Justice of the Peace—August Ammon. School Directors—John Hughes, John A. Carson. Judge of Election—David Shearing. Inspector—Theodore Steinecke. Auditors—Thomas Fawcett, Chas. Ruhe. Burgess—Jas. Bryce.—Council—Thos. Worcester, Louis Keib, Chas. Stolzenbach. Assessor—David Baldwin. Constable—Christian Feld.

A resolution was adopted by the meeting to support for office no person who does not "give an unconditional support to all lawful measures of our Government in the suppression of the rebellion and treason that now exist in our country."

A Fine Pleasure Boat.

We understand that the Undine Boat Club of this city have contracted with Mr. James McKay, of Harlem, New York, for a splendid pleasure barge, finely furnished and of perfect model. The boat is to be seventy-five feet long, built for sixteen oars and will be completed in time for use next season, when boating will probably receive a fresh impetus.

Western Railway Matters.

The Little Miami Railroad Company has secured the control of the Dayton & Western Railroad, and will take possession on the 12th of April. It is also rumored that the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad Co. have leased the Dayton & Michigan road, and still further that the Little Miami has under consideration the propriety of leasing the Sandusky road.

Runaway.

Yesterday morning a horse attached to a wagon belonging to the Pearl Mill, Allegheny, ran off on Fifth street, but fell on the sidewalk near Market street. Fortunately no one was injured, and little damage was done beyond the breaking of the carriage of Mr. Coleman, of Allegheny, which came in collision with the wagon.

Democratic Club Meeting.

Notwithstanding the adjournment of the Allegheny County Democratic Club, sine die, by Mr. A. McTighe, that body will assemble as usual this evening at 7 o'clock. Members are all requested to be present as business of importance will come up.—The place of meeting is Vigilant Hall, Third street, near Market.

Sanitary Committee's Depository.

The Pittsburgh Sanitary Committee has secured for its central office and depository the rooms on the first floor of Burke's Building, formerly occupied by the Iron City Bank. The circular, containing the address and proceedings of the committee, together with some publications of the United States Sanitary Commission, will gladly be furnished those who are interested in aiding the sick and suffering soldiers. All donations to be entrusted to this committee may henceforth be sent to 59 Fourth street, between Wood and Market.

St. Patrick's Day.

This, the 17th of March, is the anniversary of St. Patrick's Day. We have heard of no movement towards celebrating the occasion.

Burned to Death.

On last Friday a daughter of Mr. John Chambers was so severely burned at the house of her parents, in Monongahela Borough, that she died in a few hours afterwards.

Freeport Railroad.

A bill has been read in the Legislature to extend the time for completing the Allegheny City and Freeport Railroad five years.

Shops Located.

The required sum ($40,000) to secure the location of the shops of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Co. at Meadville having been subscribed, the company have agreed to erect them at that place.—This will add largely to the importance of that flourishing inland town.

The Gymnastic Exhibition.

To-night the Gymnastic Association give a benefit at their hall on Diamond street, to those two noble charities, the Sanitary Committee and the Subsistence Committee, as promised after the very successful exhibition last week. The Gymnasium has contributed a large proportion of its members to our armies, and comes forward again to aid in sending supplies to the soldiers. We hope to see this effort a successful one, and to this end urge all who can to attend the exhibition, which will of itself, be amply remunerative. The price of tickets has been fixed at fifty cents—to be had at the book and music stores and at the door.

Sanford.

If you want to enjoy a genuine, invigorating, health-giving "spell" of laughter go to-night and see and hear Sanford with his capital minstrel troupe. You cannot fail to enjoy their comicalities, even if you do not delight in ballad singing and instrumental music. Sam's budget, as well as his company, has been replenished since his last visit, both vastly improved. They opened at Concert Hall last night to a large audience, and kept them perfectly screaming with fun. Go by all means and see this star troupe.

Mazeppa.

Last night Mr. R. E. J. Miles and his beautiful horse Hiawatha made their first appearance at the Theatre this season, in the great spectacular drama of Mazeppa. The piece was well put upon the stage, admirably played, and the horse, under the fearless guidance of Mr. Miles, performed the novel part of making the circuit of the dress circle, on a platform built for the purpose, and then to the extreme height of the Theatre. The performance was a thrilling one, exciting unusual admiration. The piece will be repeated to-night with the same effects.

The Varieties.

While the horse opera is successful at the Theatre the Variety Company at Trimble's Varieties, Penn street, is also attracting good houses. Last evening two new candidates for public favor, Fanny Williams, a charming vocalist, and Eugene Albertani, the great Ethiopian prima donna, made their first appearance, and were well received. A good programme is offered for to-night, with these and other novelties.

Roofing.

We direct attention to the advertisement, in another column of Messrs. Lupton & Olden. The firm is a new one, lately embarked in the roofing business. They manufacture and put on felt, cement and gravel roofing, and their work, being superintended by one of the firm, is always reliable and warranted to "stand the weather." They repair old gravel, canvas and metallic roofs at very moderate rates. Mr. Olden has had long experience in the business, having been in the employ of the Messrs. Warren, Philadelphia, for seven years, and more recently in that of Mr. Jos. Hartman, of this city. We can commend this firm, as we believe their work will always give satisfaction.

A Printing Office Destroyed by Paroled Prisoners.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

&c., &c., &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The reason assigned at the Treasury Department for suspending the printing of postal currency 25 and 50 cent notes is, there is already a sufficient amount of such paper in proportion to the other denomination. The fact that there are counterfeits did not influence this action.

The Committee on the conduct of the war have, it is understood, closed their testimony, and in about two weeks will make their report.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue (Lewis) is expected to enter upon his duties to-morrow.

The expedition to colonize persons of color has been indefinitely postponed by the President.

OIL SPRINGS, C. W., March 16.—A serious riot occurred on Saturday night between the whites and negroes. The whites organized a force and marching to the negro quarters, ordered them away.—The rioters destroyed the property and burned the houses. The negroes fled to the woods. Three rioters were captured and several wounded.

NEW YORK, March 16.—A letter from Tybee Island, below Savannah says, that on the evening of the 9th inst., came into the harbor and fired and left again before the guns of the fortification, six in number, could be brought to bear on her. The fort was in charge of Lieut. Miller. It is supposed that the steamer was the Alabama or Florida, or a blockade runner.

Secretary Chase left this morning for Washington. Whatever may eventually proceed from his consultations, it is believed, says the Commercial, that nothing has been accomplished for the present, either in the way of establishing a bank under the new law of Congress, or towards placing the new loan upon the market.

Mr. Gullardet writing to the Courier Des Estates Unis from Paris, February 27th gives rumors of an insurrection in Hungary, and an alleged resolution of the Emperor to recall the French army from Mexico, but states that both look improbable.

The bank statement presents the following results: Decrease in loans, $4,222,373; in specie, $3,595,004; in circulation, $3,659; in deposits, $4,745,178.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Reports reached here on Saturday apparently authentic that Generals Jones, Hampton and others, with ten thousand men, including a large proportion of cavalry and artillery, had came as far North as Strasburg on a movement towards Winchester. Advices received to-day, however, direct from that point, the story appears to be entirely unfounded. A heavy mounted reconnoissance by General Milroy having just returned after a two days' rapid march, visiting Strasburg and vicinity without finding the enemy or hearing of their approach in any force. A few of Imboden's cavalry were found to be higher up the Valley towards Staunton, having retired upon our advance. This does not look like any contemplated attack by the enemy in that quarter upon our large and well posted forces there who are on the alert for them.

Col. Wyndham has received orders to join his regiment in the army of the Potomac.

General Stahl, whose promotion as Major General was confirmed by Senate on Saturday, has been ordered to report to General Hentzleman, who has assigned him to the command of all the cavalry forces in departments of Washington.

A dispatch from Admiral Porter before Vicksburg dated the 7th inst., says he had just heard the signal agreed upon between himself and commander Smith, who commanded the naval portion of the Yazoo Expedition to be fired by the latter as soon as he should succeed in getting into the Yazoo River, nine minute guns and three guns afterwards in quick succession.

Charleston and Mobile papers of the 4th have been received. There were seven blockaders off the former port; the rate Florida, the Tribune says, left, while nine blockaders were in front of Mobile. She was chased nineteen miles, but finally ran out of view, and on her way destroyed a new Yankee brig on her first voyage.

The papers contain many advertisements for enrollment of conscripts.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 16.—Eight hundred parolé prisoners, en route to Chicago were detained at Richmond, Ind., last night. While there they completely demolished the office of the Jeffersonian, anti war sheet. They arrived here tonight and threatened the Sentinel. The military have placed a guard to prevent disturbance.

A large indignation meeting was held here to-night in regard to an article in the Cincinnati Enquirer insulting to soldiers families.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 15.—We have information from Yorktown that the rebel cavalry are making some display about Gloucester Point.

Thirty-five Confederate prisoners arrived at Fortress Monroe this morning, on the steamboat Louisiana, from Fort McHenry. They will soon be sent to City Point for exchange.

From the best authority, we are informed that there is no prospect of an attack by the rebels at Blackwater at present.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Mr. Seward's Dispatches.

[From the London Times Feb. 27.]

Some day or other, when a Carlyle or a Kinglake of the time shall give the world a history of the great American war, the dispatches of the federal ministers which have been recently published will constitute one of the most extraordinary chapters of the story. What reflections they will actually suggest it is not for us to predict, but in one sense or another Mr. Seward will undoubtedly be presented to posterity as a prodigy of statesmanship.—Either he can clearly discern what nobody else can distinguish, or he is without the power of seeing what is patent to the whole world besides. If he is not preternaturally right, he is incomprehensively wrong. Taking his dispatches, as of course we must do, for expressions of sincere and genuine convictions on the subject of the war, we find it almost impossible to imagine how opinions so unique could have been formed out of materials which are common to the whole world. Mr. Seward knows no more, or at least states no more than is known to everybody in Europe as well as America, and yet, in the most decisive and peremptory tone, he announces conclusions which nobody in Europe, and, as we believe, few even in America, would think of accepting.

Mr. Seward repudiates the idea of a conference between a national government and an insurgent force, precisely as he might have done before the first battle of Bull Run. He is much obliged to the French, but he will have none of it, and for nothing, indeed, but misconceptions of fact, based on erroneous representations, could have suggested the proposition.—That is the last phase of the American war as etched by Mr. Seward. We must allow that this picture of affairs is consistent—consistent, that is, with all that Mr. Seward has written from the beginning. It is the very story, without change or omission, which we have had, backed with his note of hand at "90 days' date," and renewed any number of times during the last two years. It is consistent enough, so far, beyond a doubt. Whether it has any consistency with facts or truth is a question which we had much rather leave to be decided by events than argue with Mr. Seward at present.

From the London Morning Post, Feb. 27.

It is scarcely possible to treat this strange document seriously. It is certainly impossible to test it either by arguments or facts. If a man avers positively that black is white, or that two and two make five, of course, if you are not as great a fool as himself, you will not at tempt to reason him out of his strange delusion. In like manner, we shall not attempt to prove that Mr. Seward's letter is a tissue of delusions or falsehoods from beginning to end. If he says that his government possesses credit, though it is unable to raise a loan even among its own citizens; if he says that the armies of the North have been victorious, although at the very instant he was writing the dispatch he well knew that the greatest of its armies was in process of dismemberment, after having undergone a continuous series of defeats; if he calls the aggregate area of the Southern States a small territory in defiance of what geographies and atlases say to the contrary, why we can only treat him as we would a perverse man, who, for the mere sake of obstinacy, wilfully misstated facts. But as Mr. Seward is not a lunatic, and as we believe him to be much too shrewd to suppose that any one will be inclined to believe his statements, we are naturally led to inquire what motive could have induced him to write so much what his countrymen would call "bunkum." Perhaps he expects to gain in Washington, among certain classes, a little political capital, and, in exchange for that, [illegible] different about the contempt he must incur in Europe. Still, emanating, as this document does, from the federal cabinet, it is truly incredible that that body should have sunk so low as to indorse as its own, in the face of the world, so much arrant falsehood and absurd nonsense.

From the London Morning Star, Feb. 27.

Mr Seward's reply to the French proposal adjourns of no rejoinder. It is an absolute and final rejection of offers of mediation, direct or indirect. It breathes no unfriendliness or disrespect. But it asserts with the utmost distinctness that the American people will fight out for themselves the war in which they are engaged. It is a proclamation of unimpaired national sovereignty. It is a manifesto to Europe of the unabated national resolution. Henceforth no foreign power can propose even the mildest form of interference with the least hope of its acceptance. Unless the federal government should itself be revolutionized, the revolutionary struggle in which it is a party must run on to an unaided termination. France may resent so peremptory a response to her unasked suggestions, but she cannot renew them. If, faithful to her professions of inviolable friendship, she submits to the rebuff, she must do so in silence. Respect for her own dignity must forbid any further advances of this kind to a government that so jealously respects its own independence.

The people of the loyal States may not be unanimous in approval of the emphatic negative returned by the federal cabinet to a proposition the least objectionable that could be addressed to it. But until they signify their disapproval so strongly as to compel the President to have recourse to new advisers—an event of which there appears no present probability—or, in other words, until mediation be invited instead of repelled—the great powers of civilization must feel that there is for them no choice between silent neutrality and hostile interference.

American Watches for Americans

THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY gives notice that they have lately issued a new style of Watch, expressly designed for Soldiers and others who desire a good watch at a moderate price. We offer to sell our watch, which is of the most substantial material, an accurate and durable timekeeper, and in Sterling Silver cases, 1 uniting pattern, at as low a price as is asked for the trash *Ameri*and Lepines of foreign make referred to.

We have named the new series of Watches, WM ELLERY, Boston, Mass., which name can be found on the plate of every watch of this manufacture, and is one of our trademarks.

RAILWAY TIMEKEEPERS,

Especially Adapted for Army Sales!

WE ARE OBLIGED TO PAY GOLD for the Watches in Geneva, and owing to the premium on specie, our price is now $85 These are our lowest rates—as gold advances or declines, the price will fluctuate accordingly. The New York Illustrated News of Feb. 7th, 1863, says:—"The Hubbard Bros. of this city, are importing a most appropriate and serviceable Watch for Army Sales. Its appearance is neat and taking, the cheap and tawdry look of Watches of that class being wholly avoided. This novelty should meet the quick and heavy sale it merits, and we hope it will prove as remunerative to the enterprising pair as it promises." Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, of Feb. 21, 1863, says:—"Hubbard's Time-keeper is becoming a proverbial for their accuracy and reliability. They are particularly valuable for officers in the army, and travelers. For sale at $20 to $25 each, readily. Prices—Heavy silver-plated or plain gold-plated, per case of six, $85. We have no agents or consignees, buyers and at least such as direct, ordering from their advertisement. Terms on New York, payable to order. Money may be drawn by the Express Company, request*ing them to make the purchase from us. Gold and others in foreign States must send cash* with the order. Address
