THEY CONTAIN OR BAD WHISHY! station of Hoodand's Gorman Bitters, (purely detable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscruious adventurers, have opened upon suffering manity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape poor whisky, vilely obmpounded with injurious, and christened Tonics, Stomachles and Bitbware of the innumerable array of alcoholic parations in plotheric bettles, and big-beilied of under the modest appellation of Bitters; ich, instead of curing only aggravates diseases, leave the disappointed sufferers in despair. leave the disappointed sufferers in despair. YOU WANTSOMETHING to STRENGTH-U WANT A GOOD APPETITE! STITUTION! TO FEEL WELL! HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Promit. Newton Brown, b. D., Editor of the En evelopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrast of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a mán may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any slimple preparation in the hope that he may thus cointribute to the benefit of others.

I dot this the more readily in regard to Hoofland, German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was projudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Eag for the removal of this prejudice by proper esta; and for encouragement to try them, when affering from great and long continued debility, he used three bottles of these Bitters, at the segmining of the present year, was followed by evident; relief, and restoration to a degree of podity and mental vigor which I had not for ix moniths before, and had almost depaired of rejaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for ilrecting me to the use of them.

GREMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

D. O. M. JACKSON - Sir: Ht gave me pleasure years ago, to give you accretificate, testiyin the German Bitters had done for me. I am owperfectly cured of all those diseases your edicine professes to cure, viz. Dysoppsia, Chroncand Neuvous debility, disease of the Kidneys, to. The howerful infinencest exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted fiednestly in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reoutstion in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above liseases. Respondully, HANNAH WUNDER, Main street, above Rittenhouse, Germantown, enn's. JUST THE THING FOR THE SOLDIERS.

He had reached his destination at nine o'clock, delivered his instructions punctually, and obtained the countersign punctually, and obtained the countersign of the day. Returning, he had passed a day and five miles from Rappahannock, and stopped to light a pipe at a picket fire, still further on, complaining, in the latter case, that his horse was a triffe lame. He was, to all appearances, sober, and expressed himself as resolved to get back to head-quarters by midnight. But subto head-quarters by midnight. But subsequently, no man in the army had encountered him, and traces of neither rider nor horse had been discovered, though diligent inquires were made far and wide. His capture by the enemy was improbable, for our picket posts were so close and continuous that the lines were considered.

continuous, that the lines were considered to be impervious. No bedies of Southern troops were contignous; and though the Virginians within the lines were sulien and hostile, it was believed that only a few aged and infirm people remained, as the young and able-bodied had departed to join the Confederate armies. The only plausible alternative was, that Brock Edmunds, knowing the location of our nick.

The ride for tive or six miles of the way was enlivened by belated teams, couriers. plausible alternative was, that Brock Edmunds, knowing the location of our pickets, had avoided them, and escaped in the darkness to his Southern friends. The Richmond newspapers, however, which our outriders brought in daily, made no mention of Captain Edmunds, and no recent prisoners had heard anything of his desertion. I replied carelessly, refilling my pipe, and, following the sergeant across a grass-plot and through a wicket, stood before the General. He was seated at a pine table, covered with maps, diagrams, and manuscripts, the candle threw an imperfect light on his handsome, bronzed face, and broad, prominent forehead. A trunk, marked with his initials, and a small iron had stand with two compacticles, and a bed stead, with two camp-stools, and a short wooden bench, comprised his furniture, but there was a picture of the Ma-

"Sit down, Lieutenant Mintlin!" he said, curtly; as I took one of the chairs, he resumed his writing. I looked at the richly quilted saddle that lay at his feet, at the appendidly mountail world the coverence. the splendidly mounted sword thrown carc-lessly over the bed, at the hostlers and silver-plated pistols beneath his rupper pillow. THINK! IT IS NOT MORE TEXAM instice for a person that has been sorely afficted for years, when he is not only relieved of his sufferings; but completely cured. I have been afficted with a very malignant inflamatory Erysipelas for years. I have called on several of our regular Physicians but all without any benefit. I called on Doctor Branstrup, some time post and have taken his medicine which, however, is all composed of herbs. I am now as well as I ever was. Any person wishing to see me will please call at THOMAS DUNLAP'S.
