CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

Allegheny Ladies' Aid Society. The following donations have been received by the Allegheny Ladies' Aid Society since March 12th, 1863.

Bills Passed. Among the bills which passed the House of Representatives were the following:

Interesting to Teachers. Circulars to Teachers issued by the County Superintendent of Schools.

Pushing Forward. The Harrisburg Patriot and Union has the following: "The West Pennsylvania Railroad is being pushed forward with much vigor."

Fire at the Mayor's Office. Yesterday morning, about four o'clock, fire was discovered by the captain of the watch in the cellar under the front part of the Mayor's office.

Deserters. Provost Marshal Wright has sent off a hundred or more deserters since Monday morning.

Compromise. The railroad indebtedness of the city is being compromised slowly but surely.

Substitutes for Tea and Coffee. A correspondent of one of our exchanges attributes the "spotted fever," otherwise called the "cold plague," to the use of tea and coffee.

Mining Statistics. The following is a statement of the cost of stock market, of iron products, and dividends declared, in round numbers, on seven mines in the Lake Superior region:

Dangerous Counterfeit. Counterfeit three dollar bills on the Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia are in circulation. They are well executed and have the word "THREE" printed in green across the face.

Oil Creek Railroad. The Oil Creek Railroad, twenty seven miles long, is about doing a flourishing business.

Gen. Cass for Governor.

At a large and respectable meeting of the Democratic citizens of the 1st Ward, Allegheny city, Pa., after several eloquent speeches, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Troops for Gen. Burnside. On Friday night last, a detachment of the 9th New Hampshire regiment, Col. H. B. Tittus, arrived in the East, en route for Cincinnati.

Useful Publications. Henry Miner, Lyon's buildings, sends us three publications which every one should have.

Whose is It. While the 11th New Hampshire regiment was at City Point, an evening, a good chain was found.

Joseph Meyer & Son. Manufacturers of Fancy and Plain Furniture and Chairs.

Dry Goods. Opening on Monday Next, March 30th.

Barker's. Embroidering the greatest variety ever exhibited at any opening in this city.

Spring Goods. We would call the attention of buyers to our stock of Spring and Summer Goods.

Macrum & Glyde's. Lace Collars and Sleeves, Blouse Sleeves and Bertha, Linen, Cambric and Lawn Handkerchiefs, etc.

Hugus & Hacke. Successors to W. & D. Hugus, Fifth and Market.

New and Beautiful Goods. Macrum & Glyde. No. 78 Market Street.

A Live Concern.

The idea of an auction house usually associated with the mind's eye, and piles of broken furniture, dirty carpets and dilapidated and worn-out goods generally, sent to the auctioneer not because the owner expects to realize anything from their sale, but merely to get them out of his way.

Second Edition

THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAPH.

Enemy Repulsed at Williamsburg.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Information has been received by telegraph from Fort Monroe of the arrival there to-day of the U. S. supply steamer Massachusetts, from U. S. Col. G. on 2nd, via Charleston, Wilmington and Beaufort. She brings to news except the dispatches to the Navy Department, which confirm the report of the destruction by our fleet of the rebel steamer Georgian, off Long Island beach, previously reached here.
