DAILY POST.

ADDRESS OF HON. GEORGE T. CURTIS

On Loyalty.

Hon. George T. Curtis, formerly of Boston, but now a resident of New York, addressed the Democratic Union Association on the 28th ult.

He spoke upon the platform amid applause, and was greeted with three cheers, which he spoke as follows:

DEMOCRATIC ASSOCIATION: Nothing of the sort has ever before been done in this country. It is a mark of the measure of his ability to serve in a time like this. It is a mark of the measure of his ability to serve in a time like this.

It is a mark of the measure of his ability to serve in a time like this. It is a mark of the measure of his ability to serve in a time like this.
