RHODE ISLAND-ELECTION.

The result of the thode Island election on Wednesday seems to have relieved the Abolition papers amazingly. Their rejoicing over the event looks as if they had been in doubt lest that State, too, would describe their standard. The Tribune rejoices and cries "All hail, Rhode Island." Let us see what there is in the result for Abolition exultation.

In Lour — Ine proclamation of the President of the United States, appears to be of a very strange nature. It professes to emancipate all slaves in places where the United States and titled States any jurisdiction nor make emancipation a reality, but it does not decree emancipation of slaves in any States or parts of States occupied by Federal troops and subject to United States jurisdiction, and where, therefore, emancipation might, if decreed, have been carried into effect.
