Department placed me in command of the typsburg.

In the absence of the full reports of the first of September I had been instructed that I had nothing to do with the troops engaged in active operations under Gen. Pope, but that my command was limited to the immediate garrison of Washington or Gen. Pope, but that my command was limited to the immediate garrison of Washington or Gen. Pope, but that my command was limited to the immediate garrison of Washington or Gen. Pope, but that my command was limited to the immediate garrison of Wash works at this immediate garrison of Wash and the company of the two passes through the cavalry and the corps of Sumner, Hooker's and Mansfield's corps had lost heavily, several general officers having been carried from the field. I was a tone time composited, though the two passes perhaps a thousand feet in height, to some the cavalry and the corps of Sumner, Hooker's and Mansfield's corps having been carried from the field. I was a tone time composited to the remaining troops from between Buonsboro' and Hagerstown to a position where they could resist attack so gallantly gained among the wounded for the ceive the reinforcements expected from the ceive the reinforcements expected from the ceive the reinforcements expected from the manders of the enemy's disor.

of Gen. Pope's troops (including my own Army of the Potomac) as soon as they approached the vicinity of Washington, to go out and meet them; and to post them as I deemed best it o repulse the enemy and insure the safety of the city.

At this time the sake imposed upon me was limited to the dispositions necessary to resist a direct attack of the enemy upon the capital. Such indeed, was the danger naturally indicated by the defeat of cover all the approaches to the city, and are readily defensible, the gaps is the more prominent, being that by which the national road crosses the mountains. It was necessarily indicated as the route of advance of our main army.

The carrying of Crampton's Pass, some five or six miles below, was also important, to furnish the means of reaching the flank of the enemy, and having, as a later of the enemy and the troops were disposed to cover all the approaches to the city, and so as to be readily thrown upon threatened points. New defences were thrown upon threatened points at the morning of the 14th, Gen. Pleasanton, with a cavalry force, reconnicted the position of the enemy, whom it has desired by the defeat of the national road crosses the mountains. It was necessarily indicated as the route of advance of our main army.

PHILADELPHIA LEATHER MARKET. PHIDADELPHIA LEATHER MARKET— The heavy leather market for the last week has been rather inactive; the receipts from the coun-try have not been large, and consumers have pur-chased only in small quantities. The stock in store, however, continues meagre. For the light-er descriptions there has been more activity: prices, though fluctuating, are fully maintained.
