DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

There will be a business meeting of the Club this evening, at their room, corner of Smithfield and Fifth, at 7½ o'clock.

A MEAN PERVERSION OF THE TRUTH.

The Pittsburgh Gazette appears to be as indifferent to truth as it is insensible to shame; its endeavors, yesterday, to tor ture the meaning of Mr. Stokes' speech, published in Wednesday's Post, was worthy of a pettifogger scribbling for the organ of incestuous Southern romances (?) and French Preventives. Here is a specimen of its efforts. Said the speaker:

"The high and sacred mission of the Democratic party, united with the true men of all parties, is to make peace with the South—to restore the ascendency of the Constitution, everywhere—to assure the equality of the States, and to vindicate the rights of man."

Upon this little paragraph the Gazette comments in this way:

"This shameful paragraph requires no comment. 'Make peace with the South' by a shameful surrender to armed traitors, and 'vindicate the rights of man' by tightening the bonds of the slave!"

There is no possible excuse for this shameful perversion of the truth; in no place does Mr. Stokes offer peace upon the terms imputed to him, and in no place does he say a word about "tightening the bonds of the slave." If a paper can thus wilfully insult its readers by such transparent falsehood, in relation to a matter which is public to the entire community, what reliance ought to be placed in its statements of matters with which the people are generally unacquainted? None whatever. What good the Gazette expects to accomplish by this silly and transparent perversion of a public man's opinions, we are unable to perceive.

The idea of peace with the rebellious states, and the ascendency of the constitution over them, appears to startle the Gazette from its natural stolidity, into ma lignant alarm. It sees nothing in the present contest which is really alarming, except the possibility of the war coming to a termination. The hundreds of thousands of widows and orphans, and the almost countless new made graves in which repose the bones of our countrymen are all forgotten, in the apprehension that, peace may come before the South is laid in a heap of ruins, its white population exterminated and its local institutions destroyed. Like Shylock forgetting his loss in the contemplation of enjoying the extasy of cutting from the merchant a piece of flesh nearest the victim's heart, so these fanatical abolitionists, of the Gazette school, are insensible to the calamities of the nation, because of their thirst for revenge upon an entire people. No union with slaveholders is still their design.

DANIEL S. DICKINSON.

At the meeting of the Radical League on Saturday last in New York, we learn from the World that the speakers were put into one of the parlors of the Everett House, and as their names were called they came forward, a badge of gaudy ribbons was pinned on their breasts, and they were marched, with an escort of officers of the society, to the stands designated for them. Among these gentlemen was Daniel S. Dickinson, who appeared as happy in his borrowed ribbons, as the Mock Duke did in his. To show how a policitical trimmer can be his own prophet, the World quotes the following passage from a speech made by this same Dickinson in 1860, when he was stumping in favor of his pet Breckinridge. Said he:

"Do you know, my Democratic friends, how the Republicans save the Democrats who go over to them? I will tell you how. They serve them as the New York butchers server his fat ox. He puts gaily-colored ribbons on his horns and marches him through the streets as a spectacle to be stared at, and then—last scene of all—he drives him to the slaughter-pen. This is the way Republicans serve Democrats who are flattered and cajoled by them into an abandonment of their principles."

It is not every man that is so signally privileged to be his own prophet.

WANT OF DISCIPLINE.

We have read a great many discouraging accounts lately of the condition of our troops along the Mississippi, but the following from a correspondent of the New York Times is the worst we have yet seen. If what this writer states is the truth, we do not wonder at our failure to reduce Vicksburg. This writer states: "On the boat, during our progress up, no line officers could be found who would associate with each other, but, on the contrary, each individual with a shoulder-strap, hunted up their privates and at once commenced a game of euchre or old sledge, and to electioneer in a small way for the next vacancy in office and popularity at home. In the rush to the tables for meals officers unco complainingly submitted to be crowded into waiting for the second or third meal in order that their prospective constituency might at once satisfy their hunger and not obtain cause of offense against their superiors. In a conversation with the colonel he assured me, in a tone not unmeant to reach the ears of a crowd of dirty, lounging blue-coats close by, that discipline degraded men by making mere machines of them, and that in this country, where one man is as intelligent, moral and sensitive as any other, we have no right to tame men by drill and break their spirit by restraint."

Estate of Stephen A. Douglas

The inventory of this estate has been filed in the County Court by D. P. Rhodes executor. It covers a large number of pieces of real estate, valued in the aggregate at several hundred thousand dollars; but there are incumbrances upon it equal to the appraised value of the entire property. The appraisers appointed by the Court to enumerate the personal estate report that they cannot find any personal property belonging to said estate.

TRUE AS GOSPEL.

The following paragraph we find in a late number of the Washington Chronicle, a paper under the management of John W. Forney; how it got there is more than we can divine. Forney, himself, never could have seen it, for it is a scathing rebuke to the loud profession of loyalty, now so common among contractors, and others who are making money off the calamities of the people. Says the Chronicle:

"As the question was propounded of old, who is on the Lord's side? and as a test was proposed by which those who pu posed to serve the Lord should be known, so it is now. Union men do not need repeated affirmations and oaths to attest their attachment to the cause, but their lives are sary for a man to go about proclaiming himself life will give assurance of that—so neither is it ally asserting that he is in favor of the Union. When a man is constantly asseverating that he is as good a Union man as anybody, we confess that we suspect his loyalty."

☞ The Democrats carried Hartford, Connecticut, the other day, by 450 majority. This is a gain of nearly one hundred since the Governor's election last week. The "picked men from the Army of the Potomac" have gone back to camp.

Political Preaching Rebuked.

"At a meeting of the members of the United Presbyterian Congregation of Rushcreek, Fairfield County, Ohio, on the 20th of February, 1863, the following resolutions were adopted as expressive of the sentiments of said congregation, the same being a portion of resolutions adopted by the United Presbyterian Congregation of Springfield, Ohio:

"Resolved, That any person believing in the inspiration of the Bible, the teachings of the Fathers, the practices of the Church for eighteen hundred and thirty years of her Christian experience, must be blind indeed if he can not discover a falling away from the Gospel truth, and the substituting in the room thereof the political heresies of the present day; and that the 'rendering unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's,' was a grand mistake.

"Resolved, That as far as the ministry of reconciliation have descended from the high and holy calling of preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which was ushered in by the heavenly messenger on the plain of Bethlehem in the ever-memorable song of 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will toward men,' and become babbling politicians, so far have they forfeited their claim to live off of the Gospel.

"Resolved, That so far as these messengers of peace proclaim the unadulterated Word of God, that is able to make wise unto salvation, so far are they entitled to respect and ministerial support.

"Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Ohio Eagle, the Cincinnati Enquirer, the United Presbyterian of Pittsburgh.

"THOMAS HENRY, Chairman.
"D. V. BROWN, Clerk."

Partizan Intolerance----Proscription in Business.

It is alleged, by persons who profess to knew, that a cardinal feature of the policy of the "Union League" organization is to "refrain from all business transactions and intercourse with Democrats." How ever skeptical we might have been on first hearing an intimation of this being one of the purposes of this new and dangerous organization, recent disclosures continue us it is one of the chief means relied on, by the political bigots and adventurers who compose or control the "Leagues," to "crush out" opposition to the mad suicidal policy of the Lincoln Administration. The editor of a Democratic journal at Johnstown, Pa., and another brother of the quill in an adjoining county, both complain, in their last issues, of certain mercantile houses of Pittsburgh refusing them advertisments for the sole reason that they did not support the Administration'—supporting it, of course, in all its schemes of negro Emancipation and Colonization, in its flagrant and habitual violation of the Constitution, in its assaults on the liberties of the people and the rights of the States, in its perverse disregard of the popular expressions at the polls, and in all the mistakes and follies it has made or committed! And this is the quid pro quo editors of Democratic journals are asked to render for the beggarly pittance of a five or ten dollar advertisement from houses which have been made rich by Democratic patronage! Out upon such intolerance and impudence! it is as disgraceful and insufferable as it is ungrateful.

Politics and business are essentially different things, and the attempt to make the latter subserve the interests of the Republican party will prove a signal failure. In vulgar parlance, "it is a game two can play at;" and those who seek to propagate the heresies and improve the fortunes of Abolitionism by dictation and persecution of this character, will find they have made a blunder quite as damaging to their private interests as it must show itself disastrous, sooner or later, to the organization that inaugurates such a crusade on Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Opinion. The American people will never relinquish these sacred prerogatives at any cost or sacrifice, much less at the bidding or for the gratification of the narrow and vindictive partizans of an Administration that has abused the confidence and disappointed the hopes of the country, and violated every pledge under which it came into power.

We are glad to know that, despite the "League," its teachings and enjoinings, there are a great many Republicans in and out of our great cities who have no sympathy with the "odious and disgraceful proscription" of which we speak. The names of a number may be found in our own columns, and in the columns of other Democratic journals. They are liberal, fair-dealing, high-minded gentlemen, who stoop to no such disreputable means of proselyting to their faith and party, and who cheerfully accord to their opponents the right they claim for themselves, of being guided by their own reason, judgment and conscience in all matters of political concern. Let Democrats confine their dealings to men of this character and of their own household, until the bigots and demagogues who seek to proscribe them are taught a needed lesson.—Waynesburg Messenger.

Internal Revenue Decision.

Ex-Commissioner Boutwell is to publish with the official sanction of the Treasury Department, the Internal Revenue laws, with copious index decisions, extracts from correspondents, and notes of his own.

Ex-President Tyler's Wines.

A correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser and Register says that the wines of ex-President Tyler, sold at auction a few days ago, brought prodigious prices.—Rhenish bought for $10 per bottle; old Regalia Maderia $16; old Port $18 75; old Santerne, vin Duquenac, $11; French brandy very old, from $90 to $100 per gallon.

A Female Soldier in Battle.

The Altoona Register tells of a female just returned to that city, after a service of eighteen months in the army, without having her sex discovered. She took part in three battles, and was wounded twice, first above the eye and then in the arm, the latter wound compelling her to disclose her sex.

SPEECH OF SENATOR COWAN.

We have been handed the speech of Hon. Edgar Cowan, delivered in the United States Senate, on the 2d of March last, on the Indemnity Bill, and have read it with a great deal of pleasure. It is moderate and calm and the sentiments such as becomes a statesman to utter in this terrible emergency. We do not, of course, approve of this bill, but there is in the speech much good sound sense.

We commend the following extracts to the attention of those proscriptive bigots in this county who are so bitter in their denunciations of Democratic men and measures:

"Now, it seems to me that if we of the predominant party were more tolerant of the Opposition, and instead of taking pains to insult their beliefs and misrepresent their opinions, we should be very careful to avoid any allusion to them whatever, we should soon disarm that Opposition. I have been from the first of opinion that the introduction of any measure, no matter how important it might appear to be in the eyes of their friends, calculated to provoke the hostility of the Democratic party and incite it to opposition, was mischievous to the highest degree, and that all we might gain by such a measure would be nothing compared with what we should lose by arousing it to resist it. Their harmonious co-operation with us in the prosecution of the war is worth more to the country a thousand times over than any measure we could propose, and which would tend to alienate them from us. Is there any man living to day, who loves his country better than his own hobby, who would not be willing and ready to give up all the causes of difference with that great party, composing one-half our people, for the sake of insuring its hearty and cheerful co-operation with us in carrying on the war? Sir, I had rather have the moral and material aid of the Democratic party in this war than all the legislative projects that could be hatched in the brains of a Congress composed entirely of reformers.—One kindly pulsation of its great heart and one sturdy stroke of its mighty arm would do more to put down the rebellion than all the laws we could possibly pass. I would cheerfully yield all my preconceived notions at any time to secure its aid in this extremity, and with its aid I believe the unity of the Republic would soon be restored and the old flag again float everywhere, still more the subject of veneration and still more the assurance of safety and protection than it ever was. I would respect the traditions of that party and deal tenderly with its likes and dislikes, and surely under no circumstances would I offend it when it could be avoided."

Bachelor's Defences.

Bachelors are styled by married men who have put their foot into it, as only half-perfected beings—cheer'less vagabonds—but half a pair of scissors—and many other titles are given them; while on the other hand, they extol their state as one of perfect bliss—that a change from earth to heaven would be somewhat of doubtful good. If they are so happy, why don't they enjoy their happiness and hold their tongues about it? What do half the men get married for? Simply that they may have some one to darn their stockings, sew buttons on their shirts, and their babies,—that they may have somebody (a married man once said) "to pull off their boots when they get a little balmy!" These fellows are always talking of the loneliness of bachelors. Loneliness, indeed! Who is petted to death by mothers who have daughters? Invited out and to evening parties, and told to drop in just when it is convenient? The bachelor. Who lies in clover all his days, and when he dies has flowers strewed on his grave by the girls who could not entrap him? The bachelor. Who strews flowers on the married man's grave? His widow? Not a bit of it; she pulls down the tombstone that a six weeks' grief has set up in her heart, and goes and gets married again—she does. Who goes to bed early because time hangs heavily on his hand? The married man. Who has wood to split, house hunting and marketing to do, the young ones to wash, and the lazy servants to look after? The married man. Who is taken up for whipping his children? The married man. Who gets divorced from his wife? The married man. Finally, who has got the Scripture on his side? The bachelor. St. Paul knew what he was talking about—"He that marries does well; but he that marries not does better."

Assessors Under the Tax Law.

Several Senators and Representatives from the New England States are at Washington, upon the special business of effecting a modification of the ill-advised system of compensating Assessors under the Tax Law. A portion of their fees is a per centage on collections above a certain amount. The inducement to assess high is so practically mischievous that the principle of compensation in this respect must be altered.

Discovery of a Wonder of the Skies.

Wm. Mitchell, Chairman of the Committee upon the Observatory at Harvard, Massachusetts, in his recent report, alluded to the discovery in the seeming neighborhood of Sirius, by means of the gigantic refractor of Mr. Alvah Clerk, an object, which had escaped the space penetrating power of any other telescopes.—This body has been since seen and observed upon by Mr. Bond ot the Observatory, and though the observation of years may be required absolutely to identify this as the perturbing power, yet its apparent proximity to Sirius, and most of all its direction from it, leave little doubt that this is indeed the object hitherto known only by is effects. Thus we have added to the catalogue not a new star only, but a magnificent wonder; and we may still be reminded of one of the remarks of La Place, and certainly a very impressive one—"That which we know is little, but which we know not is immense."

Rumors from Western Virginia.

Last's night's Washington Star says:

This has been a day for sensation rumors, one current being to the effect that a force of rebel cavalry appeared at Charlestown yesterday and advanced a detachment on a reconnoissance to Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg; that the detachment sent to Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg was driven back to the main body of the Confederate cavalry, and that the forcesent to Harper's Ferry was consequently recalled, and fell back without accomplishing anything. This report is said to have been brought by a sutler, and nobody else, official or otherwise, oddly enough, "has the news." With the constant communication of Harper's Ferry by telegraph and by rail, information of of such an occurrence must have found its way here long in advance of the sutler.

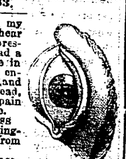
PERMANENT ADDRESS IS

No. 16 Abingdon Place, New York City.

Here we give a few of the many whom Dr. Jones has cured since he came to Pittsburgh:

JOHN COONEY, four miles East of Wansfield, on Petersburg road, Richland county, Ohio, straightened eye, March 12th, 1863.



I have been so deaf in my left ear that I could not hear a watch tick when it was pressed against my ear. I had a singing and crackling noise in my head. Dr. Jones has entirely restored my hearing and cured the noise in my head, without giving me any pain or causing any loss of time.

ZEBULON HESS
Somerset township, Washington county, 14 miles from Washington, Pa.

Mr John Kling, Lawrenceville, near Pittsburgh, eye was deformed: made perfect by Dr. Jones.

Our little daughter, four years old, had crooked eyes from birth, which disfigured her very much, and impaired her vision. We took her to the celebrated Dr. Jones, who has made her eyes look better than they ever did before. Indeed, they look full and perfect, and her sight is now good. We are very thankful to Dr. Jones. J. D. MAYER, East Liverpool, Ohio,

I have been hard of hearing, and quite bad in my left ear over two years, and was getting worse I placed myself under the celebrated Dr. Jones, who has cured me completely. JOHN FREDERICK,
No. 12 Quarry street, Pittsburgh.

I have been hard of hearing, with noises in my head, for ten years. I could not hear a watch tick when pressed against my worst ear, and could but just hear it when pressed to my best ear. Dr. Jones has cured me. I am a farmer, and am 68 years of age. I live in Jefferson township, Allegheny county, 11 miles from Pittsburgh.
SAMUEL WILSON,

Dr. Jones put an eye in for John Thompson, to move and appear natural; lives corner of Water and Ferry streets, Pittsburgh.

I have been totally deaf in my right ear nearly two years, and it was getting so for sight years and I was so deaf in my left ear I could not hear a watch tick against it. I can now hear a low whisper twenty feet in either or both of my ears. Dr. Jones has cured me without any pain or inconvenience. I can and do most cheerfully recommend Dr. Jones as being a gentleman of high professional skill and ability. I would advise those who are afflicted to go to Dr. Jones at once. My age is 70. BENJAMIN CAMPBELL,
Waynesburg, Greene county, Pa.

My son's eyes were crooked from childhood. Dr. Jones straightened them in two minutes, without my son feeling it. DANIEL BELTHEARAY, South Huntingdon township, Westmoreland co.

I have been hard of hearing, with most unpleasant noises in my head, for several years. I availed myself of the skill of Dr. Jones, who has cured me entirely. The afflicted should have no hesitancy in placing themselves under Dr. Jones.
JAMES GRAHAM,
No. 57 Morgan street, Allegheny city,

For 25 years I have been entirely deaf in one ear, and partly so in the other. I had singing, cracking and roaring in my ears and confusion in my head. The celebrated Dr. Jones has cured me—I can now hear perfect in both ears. Before I went to Dr. Jones persons had to almost holler in my best ear—and now I hear as any person in both ears. I am 70 years of age. I am a farmer, and live in Snowden township, near Pittsburgh, Allegheny county.
JAMES MCKEES.

My son, 13 years old, was born with double hair-lip. It disfigured him, and effected his speech very much. Having heard that Dr. Jones possessed great skill, I took my son to him, and had it operated. That was six weeks ago—the operation was most successful, giving my son natural appearance and speech. HENRY WARREN,
March 18 1863. Ashland, Schuylkill co, Pa.

Mrs. Esther Smiley, Wayne township, Lawrence county.—Pterygium removal from both eyes, (this is a red skin grown over the eye, and destroys the sight. Her sight is now quite perfect.

Dr. Jones removed in a half minute an opacity a reddish substance which was grown over my sight. My sight is now perfect.
MISS S C WILLIAMS.
Greensburg, Westmoreland Co Pa.

Both of my eyes were very much disfigured and crossed. Dr Jones in two minutes has made them straight satisfactorily. A S BAILEY,
Sandy Lake P O Mercer county, Pa.

I have been 21 years afflicted with a disease in my nose which has eaten the bone nearly away—it destroyed my sense of smell and was very offensive, polluting my breath. Dr Jones has cured it for me in 8 weeks. [The disease was Ozoena—Dr Jones] JOSEPH H RIPLEY, Altoona Blair Co Pa.

I have been very deaf for 10 years and it was growing upon me. Persons wishing to speak to me had to hollow in my ear. I always got worse when I took cold Dr Jones has entirely restored my hearing. I am 74 years of age, I live in Scott township, on the Washington Pike, 7 miles from Pittsburgh. I can sincerely recommend Dr Jones as being master of his profession.
JACOB BOOLYAR

My eyes were turned in and disfigured. Dr Jones has straightened them and made the sight and appearance natural. MISS JANE GRAY, 23 Perry street, Pittsburgh.

My son's eye was crossed—Dr Jones performed an operation upon it, which has made it straight and natural. HUGH WOODS, Braddock's Fields.

Dr Jones has straightened both my eyes. They were both turned in very much. MISS PHILOMELA HOLLER, Lawrenceville Allegheny county Pa.

References to miscellaneous cures performed by Dr Jones:—R W Buffin's, son, 26 Market street. Traveratright, 23 Carrol street, Allegheny; eye made straight. John Phillip, Coal Valley, Allegheny county; eye made straight. R Williams, and M Williams, Monongahela City, Washington county; cured of deafness.

PITTSBURGH, March 9th 1863.

Having been troubled with deafness, for some time past, more particularly after taking cold, and latterly becoming much worse, I made up my mind, in company with a friend, to visit Dr Jones I did so, and after being seated I stated my case, I can restore your hearing as well as it ever was." "How long will it take, Doctor?" "Half an hour!" "Will the operation be painful?" "No, sir: an operation in the ear that would be painful would be injurious" How much will it cost, Doctor? The sum was stated. You can go to work. The Doctor began, and went through like some master workman. Instead of pain, certain parts of the operation gave more of a pleasing sensation than an operation in which so much was at at stake for me. In less than half an hour my hearing was perfectly restored and has remained so ever since. I paid the Doctor his price, and am perfectly well satisfied with my bargain, I had the best of the bargain. What I have written I have done voluntarily, and did I not believe the cure to be perfect, I would say so without regard to any person. WILLIAM EVANS,
Commercial and River Reporter, Gibbon street, Eighth Ward.

As I was present and heard the conversation and witnessed the operation, I most cheerfully coincide with the above statement.
A P ANDREWS.
