There was a lot a floaret sheep at Browning on Monday, morning, sent in by Theppord 20 from Ontario county, N. Y., for which the feed or rather starver, deserves a severe castigation in this market—utterly unfit for any december, and such as no farmer with a grain upon his farm. Some of the best of them sold that worst can be sold at $2.1 kwas a great mistate but little more than $3 cach. We doubt if the worst can be sold at $2.1 kwas a great mistate in clipping such sheep, particularly as they at clipped in a very unworkmannikae manner, but olse cnough to expose an awful show of ribs. The price of Pales remains at its present figure. First class sheep would sell to-day at 10/2, if it market.
