Fire on Wood Street. On Friday night, about twelve o'clock, fire was discovered issuing from the third and fourth stories of the extensive tobacco Warehouse of W. & D. Rinehart, Nos. 149 and 151 Wood street, above Virgin alley. No fire had been used in either story, no flues extend through them and the boiler is located in the cellar, so that the Messrs Rinheart seem fully justified in the belief that the building was set on fire. Being in the central part of the city the steamers were early on hand and in a short time the fire was literally drowned out. Some of the stock was removed before it was injured, but the bulk of it was so thoroughly dremand that it was parmitted to remain drenched that it was permitted to remain until morning. The injury by water was much greater than the loss by fire. For a time the buildings on either side were in danger of falling a prey to the flames, but fortunately they did not take fire. Messrs Schmertz & Bleakely, oil and lamp dealers, next door above the factory, will sustain some loss from breakage and waste sustain some loss from breakage and waste of oil, as almost their entire stock was removed, the lamps and other goods being piled up in the First Presbyterian Church yard, opposite. They are insured for $1,200 or $1,500 in the Æma, and will actually lose nothing, though the inconve-

The Messrs. Rinehart had on hand a large stock of leaf and manufactured to-bacco, worth not less than $30,000, which was more or less injured. With care and attention a part of the damaged goods can be so far restored to their original condition as to bring almost their value. The manery is somewhat deranged but none of destroyed, and can be put in operation in a few weeks. The stock is insured for second with the stock is insured for second with the stock is insured for refused to give beer to a party of your $16,000, viz.: Insurance Co. of the State of Pennsylvania; $2,000; Hartford, $5,. 000; North American, $2,000; Pitts-burgh, 2,000; Liverpool and London, $5,000. It is thought this will cover the loss. The building, which belongs to the heirs of Thomas Hanna, is damaged considerably, but the insurance, $2,500 in the North American, will more than pay

Some of our citizens worked untiringly, fearing that the fire would communicate to Schmerlz & Bleakley's oil store and then extend over the whole of that part of

Mr. Shaw will be prosecuted."

Now, we wish it distinctly understood that the Post is not one of the two newspapers referred to. As a matter of principile we are opposed to paper issues, particularly those known as "shinplasters," and, much as we were inconvenienced by a want of pennies in making change, we desisted from issuing tokens of any kind, the consent, and against the wishes of his father, he would be entitled to his discharge, but for the reasons which the Court will briefly proceed to paging the consent. brass, copper or paper, and we now have our reward in the consciousness that when others are about to be prosecuted for violating the laws, we have nothing to fear, while our neighbor of the Ga and denouncing those whose "arguments take its chances along with those who seem to be the genuine "Copperheads," if "by their fruits ye shall know them," and the Chronicle is obliged to defend itself for issuing pasteboard promsies to pay of one cent each, redeemable in sums of five cents.

But, as we have said before, in alluding to this subject, these issues seem to have met with no objection until they were made the subject of speculation—and here should be acknowledged as independent nations. But it is not necessary to constitute war that both parties should be acknowledged as independent nations or sovereign States. A war may we may indulge in a little reminiscence When the scarcity of small change was first felt here our butchers formed an association and issued lithographed scrip, in sums of five to fifty cents. Each member, on depositing with the Treas-urer the full face of the scrip, with a per centage added to cover expenses, was furnished with a limited amount of the currency, which, being perfectly sound and convertible at pleasure, even became popular and was once at a premium of three to five per cent. But some persons opposed this measure as a violation of law, and a prosecution was instituted against the Treasurer of the association, resulting in the withdrawal of the scrip from circulation. year passes and we find the leading spirit in what many then considered a persecuses and we find the leading spirit tion, one of the chief parties (if not the ostensible head of the combination) to this petty speculation in brass tokens the chief merit of which seems to be that when they cease to pass current no one is bound to redeem them. Such is the consistency of some of those who under take to regulate our affairs, financial and

We understand that Mr. Shaw intends prosecuting all parties who have issued tokens of any kind. If this be true we hope to see all treated alike and if there be principals and tools, let both be brought up-for the violation of law is as flagrant in one case, as in the other and if punish. ment is to be meted out it should be visited equally upon all engaged in the business.

A very bold and impudent highway rob bery was committed about noon on Satur day, on Wood street, between Diamon alley and Fourth. Mr. P. Croniger, mes senger in the banking house of Messrs. Hanna, Hart & Co., left the office, on the corner of Third and Wood streets, with a press. The book was so full that two packages, of $500 each, had to be carried by the messenger in his pocket, but he had not walked a square until a man approached him from behind, and, seizing one of the packages ren down Dismondered.

proached him from behind, and, seizing one of the packages, ran down Diamond alley. Mr. Chroniger followed in hot pursuit, and was close upon the thief when he dodged into the Waverly House. He was followed inside, and into the topmost story, where he locked himself in a room.
Mr. Chroniger informed the proprietor of the house what had taken place, and got him to guard the door while he (Mr. C.) him to guard the door while he (Mr. C.)

upon the root—a lady on the opposite side of the alley having seen him on the top of the house. The affair created a good deal of excitement, and although the police made a thorough search of the neighborhood, they failed to get any clue to the whereabouts of the audacious scoundrel. Four or five persons were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office on suspedrel. Four or five persons were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office on suspecion but none of them could be identified as the thief.

If this case presented the single ques tion of the irregularity of the enlistment, the Court would have little difficulty in deciding it. The tact of minority is established, and the right of the relator to the services of his son is admitted. Sr. Louis, April 26.—Dispatches from Gen. McNiel, at Cape Girardeau, dated seven o'clock, Schirday, are announced. Rebels about 8000 strong, under Marma-duke and Burbridge, were 8 miles distant approaching on two roads. This morning a flag of truce was brought and a demand for surrender in half an hour, signed by order of Major Gen. Price, to which a defiant reply was returned. 11:20 A. M.—The rebels attacked us in force, and after three hours hard fighting were handsomely repulsed. It is supposed, however, they would change their position and attack us from another point Reinforcements reached Gen. McNeil to day. He has two gunboats ready for any emergency, and expresses the utmost confidence in his ability to whip the enemy and pursue them in case of retreat. No apprehension need be felt for the safety of Cape Girardeau.

No mention is made of the loss on eithe A strong force of artillery and cavalry

Sr. Louis, April 26.—Late dispatch from Gen. McNeil says: We have repuls ed the enemy with a severe loss. He is now retreating, but will be taken care of. Our loss is less than twenty killed and

Mr. G. The Evok Sheldon, Editor Sing Sing Republican;
Dear SD—I would state that I was induced to use BRANDRETH'S PILLS, through the recommendation of John R, Swift, of Croton, Westchoster county, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was lick for some two years, very cestive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandrath's Pill every day for a week, and a doze of six Pills every day, with an occasional dose of six. In one month he was able tog to work, and in three months he well gaining 40 pounds in weight.

Yours truly.
