terday foreucon, when the enemy's batteres became silent, and the wildest cheering ommenced on our extreme right and ran along the whole line. When our inform ant left, the prevailing opinion was that the enemy's ammunition was exhausted, or they had been attacked by Hooker's left wing, the force under Sedgewick, which crossed below Fredericksburg. Another gentleman who was with our forces in Fredericksburg, says Geu. Sedgewick succeeded in reaching the key to th whole line of monster rebel works in Fred ericksburg before day dawned yesterday Sunday, morning. The rebels immediate ly opened a most terrific fire. At the firs shock some regiments wavered at seeing their commanding officers falling around them, but the skillful and dashing Colone Sharley, by his cool daring and persona example, rallied the column and led nto the rebel works, carrying the key and with it the whole line, at a bayonet charge, with a yell heard above the shock of arms. As soon as the principal work of the lay was carried, about eleven o'clock yesterday torenoon, the whole rebel force in and around Fredericksburg made a hasty retreat out upon the plank road towards Chancellorsville, in the direction of Lee's nain army.
