TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 12.

GENERAL SIGEL.

We see it stated that this gallant soldier, anxious to be in active service, recently applied to Gen. Halleck for a command...

The falling back of the Germans under Carl Stuer, we attribute to no want of pluck upon their part...

EXPLOSION OF A GAS-BAG.

On Friday last the Dispatch of this city published an editorial article of a very inconsiderate character...

While our troops in this country have been sent to the battle field to fight, we have been told in our newspapers...

General Morgan under arrest for refusing to obey Gen. Wheeler, who has been placed over him...

Crops in England. All the fears that at one time were entertained for the successful preparation of the soil for spring sowing...

The Dislocation of War. Persons who are familiar with the region between Aquia Creek and Falmouth state that all the forests between the two points are leveled...

Mineral Waters. SPRING SUPPLY. BLUE LICK, Bedford, Congress, Empire Spring, KISSINGERS, ARTESIAN, BELTZER, etc.

Religious Prescription of Democrats. From the Locomotive Intelligence, April 20.

The Post-Office and the New York Tribune. I understand that an effort is about to be made to induce Postmaster Blair to tone down his reports...

A Severe Sentence. Gen. Banks issued an order at New Orleans on the 25th ultimo, to the following effect: "W. G. Detteron, convicted by evidence and confession of voluntarily violating the regulations concerning traffic in the department by concealing articles contraband of war, entered at the Custom-house as barrels of beer...

General Whipple only Wounded. The Washington Republican contradicts this statement as follows: "The friends of Brig. Gen. Whipple will be glad to learn that he was not killed as reported in some of the papers. He was brought to this city yesterday morning by the residence of Major Sherman, in the First Ward. The circumstances are that Gen. Whipple, in leaving on his horse, writing an order, he was struck by a rebel sharpshooter, who had crested himself in a tree, the ball entering his body between the two shoulders and passing through his breast. As yet the surgeon has not been able to trace it.

General Morgan under Arrest for refusing to obey Gen. Wheeler, who has been placed over him. Morgan's men threatened to disobey. The rebels think we are poorly fortified here, and will attack us in the near future. They say they will be in Nashville in fifteen days.

Crops in England. All the fears that at one time were entertained for the successful preparation of the soil for spring sowing and tillage have, happily, proved groundless, and the appearance of the wheat becomes more promising with the increase of sunshine and warmth.

The Dislocation of War. Persons who are familiar with the region between Aquia Creek and Falmouth state that all the forests between the two points are leveled, and everything like ornamental trees and fences are destroyed.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—The Tribune contains the following editorial: "The Situation in Virginia—War news being contraband, we are unable to give this morning authentic accounts of various military movements in Eastern Virginia for the past few days, but guessing being not yet prohibited, we will endeavor to approximate actual movements by means of suppositions, as follows: First. We guess our forces at Norfolk and on the Peninsula, made a demonstration toward Richmond in the early part of last week.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—The Herald contains the following: "War News, Va., May 7th, 9 p. m. West Point is in our possession. The U. S. steamer Commodore Morris, Capt. J. H. Gillis, at the suggestion of General Lee, came up to this point yesterday on a reconnaissance. This morning the town was all alive with reports of activity, such as were made a year since appeared again. Several transports, and over so many soldiers—infantry, cavalry and artillery, were ready for service.
