Words by Ednor Rossiter—music by B. Frank Walters. The piece is dedicated to Miss Emma Fronefield.

The slarm of fire last night originated in the burning of an old shed on Duquesne Way, between Hay and Marbury street. The flames communicated with a four story brick, occupied by Mr. James Lemon as a cabinet manufactory, turning shop and coffin rooms, which was soon destroyed. The fire then spread to Mccune & Douglas' lumber yard, and a constant activation of the Principals to their students secures to them the very highest advantages, which is evinced in the steady and regular increasing demand among business men every where for graduates of this school, as every student is thoroughly and carefully instructed, and none but competent accountants third recent attempt made to bern that ed, and none but competent accountants lumber yard, for that the fire was the work

The Circus. Every one will be on the qui vive this morning to witness the the grand entrance of Thayer & Noyes' Mammoth Circus, led by the magnificent chariot of the concern, drawn by eight beautifully comparisoned horses and containing the celebrated brass. No notice appears to have been taken of our warning, and on Saturday we noticed them bathing in both rivers, and in the canal in Allegheny, where they were perfectly exposed to passers by. If these blackguards cannot be taught decency in any other manner, and if the police retuse, or neglect to interfere, then severe measures should be resorted to by the integers, who are annoyed by them.
