THE CIVIL LAW SUFFICIENT We direct the reader's nationt attention to a lengthy article on our outside, which we copy from a late number of the National Intelligencer, suggested by the late arbitrary arrest, condemnation and hanishment of Mr. Vallandigham. The Inteligencer, like ourself, does not endorse the course of the gentleman in question : it merely takes his case to demonstrate that Congress, at its last session, enacted every offense against the Government politic than the position advan however fell martyrs to the spirit of chrisby the proper tribunal.
