BY ANDREW H. CAUGHEY. Ye last of all the patriot band
Who with our Washington did stand
And stayed his strong arm of command
In Freedom's holy strips!
We greet you, venerable sires!
To loftiest notes we strike our lyres.
Our hearts, ablaze with patriot fires,
Thank Heaven that gaye you life. When battle-thunders shook the ground.
And stern hearts trembled at the sound.
When death on gory fields was found—
Steadfast ye kept your picts. **
Ye fought like men at Bunker **
And folt the patriot ardof thrill
Your in mest soul and nerve you still
To meet the oppressor's hosts. On Monmouth's bloody plain ye stood:
Ye crossed the Delaware's wintry flood.
At Yorktown proved your courage good:
Unwavering filled your-place
On every well-fought battle-field,
Where comrades' blood their valor sealed;
To deadliest onset he 'er d'd yield,
Nor ever turned your foce.
