Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous advertisers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates disease, and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale, are nor rivalled by any similar preparation.

The people are here thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen; Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens.

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU?

DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NER VOUS PROSTRATION?

DO YOU WANT ENERGY?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, putup in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from fifty to seventy cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise, Coriander Seed, &c.

The class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. But their use by others is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for which is created and kept up, and the result is a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Low Priced Bitters, we would recommend our well known Dr. C. M. Jackson's Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will be fully equal in medicinal virtues and true value to any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations sold at your bar.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are promptly removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters, has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of oberman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, terminated by an attack of dysentery. I was then remove from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been, about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swa low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians, who had been working fai thfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the first I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eleven months, for gentlemen I am a royal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

The Quota of New York.

The War Department has finally arrived at a definite decision as to the course to be adopted in ascertaining whether the several States have furnished their quota of men under the calls for volunteers heretofore made. Three years is adopted as the unit, so to speak, of the men it has furnished for three years service. Then each State is further credited with the number of men furnished for a less term than three years, but is credited not for the full number so furnished, but in the proportions that their terms of service bear to three years. Thus three thousand two-years men, like those which are now being mustered out of service in this State, are counted as equivalent to two thousand three years men, and four thousand nine-months men count only as one thousand three years men. At the present time, when the nine-months men enlisted last Summer are being mustered out, just when they have become good soldiers, and just when their services are needed, the justice of this system of calculation will hardly be denied.

It has been generally considered that the State of New York was deficient by from twenty to thirty thousand men in filling her quota upon the calls heretofore made. And numerically this was true.—But adopting the juster basis of reckoning by the terms of service instead of the mere number of men, it is now ascertained and officially announced that this State has furnished her entire quota and more. This arises from the fact that Gov. Morgan, with a far seeing policy, persistently discouraged the enlistment of nine months men in this State. In spite of earnest entreaties from influential persons, he steadfastly refused to pay bounties to any of the men who enlis ed for less than three years, taking the ground that men could be as readily raised for the longer as for the shorter term. The result was that New York sent forth last Summer less than two regiments of nine months men, while every other State sent its entire quota of three years men called for by the President last July, but furnished about thirty thousand three years men on account of the call for nine-months troops. The people of this State are further indebted to Gov. Morgan for following this matter up, procuring the passage of a resolution through the Legislature upon the subject, and personally, in connection with Adjutant-Gen. Sprague, enforcing upon the authorities at Washington the justice of considering the terms of service in giving credit to the several States upon their quotas of volunteers.—N. Y. Tribune.

"An Instance of Yankee Impudence."

(From the Atlanta Confederacy.)

Last evening some correspondents of the New York World and New York Tribune were brought here among a batch prisoners captured at Vicksburg a few days ago. They had not been here a half hour before the impudent scamps got one of the sentinels guarding the barracks to go round to the newspaper offices in this city with their "card," requesting the favor of some exchange papers to read.—Their impudence is beyond comprehension upon any other consideration than that they belong to the Yankee press gang. Yankees everwhere are more impudent than any honest race of people can be, and a Yankee newspaper man is the quintessence of all impudence. We thought we had seen and understood something of this Yankee accomplishment in times gone by—(some specimens of it have been seen in the South)—but the unheard of effrontery that prompted these villains, who were caught in company with the thieving, murdering vandals who have invaded our country, despoiled our homes, murdered our citizens, destroyed our property, violated our wives, sisters, and daughters, to boldly claim of the press of the South the courtesies and civilities which gentlemen of the press usually extend to each other, is above and beyond all the unblushing audacity we ever imagined.—They had come along with Northern vandals, to chronicle their rapes, arsons, plunders, and murders, and to herald them to the world as deeds of heroism, greatness, and glory. They are our vilest and most unprincipled enemies—far more deeply steeped in guilt, and far more richly deserving death than the vilest vandal that ever invaded the sanctity of our soil, and outraged our homes and our peace.—We would greatly prefer to assist in hanging these enemies to humanity, than to show them any civilities or courtesies.—The common robber, thief and murderer is more respectable, in our estimation, than these men; for he never tries to make his crimes respectable, but always to conceal them. These men, however, have come into our country, ride the open fronters and murderers of our people for the express purpose of whites washing their hellish deeds, and presenting them to the world as great deeds of virtuous heroism. They deserve a rope's end, and will not receive their just deserts till their crimes are punished with death.

Who Should Forbear.

We discover, through intercourse with our fellow citizens, that there are those who believe that the administration ought to be supported, even in the violation of any of the fundamental constitutional principles, because, they say, it is a time of war and public danger. What kind of an argument or a consideration is this?

When it is essential that loyal men should be united, it is the proper office of those having the functions of government in charge to avoid, if possible, any measures, not indisputably vital, which is likely to cause a division among them. Persons who insist on the administration having its own way, without objection, on the ground that minor differences must be yielded, seem to forget that by the same reasoning it is the duty of those in administration to set the example of giving up preconceived notions which are at all likely to alienate the support of all loyal men.

Thus far we have had nothing but appeals to the people to give way in favor of what Lincoln and his cabinet have chosen to consider the most suitable; but to us it appears to be fully time that the people should be somewhat consulted, and that administration crochets should be postponed for a brief period, in deference to a public sentiment, which in some cases is overwhelming.

Let us cite, for instance, the case of Mr. Vallandigham's arrest, trail and sentence. The administration cannot plead ignorance of the public feeling on the arbitrary arrests generally. To the credit of the American people, be it said, such arrests have not been supported even by the friends of the party in power, while Democrats and Conservative men, imbued with constitutional principles, have denounced them as constituting a public danger hardly short of the rebellion itself.

Even if the question of the right to make the arrest of Vallandigham had been clear as day, would not the patriotic course, on the part of the administration, have been, to stay its hand, and adopt the least objectionable method of carrying out its measures.

We assert that it would, and that, leaving out the question of right, the administration has in this, as in other cases, chosen to adopt the most offensive mode of proceeding which was open to it in defiance of the public sentiment, and also the forbearance of which is asked by its friends.

If it would obtain forbearance let it grant forbearance.—Albany Argus.

THE Richmond Dispatch of the 23d inst., in speaking of the Vallandigham meeting in New York City, says that "Governors Seymour and Hunt are no better than Sumner and Chase; nay, not so good—not even so good as Burnside." No doubt the extremists of the South really think so. They know the efforts of Vallandigham, Seymour, Hunt and hundreds of other true and patriotic Democrats in the North, have all been directed towards the reconstruction of the Union and the maintainance of the Constitution, while Sumner, Chase and their co-workers, the secessionists, have been doing all in their power to prevent that consumation so devoutly to be wished. The Richmond Dispatch, and other extreme journals, of the same character, North and South, delight in the disunion sentiments of the Jacobins, while they soundly abuse the Democratic leaders whenever they get a chance, simply because the latter are in favor of the Union as it was and the Constitution as it is. Therefore it is that the Dispatch playfully pats Sumner, Chase and Burnside on the back, and looks scornfully on Vallandigham, Seymour and Hunt. The Dispatch knows well who are its real allies in the North; and in its great glee at the amount of work the latter are doing in the cause of disunion and separation it cannot refrain from showing its high appreciation of their persistent labors in behalf of the cause it advocates. Of course Seymour and Hunt are "not so good" as Sumner and Chase—for the Dispatch and colaborers; but while the Democratic leaders in the North continue to uphold the flag of the Union and the Constitution, as they will ever do bravely and unfalteringly, they can bear without a murmur the abuse of the Richmond Dispatch, and all others who are seeking to prevent a restoration of the unity and integrity of this great Republic.—Phila. Age.

The Brannon Divorce Case.

Chief Justice Carter, of the Supreme Court of this District, granted a decree of absolute divorce in favor of General John M. Brannan, against Eliza, his wife, he to have the custody of the only offspring of the marriage, a daughter.

Mrs. Brannon will be remembered as woman who mysteriously disappeared from the residence of her mother, Mrs. Colonel Crane, on Staten Island, in July, 1858, and subsequently was discovered in Italy, residing with Powel T. Wyman, of the army, who has since been killed in battle at the head of a Massachusetts regiment.

Judge Carter, in reviewing the case expressed himself very warmly touching the guilt of Mrs. Brannan. She is now living in Boston.—New York Tribune, May 22.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

MONDAY, June 1st, 1863.

The market was about as unsettled as it could well be. The sales made were on a limited scale Buyers and sellers are very firm in their views—the former that prices will further decline and the latter that they must necessarily advance.

The report from Oil City is very interesting The Oil Exchange received a dispatch announcing the pond freshet a failure and the advance of oil at the mouth to $5 50 ₱ bbl. This is purely speculative. The following is the dispatch received:

OIL CITY, May 30th.

Crude at the mouth of creek advanced to $6 50 per bbl. This is the highest figure yet obtained The pond freshet that was to have come off on Friday was a failure, caused by the insufficiency of water. Oil boats are aground all along the creek. The market is quiet. It is now raining.

Exports: To New York—Crude, 296 bbls; Refined, 635 bbls; Benzole, 187. To Philadelphia—Naptha, 25 bbls; Crude, 634 bbls; Refined, 472 bbls; Benzole, 70 bbls. To Baltimore—Crude, 261 bbls; Refined, 130 bbls

Shipments West: Per Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 180 bbls crude.

Imports: Per A. V. R. Railroad—Crude, 786 bbls; Refined, 471 bbls. Per Allegheny river—Crude, 335 bbls; Refined, 233 bbls. Per C. & P. Railroad Refined, 283 bbls.

Crude—The market continues very unsettled with only a limited demand. Prices tend downward. The only sales we could learn were as follows: 750 bbls and 200 bbls by special agreement The figures were not reported. Sales were made at 15@16c in bulk; in bbls, 20@21c. Sales of lots comprising 1,600 bbls at 15@16c; this does not include packages.

Refined—The market was dull; we quote nominally at 25c.

Benzole—Very little inquiry; market dull. Deodorized is held at 19¼@20½c; Crude, 16½@17½c.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST, } Monday, June 1st, 1863. }

Remarks—The weather continues very warm and in many quarters fears are beginning to be entertained for the growing crops. We learn by telegraph that it was raining in the neighborhood of Oil Creek on Saturday. A few hours' rain in this vicinity would be of immense benefit to our crops. Our rivers have become very low, and if we do not have a rise even light draught boats will have to suspend their trips. Business of every kind has been dull and sales few and far between. Money matters are about as unsettled as ever; the rates change many times during the day. The war news continues to engross our attention, "Vicksburg" and "Gen. Grant" being the topics of conversation. We shall not have to wait long; that you may take for granted. Flour we have no change to notice in, either as regards prices or demand. The only business doing was from store in small lots. Grain dull, with no demand; correct quotations could not be given at this time. Cheese—The receipts of new are on the increase. Prices, however, were unchanged. Bacon—There is a regular trade demand for this article and a good business was transacted during the week in lots ranging from 5,000 to 10,000 lbs for local purposes Prices rule low. We have an ample supply on hand Butter—This article was dull and can be purchased at low figures.

Flour—We have nothing new to report in regard to this article. The demand was restricted to small operations to meet the wants of the home market The stock in first hands is sufficient for all ordinary purposes. Sales 100 bbls Extra, at $5 25; 100 do Extra Family, $5 75; 250 do do, terms on 4 made public; choice brands sold at higher figures.

Hay—The demand has fallen off; sales 17 loads at $12@14.

Bacon—Demand fair in small lots to meet the wants of the local trade. It is at present far the cheapest meat we have. Sales foot up pretty large. We note as follows: 5,000 lbs Shoulders, 5½c; 6,000 lbs Sides, 7¼@7½c; 5,000 lbs Plain Hams, 8¼@8½c; 12 tierces S C Hams, 10c; 2,000 lbs do canvassed, 10c; 9,000 lbs shoulders, 5½c.

Dried Beef—Sales 1,100 lbs S C, 12c. Stock on hand not large.

Whisky—Holders do not seem disposed to give way. Sales 25 bbls City Rectified, 48@49c, the latter figure on short time. Old Rye ranges from 75c@$1.

Rice—Demand improving; sales 6 tierces, 9@9½c.

Butter is a drug, with more sellers than buyers. Sales of small lots at 12c. Inferior sold at lower prices.

Salt—Unchanged. Sales were regular at $1, 75@1.80.

Potatoes continue to be a drug; sales 200 bbls at $1 50@1 75.

Grain could not be duller than at present. We hope some day to announce a movement. Correct quotations cannot be given.

Groceries in fair request for home use. We omit quotations, as there was no change.

Fish—In fair demand. Herring, sales 10 bbls Baltimore Herring, $7 25; 10 bbls Halifax, $6. Mackerel, 5 bbls No. 1, $14; 10 do No. 2, $10; 15 do No. 3 large, $8 75; 10 do No. 3 medium, $7.

Cheese—Sales 40 boxes W R, 10c. Other kinds unchanged.

Eggs scarce; they would command 11@11½c.

Philadelphia Hide Market.

The market continues to decline. Trade has been very quiet. A large number of dry Western have recently arrived and are now offering by dealers at about 20@22c per pound for dry flint and about 17@18c for the dry salted. Tanners seem disposed to await a further decline before operating largely, and sales of both dry and green stock to actual consumers have been moderate. Dealers are offering salted stock more freely at 10½@10½c ₱ lb. The Association are selling at 12c for steers' hides; butchers' weights are selling at 8c.

Calfskins in the hair are selling at 13c ₱ lb; out of salt at about 15c, and dry at 21@21 25 each.

Wool in New York.

There is as yet not much doing in this article, but we notice a steady feeling, without particular change in prices; among the sales we notice 20,000 lbs Domestic fleece at 75@85c; 100 bales Cordova and 30 do Mestiza on private terms. At auction sales of 800 bales of Cape at Boston has attracted the attention of speculators and somewhat interfered with business here.—Price Current.
