Eastern Exchange. Western Exchange. PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

Trespay, June 2nd, 1863. The market continues remarkably dull. The sales were of the most limited description. The act is that nothing special will be done until th full of the damage that attended the last pond The wires to Oil City were out of order; hence we are without our usual daily report from that Holders were offering crude at 15c; buyers offered 13%c. We heard of no sales at the latter The following are the exports and import from the Exchange books: Exports: To New York-Crude, 139 bbls; re fined, 500 bbls; naptha; 25 bbls; benzole, 157 bbls.

PITTSBURCH PRODUCE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST, Tuesday, June 2nd, 1863. Remarks—Business of all kinds continues very dull. The demand being very limited, the ales made were generally at low figures. The weather yesterday was very unpleasant. The high wind and a whirlwind of dust made outdoor traveling decided y disagreeable. The prinripal excitement during the afternoon was the arrival of Col. Bayne's regimens from the seat of war. The turn-out was grand and their recep-tion brilliant. The Firemen turned out in uniform with their engines beautifully decorated; taken altogether it was a large success. Grain-We have to notice a dull market. We are pleased o note that our merchants have undertaken the subject of erecting a Grain Elevator in our midst. The want of this has heretofore been a great drawback to our progress. The books were opened yesterday and in a short space of time some twenty-five thousand dollars were subscribed.

Flour—The market was dull and inactive and sales few and far between; beyond a kind of retail trade from store in dray load lo's there is nothing doing. The market to an outsider did not seem so firm. Anything like a large lot could not be disposed of at the present rates. We notice a moderate amount of wagon flour coming in; prices rule lower than store lots, the latter being more favorite brands. From store, we note sales of 150 bhls Extra in lots at $5.50@5 75; Extra Family, $6.50@6 75. Other small sales were made at the same range of figures.

Hay—The market was a shade firmer; sales at scales at $12.50@15 50.
