OUR DEGENERACY.

When we look back a few years since, when such men as Webster, Clay, Wright, Benton, Cass and Crittenden and others like them, figured in the Senate of the United States, and think of the wretched tanatice and pigmies who now are most conspicuous in that lofty arena, we are amazed at the rapid decline which has produced so striking a contrast. What is visible in the Senate of the United States, is to be seen in the House of Representatives; and not only there, but throughout on a Sunday night, send such a dispatch, the entire country. The corruptions of the as the one in question, with the caption of time have driven great men into involuntary retirement, while they have thrown upon the surface blatant, aspiring demagogues, who seek to attain promotion by pandering to the basest predjudices. Ex Governor Johnston, of this city, gave us a very striking and transparent exhibition of

When a cool political trimmer assumes the role of the fanatic, he always becomes the role of the fanatic, he always becomes extravagant, substituting pretension for sincerity. What is it that Gov. Johnston desires? Not our Constitution; not our institutions, not our forms of national and State governments, but their utter ruin and annihilation, in order, he says of the administration and should be applied by the says of the details of administration. We have no right to ask such an endorsement at its hands. Upon any of the details of administration to look for aid and strength to the only power truly able to give it. We know that some of his most intimate legal to preserve our country! What does he, and others like him, mean by our country? Is it a certain territorial area, with out a government, or what is it? What do they mean when they talk about preduction of emancipation, the policy of architecturary arrests, the enlistment of negro do they mean when they talk about prebitrary arrests, the enlistment of negro

But what of that? I was not anxious about military consequences; I looked to the civil and political state of things, and their right. Let them evjoy cracks the following joke:

results, and I inquired what would be the condition of the country, if, in this state of agitation, if, in this vastly extended, though not generally pervading feeling of the South, war should break out and bloodshed should ensue in that quarter of the Union? That was enough for me to inquire into and consider; and if the chance had been one in a thousand, that civil war would be the result, I should have felt that that one thousandth chance should be guarded against by any reasonable sacrifice.

This nation should remember the conduct of General Hooker. Mr. cought to know that the Union and the Constitution are inasparable; and the former cannot exist without the latter.—

There is, therefore, no necessity for any pretentious patriot trampling the constitution under his feet, in order to preserve the Union. When the constitution is tranpled under foot, indeed, it will not be for the purpose of restoring the Union but to usurp our liberties. This is the sort of teaching that cut the golden chord which bound the States together, and Johnston having commenced it at so early a day as he announces, ought now to be upon his knees, asking forgiveness for his hard of our constitution. Paniel Webster, a constitution asserts that the "right of trial by a like was denied the right of trial by a like denied having the constitution of the press and was adjudged by the formed that the prophets and stonest them which are prophets and stonest them which are prophets sent unto thee."
