Yesterday's Excitement.

Pursuant to resolutions adopted by the Merchants and Manufacturers on Sunday evening, the workshops were all closed, yesterday, and at an early hour yesterday morning several thousand stalwart men were gathered in front of the Monongahela House to ascertain the wishes of the commanding officer, Major General Brooks Many of them brought with them their shovels and axes, and those that had no tools were soon supplied.

General Brooks' call had been for two thousand men, but considerably over that number volunteered. They were divided ing the Brewnsville road, and the third to be advanced by the Banks for the payfrom the city. At these places they pro-ceeded to erect fortifications, which were pointed composed of the following gentle

Public Meeting.

We yesterday afternoon had a conversation with the prisoner who jumped from the cars containing the rebel prisoners on Saturday. His name is S. A. West, and he is a member of the 1st Mo. Artillery. He was taken prisoner at the battle of Black river. He denies ever having been a rebel, but says that he was conscripted. He wanted to take the oath, but did not wish to be placed in a position to be drafted, as in that case should he be taken by the rebels his certain fate would be death. Captain Wright informed us that he would be sent on to Fort Delaware, where he would have an opportunity of proving his loyalty, and take the oath of alliegance.

A public meeting was held in Manches ter, on Monday afternoon, in response to the proclamations of the President and Governor to prepare to defend the State against the threatened raids of the rebels. A. Patterson, Esq., was called to the chair, and John M. Cornwell acted as secretary. An effort was made to form companies of militia, but the attempt was unsuccessful. A. Patterson, James Miller, Wm. S. Spratt, John M. Cornwell and John B.
