Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale, are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU?

DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUSNESS?

DO YOU WANT ENERGY?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true worth, any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were already used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality; for a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working at it fully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Stoughton, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

DAILY POST.

The Negroes at Port Hudson.

The New York Times publishes an elaborate account of the assault made by General Banks upon Port Hudson, on the 27th of May, which it is impossible to read without a shudder of pity and indignation—pity for the helpless creatures hurled upon certain death in that wild onslaught and indignation against the officers whose ignorance or whose recklessness brought on this "murder grim and great." When the attack was ordered, we are told, it was determined that the black regiments should occupy the fore-front of the battle. They were new troops, who had never seen a shot fired in anger, but the post of honor and of danger was given them on the right of our line. With the bayonets of their white foes before, they were to be driven into the settlement of the important question; "will negroes fight?" The cynical calmness with which this reason for so very extraordinary a disposition of our forces is given might amuse if not disgust. The consequence of the experiment we will allow the chronicler of the Times to recite:

Nobly, indeed, have they acquitted themselves, and proudly may every colored man hereafter hold up his head, and point to the record of those who fell on that field.

Gen. Dwight, at least, must have had the idea not only that they were men, but something more than men, from the terrific test he put on their valor. Before any impression had been made on the earthworks of batteries bleaching forth their 62 pounders, these devoted people rushed forward to encounter grape, canister and musketry and no reserve whatever.

Their forces consisted of the First Louisiana Native Guards, (with colored field officers,) under Lieutenant Colonel Bassett, and the Third Louisiana Native Guards, Colonel Nelson, (with white field officers,) the whole under the charge of the latter officer.

On going into action they were 1,000 strong, and formed into four lines, Lieut. Col. Bassett, forming the first line, and Lieutenant Colonel Henry Finnings the second. When ordered to charge up to the works, they did so with the skill of old veterans.

Col. Basset being driven back, Col. Finnigas took his place, and his men being similarly cut to pieces, Col. Bassett reformed and recommenced; and thus these brave people went on, from morning until 3½ p. m., under the most hideous carnage that men ever had to withstand, and that very few white ones would have had nerve enough to encounter, even if ordered to. During this time, they rallied, and were ordered to make six distinct charges, losing 37 killed, and 155 wounded, and 116 missing—the majority, if not all of these being, in all probability, now lying dead on the gory field, and without the rites of sepulchre; for when, by a flag of truce, our forces in other directions were permitted to reclaim their dead, the benefit, through some neglect, was not extended to these black regiments.

It is scarcely possible to comment upon such a picture as this. Shall we complete it by the same correspondent's assertion that not "an ambulance nor a stretcher" was provided for the wounded who fell on this fearful Aceldama; that no surgeons wasted their time on these "heroic" black "cattle," driven dumb and desperate upon their death, with "pop-guns" for their artillery, and for their sole "reserve" black night and the very weariness of slaughter! What words of ours, what words of any man could make more sharp and clear the cruel relief in which these fatal facts stand out against the pallid background of fanatical cant and professional philanthropy? Who that has ever pleaded against the launching of the untutored negro into a career which for him must end either in triumphant barbarism, or in sheer extermination, could have ventured to anticipate that those who proclaimed themselves his special friends, would thus deal with him? It is not now the policy of negro enlistments, or the honor even of our own race, that is the immediate issue of this question as it comes to us from Louisiana. The simplest humanity revolts when the lives of hundreds of unoffending human beings, whatever be their color or their station, are thus ruthlessly sacrificed to vindicate a point of fanatical policy and fortify a partisan "reason of state."

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Fox, reports somewhat favorably of the action of our blockading squadron.—He states that up to the 1st of June they captured 855 rebel vessels, which shows that the Department has not been asleep all the time. The British steamer Africa, which arrived at Halifax on Tuesday reports that the Alabama had destroyed during the month of April, South of the equator, four United States vessels, the Dorcas Prince, Sea Lark, Union Jack and Nye, with valuable cargoes.

A MUSICAL contemporary measures the advance in civilization of the Chinese by the fact that a man with a burdy gurdy has made his appearance in the streets of Hong Kong, and the Celestials are enraptured with these European strains of harmony.

GEN. FREMONT writes a long letter to the Secretary of War going to prove that General Butler does not rank him, as the latter was appointed major general on the 16th of May, 1861, while General McClellan and General Fremont were appointed on the 14th day of the same month.

Gen. Sherman.

NEW ORLEANS, June 5.

I am rejoiced to say that General Sherman is much better, and the probabilities are that not only his life but his leg will be saved, although he will be lame for life. He has had a very narrow escape, for three days ago no one supposed that it was possible he could survive. Dr. Stone, the eminent surgeon of the city, has attended him, and he has been most faithfully nursed and attended by Sisters of Charity at the Hotel Dieu. It is a great relief to the many friends of this distinguished soldier to know that his services will not be lost to us. We had given up all hope, and could hardly realize it when Dr. Stone pronounced him comparatively out of danger, so certain were we that he would die. His recovery will be slow, however, for the extreme heat is much against him; he will be obliged to go North as soon as his condition will admit of his being removed to any steamer.—Herald.

Origin of Arming the Negroes.

A correspondent of the Memphis Bulletin, says it is susceptible of incontrovertible demonstration that the first attempt to arm the negroes and put them in the field as soldiers was made by the South. In proof of this the copies of the following recruiting notice, which the correspondent insists was the first authoritative expression of public opinion, from the Memphis Avalanche and Appeal, of May 9, 10 and 11, 1861, upon the subject, North or South. We commend the notice to those who are so timid on the question of letting them fight if they will:

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS!

Resolved, by the Committee of Safety, that C. Deloach, D. R. Cook and Wm. B. Greenlaw, be authorized to organize a volunteer company composed of our patriotic free men of color, of the City of Memphis, for the service of our common defence. All who have not enrolled their names will call at the office of W. B. Green law & Co.

Failure of the Nova Scotia Gold Mines.

The great expectations engendered by the discovery of these mines are fast waning. Of the several thousand miners at work in 1862, there remained in the spring of 1863 not more than forty to fifty. A retrospect of this Dorado reveals the fact that most of the money realized in this undertaking was by Cunard, of Halifax, who bought largely in what are called the "shore diggings," where for centuries the action of the surf upon the rock has dislodged the gold. These shore claims, so long as they lasted, yielded an abundant harvest, and as Cunard speculated largely in them, a considerable profit must have accrued. The other claims consisted of the solid quartz, thinly interspersed with gold, which was to be extracted by the laborious process of hard labor, or by a more rapid and effective method—the crusher.

The miners, whose number was largely augmented by refugees from the northern draft, passed the year of 1862 in accumulating quartz, preparatory to its crushing and subsequent dissection. Crushers arrived and were used; but a new and unforseen and irremediable difficulty presented itself; the quartz was infected with an oil that rendered the powdered rock and gold a paste, and successfully resisted all attempts to seperate the rich ingredients.

Eminent mechanics and chemists arrived from New York and elsewhere, but all their endeavors to refine the gold were fruitless. A company was formed at Liverpool, N. S., and the quartz was forwarded to England, and there examined, and with equally unsatisfactory results.—Boston Traveler.

How Soldiers Deal with Rebel Railroads.

A letter from Gen. Grant's army to the Springfield (Ill.) Journal, describing the recent operations of our forces near Jackson, says:

"Our operations on the railroad were of a novel character. The regiment would be formed in line on one side of the road, and at the command every man would take hold on the end of a tie or rail, and, straightening up, would literally lift the track from its bed, completely capsizing it. Then, piling the ties together and setting them on fire, we laid the rails across the top, rendering them unfit for future use."

THE transport Cahawba, which arrived here yesterday from New Orleans and Fortress Monroe, with the Sixth New York Volunteers, brought a number of rebel prisoners.

The Health of Our Armies in the South.

It is a remarkable fact that the regiment of Wilson Zouaves, which returned to this city a few days ago from the war, came back almost as strong as they went out.—Considering the length of service, the numerous actions they were in, and the climate of the extreme South of Louisiana, their numbers were very slightly diminished. This not only proves the care which Colonel Wilson must have bestowed upon his men, but it shows also how much such sanitary measures as General Butler established in New Orleans, and which General Banks is now inaugurating, can do in preserving the health of the army by expelling yellow fever and other epidemics. If similar measures were taken in other military departments there is no reason why our soldiers could not live as comfortably in any Southern city as well as in the North, even in the heat of summer.—Herald.

The Latest "Nouveaute de Paris."

Lord Cowley has given a grand dinner at the British Embassy. It made a most favorable impression; but it is likely to be the last; for to enhance its value, as is the custom generally with rare impressions, all the plates have been broken up.

THE fashionable dance of Paris is now the "Marche Cocasse." It is danced backwards, each gentleman holding the lady before him by clasping her round the waist.

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT, at his own request is now to be relieved of his command on the Mississippi and is to be succeeded by Admiral Dahlgren.

THERE are certain manners of that force that, if a person have them, he or she must be considered, and is everywhere welcome though without beauty, wealth or genius.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

THURSDAY, June 18th, 1863.

The market was dull, there being neither buyers or sellers. There were neither exports or imports.

The Pennsylvania Railroad declines receiving any freight until further notice. This, of course, operates as a check on oil transactions.

A dispatch to the Oil Exchange from Oil City announces that there is nothing doing in oil either at the wells or the mouth: matters have come to a stand-still.

In New York prices have advanced. This is doubtless caused by the sudden stopping of supplies. We have no doubt but that in a few days we will be able to announce a resumption of trade and shipments; in the mean time we omit quotations, as they may lead people astray.

The weather continues excessively warm. Matters in regard to the fortification of our city are progressing favorably.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
Thursday, June 18th, 1863.

Remarks—The weather is disagreeably warm making out-door traveling decidedly unpleasant. Business of nearly every kind has, by general consent, been suspended. In fact, recruiting and trench-digging are the order of the day. We are getting ready to receive the "erring sons of the South" in a becoming manner. The talk in the streets is all about the war and the latest news from the seat of war. The rebels are still reported approaching this place. The reports may or may not be correct—time only will determine. In the way of sales we have nothing to report, because there is nothing doing. Upon inquiry we learn that prices have undergone no change, but as a natural consequence of receipts falling off prices for certain articles will go up. The trade for all ordinary purposes. A number of business men held a meeting and decided to close up their stores until matters have become more settled.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET.

June 15th, 1863.

The arrivals and sales of beef cattle at Philips' Avenue Drove Yard reach about 1,220 head this week. The market, in consequence, was active, but prices are without any material change, ranging at 12½@13c for first quality Western and Pennsylvania steers; 11@12c for second quality do, and 8@10½c per pound for common, as to quality.

Cows, 220 head at the Avenue Drove Yard sold at from $18 up to $45 per head, as to quality.

SHEEP, the arrivals are large, reaching about 5,000 head, selling at from 5@6c per lb gross for clipped.

HOGS—There is more activity in the market, owing to the light receipts; about 3,500 head sold at from $8 50 up to $8 00 per one hundred pounds net.

Cows and Calves.

The arrivals and sales of cows at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard reach about 200 head this week—springers selling at $18@30 and one and calf at from $20@45 ₩ head, as to the condition and quality. Old lean cows sell at from $15@16 per head.

CALVES, about 40 head sold at 5@5½c ₩ lb for 1st quality and 4@4½c for 2d, as to weight and condition.

Hogs.

The arrivals and sales of hogs at the Avenue, Reading and Rising Sun Drove Yards reach about 3,500 head this week, selling at $6 50@8 ₩ 100 lbs net.

1,892 head sold at Henry Glass' Union Drove Yard at from $6 50@8 ₩ 100 lbs net.

1,160 head sold at the Avenue Drove Yard by John Crouse & Co. at from $7 00@8 00 ₩ 100 lbs net.

400 head sold at the Rising Sun Drove Yard by A. P. Phillips, Jr., at from $6 50@8 00 per 100 lbs net.

Sheep.

The arriva's and sales of sheep at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard are large this week, reaching about 8,000 head. There is a fair demand at rather higher prices.

Clipped sheep are selling at from 5@6c per pound gross.

Lambs continue scarce: several lots have been sold at from $3 00 up to $6 00 per head, according to the condition and quality.
