THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVERTION.

In to-day's Post we publish the pro ceedings of our Democratic State Conven tion, held in Harrisburg on Wednesday, It will be seen that on the ninth ballot HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD, now on the Supreme Bench, and a resident of Philadelphia, was nominated as our candidate for Governor-and the State Central Committee. HON. W. H. LOWRIE, of this county, was taken up for Supreme Judge, to fill the vacancy the expiration of his own curr ent term will oceasion.

We congratulate the country-we congratulate Democrats everywhere, and especially in our good old Pennsylvania- on this most happy nomination for Governor. Our candidate is one whose private life speedy and harmonious organization." and whose political record are alike pure and stainless.
