MEDICAL.

NOT ALCOHOLIC

A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Vegetable Extract.

A PURE TONIC.

Dr. Hoofland's

GERMAN BITTERS

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Penna.

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Chronic, or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits,

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, Quarky (so called) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations put up in pretentious bottles, and big-bellied keg, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates disease and leaves the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING TO STRENGTHEN YOU?

DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUS WEAKNESS?

DO YOU WANT EVER-ACTIVITY?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 25 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed,

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, untold misery and death of the drinkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the results are the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true value any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in use, and will cost much less. You will thus obtain the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases incident to camp life. In the daily publications almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs, Jones & Evans,—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Company A, celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Gen. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last, with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances much longer. Accordingly the physicians who had been wearing fat faces, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced using them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. In a month I had gained just two pounds. I have gained in pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Mount Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours,

ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

DAILY POST.

Chief Justice Lowrie.

As our readers will perceive, we have placed this gentleman's name at the head of our columns as a candidate for re-election. In thus expressing our choice we have reasons far higher than any dictated by mere politics, reasons which lead us to prefer him beyond any man whom any party could place in nomination. He was the first judge in Pennsylvania, and so far as we know, the first in the country, who, since this war began, gave the newspapers that judicial protection which the Constitution prescribes. He was the first judge to raise his voice against the torrent of intolerance and which was sweeping away our liberties. For this reason we favor his re-election, and for this reason we think every newspaper editor of the State, who values his right of free discussion, should advocate Chief Justice Lowrie's claims to the great judicial ermine.

In August, 1861, the United States Marshal of this district, seized and confiscated a newspaper printed at West Chester, called the Jeffersonian. Its crime was that it was one of the very few Pennsylvania journals which at that time adhered to the doctrines inculcated by the great man whose name it bore. It was hunted for nearly two months, when, no charges being substantiated, it was released, and its publication recommenced. The editor of the Jeffersonian, indignant at the outrage of the government officials, at once commenced anit against them, which early in the present year, came up for trial before the Supreme Court of Nisi Prius, held by Chief Justice Lowrie.

Wm. B. Reed and George W. Biddle, were the champions of the Jeffersonian and well did they perform their trust.—As soon as the suit became known, it was the signal for all the great and little whelps of the Administration, to howl, and bark, and squeal at the two courageous lawyers who were determined to vindicate the freedom which had been rudely taken from one of their fellow-citizens. Newspaper after newspaper poured out its envenomed spleen upon Mr. Reed and Mr. Biddle.—The very editors who might be the next victims of tyranny, were the first to malign and traduce them. No words were too bitter; no fate too bad for the two men who dared to do what was right. The cry spread throughout the country. Every newspaper paid by the Government added its little squeak or heavy howl to the cries of the Philadelphia pack. Tribune, Press, Bulletin and Times, ed id omne genus, yelped and barked and foamed, and terrible were the threats at the judge who would have manliness enough to give the justice the two lawyers had asked.

The uproar had little effect. Mr. Reed watered his flowers at Chestnut Hill, and Mr. Biddle greeted his friends in Philadelphia as calmly and cordially as if there was no such thing as a harsh word in the English language. They prepared their case and bided their time, and in due course the great "Jeffersonian case" came on for trial. It occupied two days, and the little Nisi Prius court room was crowded to suffocation. In spite of intolerance and threats the trial had free course. An intelligent jury was selected, and all the witnesses and all the lawyers were heard until each side was satisfied, and each was willing to leave it to the judge and jury. Chief Justice Lowrie was equal to the occasion. He soared above the prejudices of the hour, and addressed the jury in language such as a court in the country had for almost two years known. In his opinion the Constitution still existed, no President could thrust it aside.—However great the excitement of the hour, no newspaper could be suppressed for criticising the acts of the Government.

Jeffersonian had been wronged; free speech had been suppressed; free discussion had been denied; a newspaper editor who had criticised the Administration harshly, had had his property seized and his livelihood taken from him. In ordinary times all men would have blamed the officials who dared to commit these outrages, but now it was different. Social proscription awaited the judge, or jury, or lawyer, who would dare even to think such outrages wrong. But Lowrie never swerved, he marched straight onward in the performance of his duty. These acts were wrong; and in calm, earnest, dignified words he told the jury that the Jeffersonian must be vindicated. It was vindicated, and Mr. Reed and Mr. Biddle, after a year of toil and contumely, had the satisfaction of knowing that they, with Chief Justice Lowrie, had placed the first obstacle in the way of Federal despotism.

Since then the country has been roused. A vast party has rallied with the bandit of last year. William B. Reed and Geo. W. Biddle find millions arrayed by their sides, all earnest in advocating the liberties of their country, and Chief Justice Lowrie, for that one firm, honest, Constitution-loving charge, has received the unanimous nomination of the fellow Democrats, and will receive their unanimous support. We, for far higher than mere party reasons, advocate his election, and all Pennsylvanians who love the Constitution should vote for Chief Justice Walter B. Lowrie, the first judge of the United States who interposed between a fierce tyranny and its throttled victim.

HENRY WARD BEECHER asked Park Benjamin, the poet and humorist, why he never came over to Brooklyn to hear him preach. Benjamin replied: "Why, Beecher, the fact is, I have conscientious scruples against going to places of public amusement on Sunday."

An Editor's Letter to Another General.

NEW YORK EXPRESS OFFICE, June 22.

To Major General Schenck:

SIR: If you were not an actor in the midst of a great tragedy, one would smile at the "Headquarters Eighth Army Corps." Pray, sir, tell us where, just now, is the Department of the Eigdth Army Corps? Where it was, when first entrusted to your puissant arm, we well know. The rich Eastern valley of the Potomac was in your command. That great link of the East and West over the Alleghenies, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was there. But the last we hear of you is, that while you were wisely barricading yourself in the streets of Baltimore, with tobacco, Lee's rebel legions were revelling in your Department, and, generally robbing everybody of most things valuable to them. All this is indeed Tragic, and the more Tragic because such actors as you and Milroy murder the parts you are put there to act,—but what is curious, too, is that, while you summon to your rescue such New York City regiments as the Seventh, (to say nothing of the numerous others) you deprive six out of seven of the soldiers in them, of papers they are in the daily habit of reading at home, and which inspire them with the patriotism and the principles that prompt them to rush to save this "Department" of yours. You thus beg and pray for Old Line Whigs and Democrats to come to your rescue, with their bayonets, while you refuse them the mental aliment and inspiration that brought them to your protection!

You and I, General Schenck, are old acquaintances. I first met you as Whigs, in the Congress of 1849–50–51. You ran off with Giddings, representing the Abolition element on one side, and Bart, of S. C., representing the Secession element on the other, and voted against all bills of Pacification and Settlement, which, while avoiding the then impending civil war, nevertheless gave us Californis, "free," while I followed humbly in the wake of the great Clay and Webster. We differ now, only as we differed then: but that is no reason why you should call the New York Express "disloyal," or shut it out from the people of Maryland, and the New York regiments now enabling you to be in Maryland. We meet together again in the next Congress, sir, and we will talk there, all this over, provided the New York 7th, and other Democratic bayonets, are successful in protecting you from that military genius of yours, which first developed itself in the railroad raid at Vienna, and which now finds time, with Lee's legions all about you, to open fight upon newspapers. But I think I comprehend you. A Congressional election is approaching in Maryland, and it is more important to stop reading in Maryland, and to elect Abolition members of Congress there, than it is to protect and defend the Department of the Eighth Army Corps. Hence, you consume that precious time of yours in preparing an Index Expurgatorius of newspapers, which should be solely consecrated to clearing off Hagerstown. Frederick and other places in your Department,—to say nothing of Pennsylvania. I know not how it is, but sh it is, that while the Grants and McClellans of the army find all their time employed in defending their flag and their country, you and the Milroys, and the Hascalls, and the Burnsides consume the most of yours in fighting the newspapers! Sir, the true ambition of a great general should be to stop bullets, not newspaper pellets! A general that cannot stand a little paper wadding, can never stand an enemy's battery.

In closing, permit me to ask, that if the New York volunteer regiments from this city, nearly nine-tenths of which are the Express, way of thinking, now enable you to keep your "headquarters", in Baltimore, do you intend "to suppress" on that great route to the Capital, the Editors, as well as Editors' newspapers? for I may as well assure you in advance, that as a Whig member of Congress, I intend to talk over there all that Whig "disloyalty" which I have now been talking for twenty-five years continuously and consistently in the New York Express—and just as you and I were disloyal to James K. Polk, during the Mexican war, so am I disloyal now to Abraham Lincoln, and pretend to be, until he (L.) goes back to the Crittenden Congressional Pledge and Resolutions. If, then, Editors, as well as Editors' newspapers, are to be "suppressed" in Baltimore, en route to the Capital, pray let me know in advance, so that Members of Congress, not of the Abolition faith, may stop in New York State, where Free Speech and a Free Press exist, and where the Abolition Members of Congress can meet us by adjournment, to share with us, this Free Speech and a Free Press.—By this time, we see, we shall have one hundred and twenty-eight New York Militia Regiments and the returned New York Volunteers, when even such disloyal papers as the Baltimore American, the organ of General Schenck himself, may be printed, without being "suppressed."

Yours, respectfully,

JAMES BROOKS.

THE capture of the Fingal, one of the most formidable armored ships of the so-called Southern Confederacy, will prove a severe loss to the rebels. For many months she has been used by the authorities of Savannah as a bugbear with which to frighten our naval and military forces in that vicinity, but while apprehension was expressed of the probable results to accrue from a raid on her part, every preparation had been made for her reception, and a constant, never ceasing surveillance was maintained on her movements. We only have the brief announcement that she left her moorings, and was attacked by two of our iron-clads, the attack resulting in her capture. The rebels have been unfortunate with their iron vessels, and, however much they may have laughed and sneered at our Monitors since the attack on Charleston, they cannot but acknowledge that even their strongest iron-clads are at no time a match for the little "Cheese-boxes," whose fame inaugurated in the conflict with the Merrimac, has been so vastly increased during a thirty minutes' fight in the Georgia waters.

The Fastest Time on Record.

The Hudson river steamer Mary Powell, Capt. A. L. Anderson, made the run between New York and Poughkeepsie, on Friday in three hours and forty-two minutes. Leaving New York at 3½ o'clock, P. M., she reached the latter city at 7:12 o'clock, deducting thirty-five minutes consumed at landings, and five minutes lost in getting into the stream on starting, and the actual running time for the seventy-five miles in three hours and two minutes—a feat unprecedented in the annals of the Hudson river steamboating.

GRAPE VINES.

WE WERE AMONG THE FIRST TO secure this INVALUABLE GRAPE, and have cultivated it for five years. We obtained our original vines from Mr. BIELL, who originated it. The Pittsburgh Horticultural Society in 1858 awarded us a diploma for its exhibition, and the Allegheny County Agricultural Society, in 1860, a premium for it as "the BEST new seedling grape, in all respects superior to the Isabella."

Our stock of Vines is unequalled anywhere, which we offer at 25 cents each, $2.50 per dozen, $15.00 per 100, $100 per 1,000. Small vines at less prices.

We can furnish a few extra large vines at from 50 cents to $1 each.

ALLEGHENY LIVESTOCK MARKET.

Allegheny City, June 26th.

The market since our last was dull. The excitement in regard to other matters prevented any disposition to operate to any extent. In fact a large number have devoted their time to other matters, viz: the fortifications around our city.

In Cattle the offerings were not large. The demand was restricted. The sales made will be found below. The government rates were unchanged. $5,80 ₩ cwt delivered in Baltimore.

Hogs—Season now far advanced. We quote nominally at 5@5¼ ₩ lb. and scarce.

Sheep scarce and offered at low prices.

The receipts at the Morgan House Yard were:

	Last week.	This week
Hogs	520	500
Cattle	1,044	1,927
Sheep	1,734	2,472
Horses	93	289

Cattle—The market was fairly supplied, all things considered. Most of our operators were busily engaged on the fortifications, paying but little attention to out-side matters. We have but few sales to report, viz: B. M. Gard sold 34 head at 4¼ ₩ lb; Mr. Armstrong, of Belmont, Ohio, sold 10 head at 3¼ ₩ lb; L. P. Marby, sold 9 head at 3¾ ₩ lb; W. McFarden sold 14 head, prices ranged from 3½@5¼ ₩ lb; J. B. Huff bought 98 head at 4@4¼ ₩ lb; J. H. Glass bought 240 head from Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania, the rates were 4, 4¼@4¾ ₩ lb.

Hogs were scarce during the past week. The offerings did not exceed 1,240 head. Prices were unchanged. J H Glass purchased 550 head at 5@5¾ per pound; the other sales were made at the same range of prices.

Sheep—The market was over stocked; buyers were shy; prices, however, were unchanged. J H Glass purchased 390 head at 3½@4c per lb. A few hundred head changed hands at figures ranging from 3@4c per pound. The latter figure for a very choice article.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET.

Tribune's Report.

BULL'S HEAD, Monday, June 22d.

Second Day.

The Close of the Market.

TUESDAY, June 23d.

We find only 40 fresh cattle have arrived, though more were expected. Owing to the military occupation of the rails on Pennsylvania the stock trains have been held back. The offerings of bullocks on sale to-day is quite small—probably not over 2,000 altogether, but it is quite sufficient for the demand, which was fully met by Saturday's receipts. It may therefore be said that the market closes dull at a decline upon last week's quotations.

Sheep

Receipts this week, 9,601.

The market in Sixth street Monday morning was quite overstocked—several hundred having remained from Saturday unsold—the supply from Southern route. There were some very good sheep in market, the best from Kentucky, which were sold in Albany at less than was offered in Buffalo. They would weigh 120 lbs average and were held without bidders at 8½. Some good sheep were sold at 8c, and some not very good could not be sold at over 5c ₩ lb. The wholesale butchers declare that they cannot make a living at the prices sheep and mutton have lately ranged at: one of them said he had just balanced the account upon 700 head at less than 8c a head profit, and he is quite unwilling to go on at this rate. The trade in lambs continues very brisk at extravagant prices, say 8½@10c per pound live weight. Lambs are worth $1 each and the meat 14@18c per pound. Sheep skins are worth 70c each and the meat 8c lb per pound.

Hogs.

Second quality still fed	5 @5¼c	6½@6¾c

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET

June 22d, 1863.

The Sheep Market.

The arrivals and sales of Sheep at the Avenue Drove Yards continue large, reaching about 7,000 head. There is a fair demand at about previous quoted rates: sales of clipped sheep are making at 5@5¾ ₩ gross, and a few extra at 5½c.—Lambs continue scarce, and range at from 3¾ to 5 ₩ head, as to condition and quality.

The Hog Market.

The arrivals and sales of Hogs at the Union and Avenue Drove Yards reach about 1,500 head this week, selling at from $7@8.25 per 100 pounds net.

1823 head sold at the Union Drove Yard, by Henry Glass, at from 7@8,2½ per 100 lbs, net as to 790 head sold at the Avenue Drove Yard, by John Crause & Company at from $7@8.25 £100 lbs, net.

The Philosophic Burner.

HAYDEN'S NEW DOUBLE-ACTING Philosophic Burner for Carbon Oil is now ready. It possesses many advantages over the Common Burners.

1. It makes a large or small light with perfect combustion.
2. It will burn any quantity of oil with safety.
3. It can be used with a long or short chimney.
4. It can be used as a taper night-lamp.
5. It can always be made to burn economically.
6. It is more easily wicked than any other burner.
7. It can be trimmed and lighted without removing the cone.
8. It throws all the white light above the cone.
9. The chimney can be removed or inserted without touching the glass.

These burners are the common No. 1 size, and can be put on any lamp now in use. Every person using Carbon Oil should have a Philosophic Burner. Price 25 cents; per dozen $2. Sold a No. 82 FOURTH street, Pittsburgh.
