GEORGE W. WOODWARD, FOR SUPREME JUDGE,

WALTER H. LOWRIE.

A REPLY TO PRESIDENT LIN COLN. We direct the reader's attention to reply on our outside, from Judge Nicho. las, of New York, in reply to the late letter of President Lincoln, justifying the illegal arrest and banishment of Mr. Vallandigham. The Judge's demolition of Mr. Lincoln's positions are completely crushing.

THE CALL FOR MILITIA.

"ARM! ARM! AND OUT."

good sir, we owe you one :" "The conduct of the people of Pittsburgh af-fords honorable relief to the sorry picture of the state Capital. Pittsburgh was deeply stirred by the rumored approach of the rebels, but confusion reigned only for a day. Immediately fortifica-tions were is all out on the adjacent hills, and oil-izens by the thousand went out willingly to work on them. The subsidence of the first alarm did works went on steadily toward completion. The second alarm of an advancing enemy did not, therefore, anhings the Pittsburghers of sugges. For several days past there have worning on the forts and trenches; and Pitts-burgh, from its admirable natural situation for defense, must soon become one of the most strong-ly fortified cities in the country. It will be well for the ir own dignity and honor if the people of Pennsyvania generally should emulate the ex-ample of the iron city." But, notwithatanding this enthneisetio Governor Curtin has, at length, with the permission of the War Department, issued a proclamation for sixty thousand militia, to serve for three months, in defense of our own soil. simply the act of one State voluntarily helping another State in an emergency. Gov. Parker acted under the State laws of New Jersey, and under them the militia cannot be called out 'or over sixty days except in case of the actual in-ra-ion of New Jersey. When, however, the New Jerses troops reached Pennsylvania, they were into the United States service for six months, under the President's Proclamation. The Governor of Pennsylvania moreover instructed his transpor-tation agents at Philadelphia to forward no troops to Harrisburs who would not enter the Linited States service under the six months' call. This was not what the New Jersey troops had offered to do, nor what Gov. Parker had called on them to do, nor what he had any authority by State law to require them to do. And therefore he ordered them home, it seems, falling on the State of New Jersey. There are times in the history of every peo-yle when they are specially called upon to ever-cise faith as well as to display courage." And again :

"We repeat, that we be ieve the government to be right in maintaining scores so far as it pos-sibly can; and it follows as a direct consequence that the press and the speche ought to sustain the Government in this, its doubtless well-considered priley. But this creates occasion for an exercise of faith and a manifestation of reliant confidence on the part of the people which, we regret to say, is not our national habit." The copperhead Governor of New Jer by voluntarily offered to assist our State or two months, the full period allowed by the laws of that Commonwealth, and our

THE SITUATION OF PENN-SYLVANIA.

The rebel invasion of our State is cans ing much comment by the New York press; the Times of Friday contains no less than four editorials in relation to it. The first under the caption of "the numbers of the enemy" begins by remarking :

"Was Pennsylvania invaded two weeks ago by 1,500 or 50,000 rebels? Who knows? The Gov-ernment at Washington evidently thought the latter number, or they would not have called for 120,000 volunteers to repel the invasion.
