Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of, pack-whisky, really compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale, are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the results all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and two bottles Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellency any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the list, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of he nation's heroes, whom life, to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs, Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in that. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are added, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Oberman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances long, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my Limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

DAILY POST,

MR. TRUMBULL'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

What a Richmond Paper Says of It.

From the Richmond Dispatch, June 30.

The speech of Senator Trumbull at Chicago is significant in more respects than one. It shows that those among the abolitionists who are able to see an inch beyond their noses look forward already to a time when they may have to invoke that protection from the Constitution and the laws which they have uniformly done their utmost to prevent their adversaries from receiving. Senator Trumbull is a very unscrupulous, at the same time that he is a very sagacious politician, and no man is more deeply committed against the South and in favor of abolitionism. Did he believe that the tenure by which the abolition party now hold power was entirely secure, he would be the last man to recommend respect for the Constitution and obedience to its requirements. He would be continued to shout and throw up his cap at every fresh proof that Lincoln gave of his utter contempt for law, and his determination to be himself the state. But with the sagacity common to politicians of his calibre, he perceived that the wind is shifting, and is desirous to throw an anchor ahead before it be too late, lest he be driven upon the shallows and quicksands of a minority, which lie straight before him and full in his view, although unseen by others of less sagacity. It is evidently, however, too late to provide against the danger. For the impatience of the soldiers, and their determination to hear nothing against the despotism of Lincoln, proves too clearly that abolitionism has done its work effectually, and that every vestige of respect for the Constitution has been eradicated from the minds of the people. Their teachers have taught so long telling that it was an incubus which they were not bound to submit to or respect, that they have all come to regard it in that light, and now let them unteach them if they can. Trumbull and his fellows resemble the pupil of the magician, who, having raised the d—l by means of master's spells, was unable to lay him again, and was torn to pieces for his pains. It is humiliating to the pride of humanity to observe the rapid progress which despotism has made in subduing the souls of its victims and rendering them fit subjects for the iron rule of Lincoln & Grant. Every manly feeling, every free aspiration, every independent thought, seems to have been crushed out of the souls and bodies of these unhappy people. They no longer even claim to be a free people, governed by a written constitution, and laws of their own enactment. They are as absolutely slaves as though they were the subjects of Alexander II., as though Chicago were St. Petersburg, and every petty military tyrant a Marshal of the Russian Emperor. And yet these are the people who promised themselves that freedom would run riot with the election of Abraham Lincoln; that there should no longer be slavery, or the semblance of slavery, from the St. John's to the Rio Grande; that professed themselves willing to go on a crusade against the whole world in favor of freedom, and that have converted the Southern States into a huge slaughter-pen in pursuit of their favorite idea.

Gen. Hooker Confident.

A special Washington dispatch to the New York News, says:

Gen. Hooker has been in town and attended the Cabinet meeting. He laid his plans before them, and it is understood that they were unanimously approved. He believes that Gen. Lee's army is in the Shenandoah Valley, and that all the raids are mere feints to draw him away. He demanded to be given the control not only of his army of the Potomac, but also of Heintzelman's and Schenck's troops, and he promised, if his plans were not interfered with, to bring on an engagement with Gen. Lee within a week. The entire force of Gen. Hooker, if thus at the head of all the troops, is not less than 150,000. To-day he has commenced his forward movement, and there is no doubt he intends to force Gen. Lee to a battle.

Meantime orders have been given to Gen Dix, in conjunction with Gen. Peck, to advance on Richmond. The force available to bring to this work is about 27,000. The iron-clad Roanoke will take up her position at Fort Darling and endeavor to reduce it. It is said that Richmond is nearly defenseless, and that the guns have been removed from Fort Darling. Be this as it may, there is no doubt that stirring news may be expected within the next week.

Should Gen. Hooker succeed, and Richmond fall, and, at the same time, Vicksburg be taken, as it is confidently believed, it would put an entirely different face upon the aspect of affairs. Then would be the time to proffer the olive-branch.—Will it be done?

Advance in the Price of Fish.

In consequence of the reception of news of the destruction of a number of the Gloucester fishing vessels by the pirate Tacony, the holders of mackeral in the city, New York and Philadelphia advanced the price two dollars per barrel; and codfish in proportion. The number of fishing vessels exposed to this daring raider of the ocean is very large, especially from Gloncester, and if the pirate vessel is not speedily captured the loss must have a serious effect upon the prosperity of the place.—Many of the vessels are insured at mutual offices in that vicinity.—Boston Trav.

New Jersey all Right.

A Proclamation from Gov. Parker.

Whereas, By the system of computation adopted by the War Department, it is ascertained that the State of New Jersey has not filled her quota of troops for the service of the United States, (although she has responded to all the calls made upon her troops by the Government;)

And whereas, I have applied for authority to raise volunteers to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged, and authority has been given by the War Department to raise recruits for Regiments now in the field, and also to raise new Regiments, with the restriction that no more than five Regiments of Infantry and two Regiments of Cavalry should be under recruitment in the State at one time;

I therefore call upon the citizens of this State to use every exertion to recruit, as speedily as possible, new Regiments to serve our country, in her hour of need, and also to fill the decimated ranks of those Regiments that have sustained the honor of the State on many battle-fields.

The number of men required to fill up the old Regiments will be published and apportioned to the different townships and wards of the State in proportion to the number of men liable to do military duty.

Every man mustered into an old or a new Regiment will be duly credited to the State.

Recruiting for five Regiments of Infantry and one Regiment of Cavalry will be put in charge of competent officers, to be designated in General Orders.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton, this twenty-fifth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

JOEL PARKER.

Attest,

S. M. DICKINSON, Private Secretary.

Johnston's Army Behind Vicksburg.

An impression prevails that Johnston's army will attack Grant behind Vicksburg. It will attempt nothing of the sort. Grant now has an army of over a hundred thousand men. Johnston's army does not amount to more than half that number, if indeed he now has over twenty-five thousand men. Besides this, Grant has used the spade with such effect that the fortifications in his rear are scarcely less impregnable than the rebel works in his front. Instead of committing the folly of incurring certain defeat by attacking Grant the rebel Johnston, who is undoubtedly an able general, will use his army as a corps of observation, until Vicksburg falls, and then march to defend Mobile. At last accounts Grant was about to open upon Vicksburg with red hot shot. If so, its capitulation cannot be long delayed.

Terrible Affair.

A terrible affair occurred in Frederick, Md., on the 18th instant, between Sergt. John A. Hudson and —— Bechtol, both members of Captain Vernon's cavalry.—The Maryland Union says:

[illegible] authorized to bring Bechtol with him to the headquarters of the Company, and in endeavoring to execute his orders was shot by Bechtol, who happened to be under the influence of liquor at the time. The charge entered the face of Hudson just below the eye, and took an upward direction. He bled freely, and for some time it was thought the wound would prove fatal, but he was immediately removed to the hospital, where, under the most skilful medical treatment, he has continued to improve ever since, and the impression now prevails that he will recover. Hudson had been promoted but a short time previous for his gallantry, and it is said that Bechtol is one of the best soldiers in the company, and rarely indulges in intoxicating drinks. When Bechtol became duly sober, and sensible of the great wrong he had committed, he wept like a child, and has ever since manifested the greatest repentance and sorrow for the act. He is at present in prison awaiting the disposition of his case by the civil authorities.

Committed Suicide to Escape the Draft.

Frederick Ulzhoefer, a German, of good character and steady habits, committed suicide by drowning himself in a tub of water at St. Louis a few nights ago. He had previously stated that he was determined not to serve as a soldier, and that before he would do so he would drown or in some other manner make way with himself. Hearing that the enrollers were taking down names he carried his threat into execution.

The Rattlesnake.

Ex-Governor King, of Missouri, in a recent speech at Lexington, gave some account of a visit lately paid by him to the President to advise with the latter about Missouri affairs. In the course of the conversation the President pleasantly illustrated his views upon border State emancipation, as follows:

He (the President) then related an anecdote about killing a snake. He said that if he met a rattlesnake in his path, and he had a stick in his hand, his first impression would be to kill it; but if he found one in the bed between his children, he would pursue a different course, for by killing the snake he may injure the children; therefore he would take a more gentle way to get the snake out before he killed it. The same with slavery; he was satisfied that immediate emancipation would be detrimental to the interests of the State.

CRESSON SPRINGS.

THIS DELIGHTFUL SUMMER RESORT, immediately on the line of the Central P. R. R., located on the Summit of the Alleghany Mountains, 2,300 feet above the level of the sea, will be open for the reception of visitors on the 10th of June, 1863, and will be kept open until the first of October.

The water and air at this point possess superior attractions. The analyses made in the laboratory of Professors Booth, Garrett and Cooper, of Philadelphia, show the existence of valuable mineral elements, the waters of some of the springs being of the iron or chalybeate class, and others containing saline or aperient salts. Pure mountain water abounds; and the guests will also be supplied with mineral waters from other springs, such as Blue Lick, Bedford and Saratoga Waters.

Ample facilities for bathing have been provided, new plunge and douch baths erected, and Hot and Cold Baths can at all times be obtained.

The grounds, walks, &c., have been highly improved, and are of a varied and picturesque character.

There is at Cresson Springs, a Telegraph Office and two daily mails from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and intermediate points.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

TUESDAY, June 30th, 1863.

The market during the past week was dull, the demand at present being entirely local. Shipments East have been suspended for some days. Prices tend upwards—in fact, dealers contend for an advance. In New York prices seem to have reached the top. Buyers of crude were holding off. The stock in our market has been very light for some time past. The reports from Oil City notice a good deal of activity about the various wells.

A dispatch received at the Oil Exchange reads as follows:

OIL CITY, June 29th.

Market unchanged, but firm at previous quotations. Business was fair with a moderate amount of sales.

Crude—The market was firm, sellers being careless about making sales. The rates were 16¾@17c; sales of lots comprising 450 bbls at those figures; sales including packages 22@23c.

Refined also firmer; bonded held at 42@43c free at the usual advance.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
Tuesday, June 30th, 1863

Remarks—Business was suspended during the past week, all hands being engaged on the fortifications around our city, which are now in such a forward state that trade will naturally revive.

We hope in a short time to be able to furnish our readers with full reports of our daily markets. The excitement in regard to the rebel raid in our own State continues to engage the attention of a large portion of our people, but at the same time every preparation is being made to meet the crisis, should they make up their minds to some people are taking a natural consolation, the country visiting the city with their products, but the largest portion continue to come and go as usual. Most of our manufactures have resumed work, but should occasion require they will be instantly closed.

OIL MARKETS.

We condense the following from the Philadelphia Oil Circular:

The Philadelphia market during the past week ruled firm, and closes this day with a decided upward tendency in prices. The rebel raid into Pennsylvania interfered with the stand still of the general business in Pittsburgh strengthened the views of holders, and we notice prices firm at 23½@23c for crude; 48@53c for refined in bond, immediate delivery, and 51@52c for July, 53@54c for August, while 55c is now obtained for beginning of September. Refined free has been in active demand and the jobbing trade found ready buyers at 56@58c, now held firm at 58@60c. Benzine quiet and still neglected, with small sales at 22@27½c, as to quality.

2. It will burn any quantity of oil with safety.
3. It can be used with a long or short chimney.
4. It can also be used as a taper-light lamp.
5. It can always be made to burn economically.
6. It is more easily wicked than any other burner.
7. It can be trimmed and lighted without removing the cone.
8. It throws all the white light above the cone.
9. The chimney can be removed or inserted without touching the glass.

These burners are the common No. 1 size, and can be put on any lamp now in use. Every person using Carbon Oil should have a Philosophic Burner. Price 25 cents per dozen $2. Sold at No. 82 FOURTH street, Pittsburgh.
