MEDICAL

NOT ALCOHOLIC

A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Vegetable Extract.

A PURE TONIC.

Dr. Hoofland's

GERMAN BITTERS

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Penna.,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Darrasic, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits,

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases and leaves the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are unrivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU?

DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NER VOUSNESS?

DO YOU WANT ENERGY?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 25 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anises or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the Drunkard. By their use the whole system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal properties and true value any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Any case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of he nation's heroes, whose life, in case his eyes any usage has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been with me kindly, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly Yours, THAD MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

DAILY POST.

The Opportunity for the Militia.

In these columns, last Saturday, we observed, that though the rebel Gen. Lee advanced with comparatively little fear of the bayonets in the hands of the raw militia suddenly called out to meet him—that though those bayonets might not be held so firmly as his own, and might give back as he advanced—this state of things could not exist long. After a while his advance must stop—after a while he must begin to fall back—and woe to him when his retrograde begins!" for then the militia will show their courage.

This moment seems to be at hand sooner than we expected. The news yesterday indicates that already the enemy is drawing back his outposts. Harrisburg is no longer threatened. The line of the Susquehanna is clear. York is evacuated and Hanover Junction wrested from the enemy. Various accounts represent the rebel army to be falling back towards Chambersburgh.

The leaders may say they are merely concentrating to meet Gen. Meade in battle, and perhaps this may be the case. But the effect will be the same on the militia forces guarding Harrisburg and the fords of the Susquehanna. They will think the enemy is retreating from them, and as they were diffident and distrustful before, their courage will mount high now; and whereas they would have defended timidly when the enemy advanced, they will attack with vehemence now when the enemy seems to fly.

This is the time, therefore, to converge upon and destroy Lee's army. General Meade is across its path, whether it seeks Baltimore, Washington, or its way back to Virginia. Lee must fight the Army of the Potomac, whether he means to march South or stand still, and he seems to be gathering in his forces and turning his face to the South to meet the gage of battle.

This is the happy moment for General Couch to move on his militia men—cautiously, but ever closely, on the heels of the retreating rebels. He must not wait till Meade fights, and wins or loses. Couch must hang on the loins of Lee's army—must take part in the fight from the moment the first gun sounds; and, in that event, the army of militiamen will prove as courageous in attack and as terrible in destructive energies as the steadiest veterans of our army in any of its former hours and occasions of victory.—N. Y. Times.

The Franking Privilege.

We are requested to call special attention to the following change of the law in relation to the franking privilege:

Hereafter, all correspondence addressed to any Executive Department of the Government, or any officer in it, must be prepaid, except official communications written by some officer of the department, or an officer under its control or responsible to it, and in such cases, under the words "official business," on the envelope, the officer must sign his name, with his official designation. All other persons, and all officers writing to departments with which they are not connected, must prepay their postage. All communications to the President, not written by a public officer, and all to the Vice President, must be prepaid.

All communications addressed to Postmasters must be prepaid, and if a reply is required, stamps for return postage must be inclosed.

The observance of this regulation will save much disappointment and expense.

THE Nashville Union, of June 30th, says:

The train from Murfreesboro, last evening, brought down 400 Confederate prisoners, captured in the recent fights beyond Murfreesboro. Among them are thirty-six officers, one Colonel, two Lieutenant-Colonels, two Majors, and seven captains, besides other officers. More are expected to-day.

The Northern Central.

The Northern Central Railroad extends from Baltimore to Williamsport, Pa., passing through York and Harrisburg, and forming the direct line of communication between Harrisburg and Washington.—Hanover Junction is a station on Northern Central, and is thirty-nine miles from Harrisburg. The indications are that the main body of the invaders is operating to cut the communication somewhere between these two last named points. Fourteen bridges are already reported burned between Goldsboro' and York. The result of these operations is to prevent the sending of reinforcements from Baltimore or Washington to Harrisburg, except by the round-about route of Wilmington and Philadelphia. It also cuts off the national capital from her great source of supplies, and will cripple and embarrass both the Federal authorities and her citizens in the most unpleasant manner conceivable.

Close Quarters at Vicksburg.

A letter from Vicksburg says: "No two opposing armies in the world ever occupied position relative to each other such as those now occupied by the forces of Grant and Pemberton. A wall of earth about twenty feet thick at the base is all that separates them. Either party can, and they frequently do, throw hand grenades at the other. The men are continually throwing dirt at each other. But to fire a musket with effect requires the exposure of a head above the parapet, and that is sure to draw a dozen shots from the opposite side; all aimed at the fearless front spot."

The Union Leagues in Philadelphia—Who Compose Them.

The Philadelphia Evening Journal gives the names of every person in the parent lodge of Philadelphia who belongs to the Loyal League, together with his occupation. The matter foots up as follows:

RECAPITULATION.

Total number of Leaguers	530
Number who live off the Government:
Contractors	177
Office holders	44
Administration editors	18
	241

Number who support themselves. Of these there are:

Retired rich men	59
Bankers and brokers	22
Railroad and canal officers	10

There are the following miscellaneous occupations:

League printers	6
League brewer	1
League jewelers	3
League gilder	1
Goldsmith	1
League band master	1
Solicitor of contracts	1
Teacher of youth	1
Artist	1

There are also in the League 2 poets and 1 orator.

Out of 533 Leaguers, but 7 are fighting for their country, to wit: In the army—N. Boyd, Alex. Murphy and Richard Ashhurst. Gone to Harrisburg—E. Spencer Miller, Chas. S. Smith, Wm. B. Thomas, Wm. Rooh Wistar.

Shocking Event in Medina.

Mr. S. Coy, a well-known resident of Medina, was brutally murdered in bed, at his house in Medina, last evening, in company with this wife and little child, after which the house was set on fire. The latter, however, was quenched before the flames had reached the corpses. Mr. Coy has been buying sheep very extensively lately, and has had in his possession considerable sums of money, which undoubtedly caused the wretched murderer to commit so fiendish a act. Whether or not any traces of the murderer has been discovered we are unable to say.—Cleveland Plain Dealer, 2d.

The Philosophic Burner.

HAYDEN'S NEW DOUBLE-ACTING Philosophic Burner for Carbon Oil is now ready. It possesses many advantages over the Common Burner.

1. It makes a large or mall light with perfect combustion.
2. It will burn any quantity of oil with safety.
3. It can be used with a long or short chimney.
4. It can be used as a taper night-burner.
5. It can always be made to burn economically.
6. It is more easily wicked than any other burner.
7. It can be trimmed and lighted without removing the cone.
8. It throws all the white light above the cone.
9. The chimney can be removed or inserted without touching the glass.

These burners are the common No. 1 size, and can be put on any lamp now in use. Every person using Carbon Oil should have a Philosophic Burner. Price 25 cents; per dozen $2. Sold at No. 82 FOURTH street, Pittsburgh.

MEDICAL

TO THE PUBLIC.

ESPECIALLY Ladies (important indeed ly Modest of all denominations, treat secret and delicate disorders, self-abuse and diseases, or the frightful consequences common and incident to youths of both sexes and adults, single or married. Because Dr. BRADFORD publishes the fact of his doing so, the ignorant and falsely modest are dreadfully shocked and think it a great sin very immoral and for condemnation and destruction among their wives, promising sons and daughters. Their family physician should be cautious to keep them in ignorance that they do the same as Dr. BRADFORD (except publishing) lest a lucrative practice might be lost to them among stupid falsely modest and presumptuous families, born and reared in ignorance, growing up as imbeciles and dollars and cents, mysteriously, uncanly orilly goten. It is to publicity, however, that numerous parents and guardians are indebted, that their sons, daughters and wards, previously feeble sickly and of delicate condition and appearance, have been restored to health and appearance, BRADFORD'S, besides many before and after marriage through him have been saved much suff
