TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 7. Democratic Nominations.

> FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. WOODWARD. FOR SUPPEME JUDGE, WALTER H. LOWRIE.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI When Hon. Thomas H. Benton, in 1847, took issue with Mr. Calhoun and his slavery propogandists, it suddenly divided the Democratic party of Missouri. The large slaveholders of that State immediately commenced to agitate for which have sprung the gradual emancipation of slavery in Missouri. When the rebellion broke out Missouri was by no means prepared for the sadden or gradual destruction of her slave system; but the outrages perpetrated by petty officers of our government, in inducing slaves to run but pestilence and famine, than the restaaway, together with Gen. Fremont's proclamation, so alarmed the owners of slaves throughout the State, that their efforts have since been directed to secure a system of gradual emancipation, fearing a sudden overthrow of the system, which would produce wide spread rum. For two years a contest has been going on in Misscuri, between the radicals, who desired the immediate overthrow of slavery, and the conservatives, who advocated its gradual removal; and, the latter party have been successful.

We learn from the St. Louis Republican that the Convention which had the emancipation subject under consideration, adjourned sine die on the first inst., after having passed by a vote of fifty-one to thirty, the following ordinance: Be it Ordained by the People of the State of Mis-

SEC. 1. The first and second clauses of the 26th ection of the 3d article of the Constitution are and during their lives; those under 12 years of age, until they arrive at the age of 23 years, and those of all other ages until the 4th day of. July, 1576. The persons, or their legal representatives, who, up to the moment of emancipation, were the owners of the slaves thus freeds shall, during the period for which the services of such freed men are reserved to them have the same authority and control over the said freed men for the purpose of receiving the possession and services of the same, that are now he d absolutely by the master in respect to his slave. Provided, however, that after the said 4th day of July, 1870, no person so held to services shall be sold to a non-resident of, or removed from, the btate of missouri, by authority of his late owner or his legal representatives.

by authority of his late owner or his legal representatives.

SEC. 3. That all slaves hereafter brought into this State, and not now belonging to citizens of this State, shall thereupon be free.

EEC. 4 All slaves removed, by consent of their owners, to any second State after the passage by such State of an act or ordinance of secession, and hereafter brought into this state by their owners, shall thereupon be free.

SEC 5. The General Assembly shall have no power to pass laws to emancipate slaves without the consent of their owners.

SEC 6. After the passage of this ordinance no slaves in this btate shall be subject to State, county or municipal taxes.

,'The doom of slavery, says the Repub lican. is now solemnly decreed by the people of Missouri, represented through as intelligent and respectable a body as has ever been found in the same number of its citizens. Its days are numbered. As well might the powerful currents of the Missiesippi be rolled back to their source as the movement now commenced be stopped. This ordinance ought to be held as a finality. If it is so held by a in 1781 $10,000 to a fund for the relief of majority of our people, a serious agitation will have been suppressed, and a great question be settled. We have that faith in our people to believe that they will support it. Its support is demanded by

WASHINGTON, June 29, 1008.

GENTLEMEN: You are right. Continue the celebration of Independence in Boston. Keep the sacred fire alive in Fanuel Hall. Though it glimmer and seem to go out in Bichmond and in New Orleans, it will yet reason why the extreme radicals are so saxious of a protracted war, knowing as they do that the longer hestilities continue the surer becomes the destruction of slavery. Missouri has acted wisely, for the probability is that had she not adopted product of the surer becomes the destruction of slavery. Missouri has acted wisely, for the probability is that had she not adopted pendence now and forever; for Independence is Union, and nothing else is Union. THAT PRESSURE AGAIN The abolition pressure upon President Linoln, of which he so bitterly and plaintively complained to the con servative delegation of border State Congressmen, has, it ap pears, crushed him into the adoption of the entire radical programme. The other day when the people of Washington city were clamorous for the recall of McClellan, he remarked to a committee of them that his recall "would stop a small hole

A Drafting Story. We find the following in the Drawer Harper's Monthly:

"The enrolling officer of Saliabury Die trict, Maryland, was very active and thor ough in the performance of his duty. One day he went to the house of a country-man, and finding none of the male members at home, he made inquiry of the old woman about the number and age of the "males" of the family. After naming several, the old lady stopped. "Is here no one else? asked the officer. there no one else? asked the officer.
"No." replied the woman, "none except Billy Bray." "Billy Bray, where is he?"
"He was at the barn a moment ago," said the old lady. Out went the officer. but could not find the man. Coming back, the worthy officer questioned the old lady as to the age of Billy, and went away, after enrolling his name among those to be drafted. The time of drafting came, and among those on whom the lot fell was Billy Resy. News here Billy Bray. No one knew him. Where did he live? The officer who enrolled him was called on to produce; and, lo and behold, Billy Bray was a jackers! and stands now on the list of drafted men as forming one of the quota of Maryland. From the fact that the New England States have cent no troops to the assist ance of Pennsylvania it has been inferred that the people of those States are indifferent to the events now passing on the Susquehanna. The inference is unjust, as is abundantly proved by the fact that, upon learning of the peril in which Pennisylvania now stands, the coal merchants of Boston at once held a meeting and resolved to raise the price of coals to twelve dollars a ton
