FREDERICK, MD, July 6.—Our whole army is in motion, and the highest hopes are entertained that but a small portion of Lee's Army will be able to reach Virginia. A spy named Wm. Richards about 50 years of age, was hung this morning. He was captured yesterday at Oxford, Md., but it appears that he had been previously captured, but made his escape.—It is reported that he admitted the charge, and said he had been in the business for a long time. Also that important communications between General Lee and Ewell were found on his person.
