CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

A Sad Scene. ght before last a scene took place the Mayor's office that brought tears to the eyes of those who, accustomed to the sight of human misery, seldom weep. On the floor of the cffice lay the clothes of young Hobell who was drowned on Wednesday, they having been brought there by a li tle boy who was with him when he was drowned, and who had taken them was drowned, and who had taken them there, not knowing where his mother lived. About dark, a poor but respect able woman entered the office, but no sooner did her eye catch sight of the bundle of little clothes than recognizing them she threw herself beside them, and for half an hour her shrieks rent the air, and her poor grief-laden heart seemed as though it would burst. At length partially recovering herself, she told her sad story. She was the mother of John Hobelf. She had sent him out in the morning at seven o'clock to look for work, giving him strict orders not to go near the river for fear he might be drowned. Instead of going in search of work he had Instead of going in search of work he had gone to the river, and her worst anticipa-tions were realized. She had waited pa-tiently all day for the return of her absent son, when becoming alarmed, she had started out in search of him, visiting the Mayor's office in hopes of hearing of him. The first thing that greeted her vision as she entered was his clothes, which were immediately recognized by the fond and doting mother. Who can describe her anguish, or realize her agony? No wonder that the hardward shocks of the herdward shocks of

He was in-toxicated, and got on one of the Wylie street cars. He disputed with the driver about the payment of fare, when he was pushed cff, and the car ran over his leg-breaking it. He was carried into a drug store near by, and the wound dressed by Dr. Hopper. The affair took place near the corner of Congress and Wylie street.

Rebels Barefooted. We see by the detailed report of the sur render of Vicksburg, that a large number of the men were totally barefooted. There is no doubt good reason for this in the South, but no excuse for people in this part of the country, when McClelland sells boots and shoes at such astonishing low prices. Call and be convinced at 55 Fifth street.

Revolver Stolen. Yesterday evening four young men entered the store of Wm. Bown, and while there one of them purchased a revolver. After they had left, another of the party showed a revolver which he said he had stolen while there. One of the party re-turned and gave information, and the clerk -Mr. Smith-went to the Mayor's office and took out a warrant for the arrest of the offender. A policeman started in pur-

Dr. B. Brandreth. New York:

Fig.: I was a private in Co. F. 17th Regiment.

New York Volv. While at Harrison's Landing, and on the Rappahannock near Falmouth, I and many of the Company were sick with binous diarihea. The Army Surgeon did not cure us, and I was reduced to skin and bone. Among the company were quite a rumber of members who had werked in your. Laboratory at Sing Sins. They were not sick because they used Brandreth's Fills. These mer pervalled upon me and others to use the Fills, and we were all cured in from two to five days. After this our boys used Branddreth's Fills for the typhus fever, colds, rheumatism, and in no case did they feil to restore health.
