> FOR GOVERNOR. GEORGE W. WOODWARD. FOR SUPREME JUDGE,

GEN. MEADE. The radical Abolitionists, who saw in Burnside's claughter of thousands at Fredcricksburgh nothing to complain of, and who considered Hooker's defeat at Chancellorsville, an admirable retreat, are opening their atreams of calumny and defamation upon Gen ral Meade. There is place awhile longer; let him write a letter to some Union League, in favor of a war for negro, emancipation throughout the entire South, and threatening to put the netter South, and threatening to put the homes due to the Divine M. jesty for the wonderful things the entire South, and threatening to put the has done in the nation's behalf, and invoke the influence of His Holy Spirit to subdue the suger which has produced ocrats. These, in the cases of Ben Butler to subdue the anger which has produced and Halleck have retained them in their places; and if Meade will only resort to like contrivances, he will find them far ermeents, to guide the counsels of the government with wisdom adequate to so great another or the contribution of the contr Ten months ago General McClellan was the length and breadth of our land all ble and melancholy feature in connection appealed to to save the Capital from demarches, voyages, battles and sieges, have the courrence took place immediately in marches, royages, battles and sieges, have the occurrence took place immediately in raute of Pope by General Lee; he did so, estate and family, to lead the whole has was given in the yard of the same. was not in the war—that is, his heart and head did not approve of the bloody Abolition programme. Meade's offence is Mc-Clellan s, and for it he is bound to suffer. And yet, at the time he was summoned to take Hooker's place, one of his now slanderers remarked that if Gen, Meade "can the United States the eighty-seventh ABRAHAM LINCOLN. mac in its present exigencies, and, in the tace of the enemy, perfect and execute such plans as are necessary to success, he will prove himself a man for the nation to place its confidence in." No position can be imagined which would more thoroughly test the strongest powers of a military mind. Napoleou himself would have ada side, yesterday morning. In anticitary mind. Napoleon himself would have ada aide, yesterday morning. In anticitive of the first take command of an army pation of his arrival, we had dispatched minhood had still kept him in the land of the first arrival and his hand called from aide. with which he had no acquaintance, enter one of our editorial corps to that point in the living, and his her heat, and with the impulses or necessities might have to make to the people of thio.

of the moment, meet the well-digested plans of a skilful and warv adversary. Ha plans of a kilful and wary adversary. He must reorganize his forces, arrange his plans of attack and defense, and perfect a miliar, and which time alone can render him fully conversant with. If Hooker could manage such an army after five months' experience, it would take a man of ten times his breadth of intellect to do

Missouri has great cause of gratulation over the fall of Vicksburg, and the St. Louis Republican is crowded with rejoicings therefor. It is not to be supposed that ENCE OF THE SOUTH IS AN ESTAB. the snemy can majutain an army in Ar LISHED FACT, washether recognized kansas or Louisiana after the Mississippi shall have been lost to him.

The disaster which Price and his subor dinates have lately sustained at Helena probably marks the last operation of greater dignity than some considerable greater dignity than some considerable guerrills work, in which the rebels now in Arkansas will engage west of the Mississippi. Price, Holmes, Marmaduke & Co. will be compelled to make their way, if they can, to another quarter, thus surrendering the whole of Arkansas. We take it that the Arkansas river can now be opened as far as navigable whenever the military authorities choose to turn their ing before breakfast.

As to the Union, I would not give a cent for it, unless it stood as a guarantee for the union, I would not give a cent in surrendering the work, in which the rebels now in for it, unless it stood as a guarantee for it. I surrendering the must go to war.
