OFTY AND REIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

The Late Boat Bace. As a great deal of interest has been manifested in regard to the recent boat race between Hamill and. Ward, we publish the report from the New York Times entire : All the hotels and public houses were full, and the universal talk was boat, boat being generally at two to one on HAWILL up to near the start, when from the free on governing at the trong to the start when from the free been out to pasture, were brought in for dom with which the Ward men took all safety. and the sight of them, so wrought dom with which the Ward men took all safety, and the sight of them, so wrought the effers they could get at each great odds, the Pittsburghers held stiffer for better terms, and succeeded in bringing it nortal John" himself was not upon the U. down to $100 to $60, and at length to $100 and many were not satisfied until the U to $76; and after the boats had started, S. brand convinced them of their error the Ward men came out flatfooted, and offered to bet even on their favorite.-Distressing Accident.

Strangely enough, at the very time, on board the Judge's boat, and with a bad start for Hamill, when Ward was leading An accident of a very distressing natur As accident of a very distressing nature is occurred at the House of Refuge on Fri I day afternoon, by which Mr. Hugh Milli gan, Assistant Superintendant, lost his life, and twenty seven boys narrowly es. f caped. "The facts as we have gathered them were as follows: Mr. Milligan had been digging a well for the Refuge and f him a length, Mr. Stephen Fleming, of Pittsburgh, Mr. Hammill's backer, offered $100 to $50 on his beating Ward, and met with no takere; at Ruizel's Hotel, carly in the morning, an Albany gentle man offered to bet $800 even on Hamil and was enapped up by a Poughkeepsian and we had it for a fact that Mr. Flem ing had deposited $20,000 n the banks a great portion of which he invested or Hamilt. The crowds on the docks and in the steamboat hotel were immense, two propellers having come from New-burgh loaded with passengers, and a small one from Cornwall with Ward and his immediate friends. He lives, and trained Limself at Coruwall, which accounts for his fine condition. It is said that in the Schuylkill race he was trained by other bands and out of tion, hence his defeat by Hamill. Num bers of persons came from Pittsburgh, where Hamill halls from, and one from that locality, in answer to a question as to Hamill's muscle, said he didn't know much about his muscle, but he had lungs like a forge bellows-rather suggestive of the man's occupation. A large delega tion came from the Empire City Regatu General Alexander Hays.

An officer of the army of the Potomac, writing to the Buffalo Courier, from the Club, Harlen River-where Hamilt trained with Mr. Stephen Roberts, the Cost of the Club, and Mr. Cotte, the battle-field at Gettysburg, alludes, at some The surface of the officers: and besides those who went up by the Hudeon River Bailroad train, and the Albany day boat and Poughkeepsie boat, the steamboat Wm. Kent took up a large number on a special train.
