THE DAILY POST—ADVANOED The Real Conspiracy in the Late Riots. The mystery that enveloped the events f the week of terror in this city, says the N. Y. Herald, is fast being cleared away. The nest of the conspirators has been probed, and they now stand before the public in their hideous forms. When we saw the Tribune, Times, and Post, day after day, amidst the tumultuous and tryng scenes in this city, filled with bitter, acrimonious and bloodthirsty articles, we concluded that there was some secret under and behind all the disturbances which was and behind all the disturbances which was purposely hidden from the general public. Time has verified our suspicions. Facts that have come to light within the last few days conclusively prove that the incendiary course of the radical journals was prompted solely by a fixed determination to increase the extent of the riot and to force a collission between the State and national authorities. The latter point acnational authorities. The latter point ac complished, it was to be followed with th declaration of martial law, a military Governor, and all the appliances that this satanic radical committee, with Greeley Raymond, Godwin & Co. at its head Kaymond, Godwin & Co. at its head, with its dozen or fifteen tails, could bring to bear to con'rol future elections in this city. They were foiled in their evil and bloody work by the tact and skill of Generals Wool and Sandford, with the co-operation of Goderner Saymon. The riot eration of Governor Seymour.
