Induced by the extensive sale and universal commanty of the catendard's German Bitters, (purely regetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unsergulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering lumanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape if poer whisky, vilaly compounded with injurious large and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plotheric bottles, and big-bellied tega, under the modest appellation of Bitters which, instead of curing only aggravates disease and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair. Philadelphia, August 23d, 1862.

Megyre, Jones & Boung, Well, gentlemen, your Hoodhand's Greman Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is worched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circums? mocas of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of sherman's celebrated battery, under the immediate pour attendant upon my ardious duties, I wantacked in tovember last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. The was followed by great debility, heightened by anattack of dysentery. I was then removes from the White House and sent to this dity on board the steemer "state of Meine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Lines that the set in the last in a park of vitality. For a week or more I was carcely able to swa low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was inneeding the whospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of the blow and beander. Life could not last under these circumstances and, accordingly the physici, his who had been working fait highly; though misucceeding, the results of the season who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of the blow Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle, From the time I commenced taking them the chadow' is death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, setting better. Though I havotaken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighten monthes; for, gentleman I am aloyal Virginian, I.' mhe vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my besom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, Island: Mr. Malone, estored to health.

The apparent attempt on the part of Gen. Lee to force a passage through Man-assas Gap, was, indeed, a feint. On the 28d, nearly the whole of Hill's and Long. street's corps had passed through Chester Gap, and on the 24th they made the march Gap, and on the 24th they made the march from that point to within ten miles of Culpepper. It was their rear guard alone—a strong one it is true—that had fought the battle of Manassas Gap in order to delay Meade's army there, and the ruse was successful. Gen. Meade's whole ar ny was at Chester Gap on the 24th, but then it was too late, for everything had passed. The campaign is over. Gen. Lee is safe at Culpepper, with his whole army, and once more the Rappahahnock rolls between the opposing hosts.
