

DAILY POST

100, M. PETTENGILL & CO., NO. 37
CLARK HOW NEW YORK, and its STATE
STOCKS AND BONDS IN THE MARKET, Daily and Weekly Post in the old and new markets, and Advertisements and Specifications or what our Local News.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1.
CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE.

CORONER'S INQUIRY.
On Saturday about 10 o'clock a.m., a woman aged about 24 years, living between Peters street and Duane's Way, opposite Davis' boiler yard, died very suddenly. Her husband, Mr. Maynor, who informed her that he must go after Stevens, some of the police visited the spot, and as there were several bruises on her arm, her neck was somewhat discolored, it was suspected that she had been taken by the husband into custody, and the inquest was held. We visited the place where the corpse lay on Saturday afternoon, and learned that the woman had been very ill, and that she had been pressed into service, as one woman expressed it, "to take three or four days a day to satisfy her." On Friday her husband had refused to allow her any liquor, and as a matter of course her sufferings were increased in consequence of the business, which process is necessary to put the plant through from the time it is cut ready for use, and oblige many who use it to several of the women in the house that he was staying. He got some water, and while he was at her side she died back, and he was under the impression that she fainted, but the poor creature was dead. When the Coroner first saw her he did not feel inclined to proceed with the inquest without evidence in attendance, and one was procured. Then he was then held, and the verdict was that she died from natural causes. Her liver was very much diseased in consequence of her intense labor, and the husband was present. While in the cell that he remained to us that he never thought that he ever fought for his adopted country he could be looked up for the murder of his wife.

The Police Difficulties.

As we anticipated, the members of the night-police met on Sunday afternoon, and with one exception, determined not to go out any more. The exception was a man by the name of George Gross, one of the oldest watchmen in the employ of the city.

Last night the city was again without any watch, but there did not appear to be any signs of disturbance. We visited the city about eleven o'clock, and found it deserted. There was a single street lamp, and a few houses were lighted. The state of things is very desirable, to be sure, but how long will it last? We hope that Councils will do something to meet the emergency. Their engagement will be a most successful one we hope. A gentleman who has a very high position in our community, has now remarked to us that it was a burning shame and a lasting disgrace to the city that the police did not have a well organized force to protect it. The way matters stand at present, it is an invitation for the scoundrels of all other places to congregate here, with free license to commit crime.

The Wounded at the Gettysburg Battles.

The following official approximates of the number of wounded men who have been in the field and around Gettysburg, furnished by a distinguished medical officer, who has been on duty at that point:

Sept. from Gettysburg to	1,662
July 2	3,017
Sept. from Hagerstown	1,662
From Westminster	2,009
Total	7,300
Deaths reported	3,017

Total Union wounded

Union wounded remaining July 22

Total Union wounded in the battle

Rebel wounded sent off

Rebel wounded remaining

Total Union wounded in our hands

Total Rebs. wounded

To obtain the whole number of rebels wounded to these figures there must be added to those at Chambersburg, Carlisle, Westport, Georgetown, Martinsburg, Winchester, and the other small towns on the way, which will double the foot up to at least fifteen thousand, making the probable number of wounded on both sides thirty-five thousand in round numbers.

Hebrew Convention.

A convention is now holding in Cleveland of members of the I. O. B. B., or "Sons of the Covenant," a Hebrew or revolent order, somewhat resembling in its features the order of Odd Fellows. One of the principal objects of the order is the establishment of centers and schools and colleges for giving Hebrew youth a theological and classical education. The order extends throughout the United States, and is now composed of 1,000 members. There are seventy-five delegations present from the grand lodges of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and Kentucky, several being gentlemen who have attained to eminence in the world.

State Claims Against the Government.

The amount of the claim of this State against the general government, for expenses incurred in raising and subsisting the militia, has been submitted into the United States Senate, $20,419.82. This covers the expenses of the State for raising volunteers under act of Congress, June 17th, 1862. They are now before Major Greer for examination, and on a settlement at the Treasury the direct tax on the State is to be deducted from the amount.

Revenue Decision.

The Commission of Internal Revenue has decided that a certificate of exemption for those who have been drafted and furnished a substitute under the Conscription act, but required by law to be issued by a board of examiners, is exempted from stamp duty. Any certificate which may be issued by a magistrate in connection with the proceedings under the Conscription act is subject to a duty of five cents.

The Draft in New England.

In Boston, Father Abraham, three hundred and forty-nine voices sang to sing, but the people of New England have no notion of lending their example to their preceptor. The Boston Herald says:

"Of the 46 men from Nantucket and the Vineyard who have presented themselves to the Board of Enrollment in New Bedford, 61 have received exemption papers, two have paid $300, and one has passed out of 645 conscripts 51 exempt.

Wrought Iron Cannon.

A firm of iron founders, making a fine wrought iron which will weigh when completed, about seventeen tons. It is forged solid, in an octagonal form, with the cavity bored out thirteen inches in diameter, and will be hooped to a height of four feet, and will bear a dranle pressure. The barrel on which the metal is being turned is one of the largest in the world.

On the Outskirts.

Penrice says: "While passing along the street, we heard the word 'trite' hiss at a child, and the child teeth. We turned in the direction of the hiss, and to our surprise, found ourselves upon the outskirts of a very pretty woman."

Weather.

Yesterday in several degrees the hottest day of the season, the mercury standing at 96° in the shade.

TELEGRAPHIC.

PIRCE EIGHT BY GEN. BUFORD.

LOSS ON 24TH SIDE OF CANNIBALABLE.

Order by the President.

OUR ARMY ON THE MOVE.

North Carolina will Secede from Jeff. Davis.

Barbarous Rebel Means to Enforce an Order.

For the Post,
SHAKELLYVILLE, Mercer Co., Pa. }
July 29th, 1862.

EDITOR POST.—In consequence of the extremely high price of tobacco, there is a demand there for many readers of the Post, like all else, engaged in the plant; and, as there are but few, comparatively, that are tobaccoists, perhaps they will be thankful to him. The tobacco business, however, is in full swing in the Post, which process is necessary to put the plant through from the time it is cut ready for use, and oblige many who use it to sell, when he withdraws to a strong position East of Brandy Station.

Accident at Harrisburg.

On Thursday last a soldier was killed in the 16th U.S. regiment, by the name of Maynor, who was shot in the head by accident, while in the ranks, in attendance, and one was procured. The soldier, then held, and the verdict was that he died from natural causes. His liver was very much diseased in consequence of his intense labor, and he had seemed dead the present war. While in the call that he received to us that he never thought that he ever fought for his adopted country he could be looked up for the murder of his wife.

Commutation.

The amount of commutation under the draft paid to the United States Collector in Lancaster city, up to Thursday evening, was $40,200.

Detached Conscripts.

A detachment of negro conscripts were sent to Philadelphia from this city on Saturday afternoon.

The Campell Minstrels.

To-night the old, original far-famed Campbell Minstrels commence a series of entertainments at the Edinburgh theater. Mr. M. C. Campbell is the leader of the company.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the 22d, and victory at Fort Wagner.

Granville regretted that the Canadians had not provided sufficient militia for defense in case of war, and said it was impossible for Fort Wagner to defend Canada.

The Times city article says:

The American news was received with surprise, disappointment and satisfaction. Surprise at the sudden collapse of the Vicksburg forces; disappointment at the failure of the Confederates to capture the railroad station, thence to the