PAT PAT PAT PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE. Thursday, Aug. 6th, 1863.

We have no particular change to notice in the oil market. Matters remain pretty much in the same condition. The market rules very firm r crude. There was however no advance in rices. A few lots were disposed of at rates current on the previous day. The rates were as follows, crude, packages included, 271/@28c; sithout packages, 221/@23c. Refined was only limited demand at a slight advance. The principal demand, however, was for Crude. The shipments yesterday were limited, amount ing to 1,020 bbls. The receipts by the Allegheny river amounted to 1,096 bbls. We notice a good deal of bargaining going on between dealer and sales were made the terms of which were ot made public.

Prices in New York advanced a shade with irm market, Crude being quoted at 33@33 1/2 this includes the packages. These rates as compared with ours are too low for exports to any extent. Refined oil has also gone up, with sales of bonded at 50@51c, higher figures being ob ained for delivery in September and Oc Crude-We have to notice a firm market

The receipts by the river were a fraction under 2:000 barrels. Most of this had been disposed of reviously. We note sales of 700 bb's in lots at 214@23c, principally the latter; 500 bb's, meas ired from boat, 22c: sales, packages included, at 27@271%c Refined-Sales limited at bonded, 46@47

Pion.—The market yesterday presented no new feature. The sales were few and far b-tween and sature. The sales were few and far b-tween and atogether for local purposes. The stock in first hands is not large, but seems to be sufficient for all pre-ent purposes. From store we note sales as follows: Extra, 33 bbls, $3 405 5; Extra Family, 200 bbls, $36.5 2266 50. The business of the week was dull, the demand being entirely for home consumption.

Grain—The next week was one of the dullest of the season. The demand seem to have died out. In fact it is barely inquired for, so that without buyers there can be no transactions. The following are the nominal raves, viz: Wheat, red nominal at $1 lo. white, $1 lo. Data are held at 60@62c with more sellers than buyers.
