Hallis, 35th Massachusetts. NEW YORK, August 13.—The Commer-cial's Washington letter says recent arri-vals from Richmond state that some of the aristocracy rebels, who migrated from Washington at the early stages of the re-washer during the past few days there has been a change for the better. Since our last a rise of some eighteen inches has taken place in the Allezhony. This enabled a large uantity of oil to reach the market that had been detained on the way. The condition of the aristocracy rebels, who migrated from Washington at the early stages of the rethe aristocracy rebeis, who migrated from Washington at the early stages of the re-bellion, are in indigent circumstances. The cases of a well known Washington been detained on the way. The condition of the oil market can be ascertained by reference to our oil report. The War News continues fa-vorable. We shall soon have to chronicle the bysician and lawyer are mentioned. Here they lived in aristocratic streets, at tere they lived in aristocratic streets, at-tended by a retinue of servants, but in the rebel capital they live in humble places, and are their own servants. Nineteen officers are reported for discapture of Charleston and Mobile. The Confedracy is fast failing to pieces, while the North s only beginning to show its strength.

Money matters presented no change worthy f notice. The demand, however, for Gold and
