Meeting of Republican Leaders in Washington.

The report of a completed conference of the Republican leaders in Washington during the next ten days, is confirmed by letters from that city.

There is every reason to believe that the whole Southern people, and all, are heartily sick of their war for independence.

Volunteering in Jersey.

Hudson City, N. J., has raised her quota of 158 in five working days.

The New York Herald, in its Washington correspondence, publishes a curious, if not a sensation report, in regard to our relations with Russia.

The United States and Russia. The New York Herald, in its Washington correspondence, publishes a curious, if not a sensation report, in regard to our relations with Russia.

The Shooting of Mr. Coyle, near Fairfax, Va. An item was copied from a Washington paper, a few days ago, stating that a man named James Coyle, residing three miles north of Fairfax, Va., had been shot and killed on his own house, on suspicion of giving information to the rebels.

Death of the Bito of a Fly. On Friday, William Liddell, for some time employed in collecting and burying dead animals found in the streets, was bit on one of the eyebrows by some kind of insect, which he did not see.

Doing his Own Surgery. Dr. W. H. White, of the U. S. Navy, while at Washington, last week, on his way to Baltimore, had a splinter in the ball in his left hand, being discharged by the fall, entered the calf of his leg and penetrated to the bone.

Powder Mill Explosion. An explosion of a mill took place on Saturday, at the Bagley Yard, Dupont's Mills, which was attended by the death of one man and the injury of several others.

Homicide. Dr. W. H. DeCourcy, of Wye Neck, while correcting one of his servants for insolent conduct, on Tuesday last, struck a blow upon the head with a stick, which caused his death.

The Wool Trade. The wool trade is progressing quietly throughout the country, and probably by this time the greater portion of the clip has been disposed of.

Mackeral. The Newburyport (Mass.) Herald says that mackerel are now very plenty in that place, and of good quality.

Parlor Evergreens. If green branches, taken from luxuriant and healthy trees, be cut for sprigs, and immersed in soap water, they will, after drooping for a few days, stand their leaves, put forth fresh ones, and continue in the green vigor for weeks.

The Oil Remedy Against Plague.

We suggested recently the application of sweet oil to the body and limbs of others, to keep off the greenhead and other flies which tease these animals so distressingly, and deprive them of the power to perform their labor.
