WASHINGTON, August 14.—Dispatches have been received from Admiral Dahlgren to-day. They are of a business character, and not proper for publication.

From the preparations made by himself and Gen. Goin, as stated by those officers, the pending attack on the enemy's fortifications is in the highest degree encouraging. Their representations are of such a character as to admit of but little doubt of a triumphant result.

He secured the conviction of the two counterfeiters of United States money, who were arrested in London, and who had been making and passing counterfeit money to the value of $300,000 in the United States.

It is believed that the only attempt which has been made to utter such paper in England.

Specimens brought hither are only ten in number. The counterfeit money was detected in this country by the poor quality of the ink and badly engraved likeness of Lincoln.

Least, Commander English, in a communication to the Navy Department, dated July 28th, states that under instructions from the Secretary of the Navy, he assumed command of the blockading squadron of the eastern coast of Florida.

He destroyed an iron steamer, and several vessels of other kinds, which had her cargo in and was about to sail.

A force was landed, which destroyed all the houses occupied by troops. On landing this party was fired upon by a few stragglers.

The conduct of all connected with this expedition was most praiseworthy. No lives were lost. The troops reached the shore secured the extensive lagoon, twenty miles long, as far up as a blockade runner could go.

The Navy Department has heard nothing of a battle off the coast of Maine between a gunboat and a private, except what has been reported in the newspapers.
