ROYAL BLOOD. Any one who has seen the royal families of Europe, must have been impressed with the truth of the common saying that very little intellect is required to govern a nation.

Habits of Lobsters.

Many of our readers have a fondness for lobster flesh, who may know little about the habits of this prince of shell fish.

Who does not like the flesh of the lobster? Even the children know the nursery rhyme—"Black in the kitchen, red on the table."

When the young lobsters leave the protection of their parents, they are very much alarmed, and are always in harness, heavily armed to the teeth.
