Induced by the extensive sale and universal supmarcy of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have operated upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU!
DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE!
DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION!

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed,

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In fact, reading as we almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of he nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own ard sage "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of sher-man's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility. Heightened by anattack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June, since that time I have been so much as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality; For a week or more I was scarcely able to swa low anything, and if I did force it down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances and, accordingly the physicians who had been working fai hfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds a best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman I am a loyal Virginian, 12 m the vicinity of Fort Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the abovestatement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

DAILY POST.

Banks and Grant.

We have seen it stated that Gen. Banks, accompanied by his staff, is expected soon to leave New Orleans for the East. If this report be true, conjectures will be rife in regard to new Department changes in the army. By the operations of last month the fields of Gen. Banks and Gen. Grant were brought near together, if not completely merged; and it would unquestionably be better, ere the fall campaign commences, for the Washington authorities to define the scope of action of both commanders, in order to avoid the conflicts of judgment that are most sure to result from having two heads to manage where the chief direction should belong to but one. We know of no two officers in the service who have less military jealousy than the ones named, nor is it to be doubted that in respect to a desire to co-operate cordially they would perfectly agree; yet experience has taught that in the control of a wide range of territory where military movements must be subordinated to one general plan, a single officer should have the supreme authority. Though all are acquainted with and duly appreciate the excellent generalship displayed by the former, the sense of the people, we take it, is that Gen. Grant should be allotted the command of the forces which are to participate in the future movements against the enemy in the Southwest whether Johnston decides to make his stand in the interior or falls back to the Gulf, at Mobile. Gen. Banks, it will be remembered, ranks Gen. Grant as Maj. General of Volunteers, and no one, we suppose, would expect him to act in a subordinate position, though he cheerfully did go under General Pope in the army of Virginia.

It seems quite probable, then, taking in vie these considerations, that the expected departure of Gen. Banks and staff from New Orleans to the East, will not be merely for a visit home or a temporary absence. There are several positions to which the General might be assigned, where he would prove useful. We reckon it is hardly worth while to entertain hopes of his being placed in the War Department, for which his splendid executive talents, added to his military experience, peculiarly befit him. If it be true that Gen. Meade has signified his desire to relinquish the command of the Army of the Potomac, here would seem a "lick" into which the President might insert this "peg." But whatever position Gen B. is to fill, we feel confident that he will be found a faithful, discreet and efficient officer. Perhaps, indeed, the campaign may take such a turn as shall, by prescribing new theatres of war in the Southwest, make the Departments of Gens. Banks and Grant, distinct and independent, in which case we know of no better commander for the Gulf Department than its present head.—St. Louis Rep.

Captured at Port Hudson.

Among the prisoners captured by Gen. Banks at Port Hudson, was Capt. Lewis, formerly of Lanesboro', Mass., but at the time in command of a South Carolina rifle company. Lewis was a native of South Carolina, but resided some years ago in Massachusetts. He was a member of the Legislature of that State, together with Gen. Banks, in 1851, and the two cast their votes for Charles Sumner for United States Senator. The General recognized his old Democratic fellow-laborer among the prisoners. What is equally curious is the fact that but for the vote of Mr. Lewis, no senator could have been chosen.

A Womanly Denunciation.

The Queen of England has written a letter to the mayor of Birmingham respecting the recent shocking death of Mad. Geneive, the rope danseuse, who was killed by a fall at the Forester's Fete in Aston Park. Her majesty says that this poor woman was "sacrificed to a demoralized taste, unfortunately prevalent for exhibitions attended with the greatest amount of danger to the performers," and makes an expression of her horror at such an occurrence as Madame G's death. The Queen finds proof of the demoralizing tendency of such practices in the continuance of the sports of the day after the events referred to, and calls upon the people to use their influence to check such a depraved taste.

Strange Freak of Lightning.

The Norfolk (Mass.) County Journal says that in West Wrentham, on Tuesday last, the lightning entered the house of Mr. E. C. Craig by the window, and visited nearly every room in the building. It committed a variety of freaks, tearing pictures to pieces on the walls, displacing and destroying furniture, and making devastation everywhere. A young lady who was visiting the family was struck in the shoulder, the lightning passing down her frame, coming out at her foot, carrying her gaiter boot with it, and killing a dog which lay on the floor beside her. She was insensible for some hours.

Capture of Prizes.

The United States revenue gunboat Reliance, Captain T. M. Dungan, commanding, arrived at this port on Sunday night, from the waters of Virginia, with two prizes in tow, having captured during this cruise six prizes and a lot of contraband goods, consisting of whisky, sabres and other articles. On the 4th instant she captured a yawl boat, containing a rebel mail and a late file of papers direct from Richmond. Many of the letters are addressed to persons in Baltimore. The parties having the mail in charge made their escape after receiving the fire of the boat's crew.

New Jersey.

The following counties in New Jersey have offered the annexed bounties for volunteers: Mercer, $200; Monmouth $200; Burlington $200; Sussex $200; Warren (reported) $800; Camden (for old regiments) $50; Hudson $50. The following bounties have been offered by the cities: Newark $200; Jersey City $200; Hudson City $800; Camden $50; Patterson $200; Salem $300; New Brunswick $800.

PARTIES recently arrived from Richmond describe the people there as sunk in the deepest gloom. They are deserting the city in crowds, in consequence of the high prices of the necessaries of life.—Sickness prevails there to a fearful extent, and the want of medicines is badly felt.—Desertions from the army were frequent. There were but few rebel troops in Richmand on the 7th instant; nor were there any indications of a military movement on the part of the rebel army.

Diarrhea.

It is quite sufficient for all practical purposes, to say that diarrhea, dysentery and Asiatic cholera are one and the same disease, differing only in intensity. Diarrhea is a watery looseness; dysentery is a bloody looseness; cholera is an immense watery looseness.

In diarrhea, there is not much pain, necessarily. In dysentery, there is a great deal of pain inevitably. In cholera there is never any pain at all, as to the bowels. In diarrhea discharges always succeed inclination, with no satisfactory discharge.

In cholera, desire is followed always by immense and relieving discharges. In all these, there is one never-failing circumstance always and inevitably present, and can never be absent, under any conceivable circumstances—it is the quenchless instinct of nature calling for absolute rest, bodily quietude, and without that rest a cure is impossible, and with an inevitable event.

There is in all these a remorseless thirst. Nature then calls for two things, to satisfy her longings—rest and drink, and if these two things are done with sufficient promptness, there is a perfect cure in nine cases out of ten.

Perfect quietude on a bed, and chewing ice, swallowing as large a piece as possible, until the thirst is perfectly satisfied, is all that is necessary in any ordinary attack of any of these three unenviable diseases.

To make assurance doubly sure, keep the abdomen tightly bound with two thicknesses of woollen flannel, eating nothing but boiled rice, with boiled milk, in ordinary cases; if more violent, let rice be parched as black as coffee generally is then boil and eat; or what is still more efficient, put a pound or more of flour in a linen bag, boil it two hours in milk, take off the skin, dry it, grate it into boiled milk, and eat freely, and nothing else, until the disease is checked. If these bowel complaints are checked too promptly with laudanum, paregoric or opium, fatal convulsions take place in a few hours, as to children; an incurrible congestion and inflamation of the brain in grown persons. As bowel diseases are the scourge of all armies in the fall of the year, these suggestions should be circulated.—Health Tract.

A DUEL is reported to have been fought in New Jersey, a few days since, between the son of an eminent naval officer and a Lieutenant in the 8th Infantry. The cause was a lady, the weapons pistols, and the result was the wounding of the artillery officer the challenging party in the fourth exchange of shots. His injuries, which are in the neck, are not so very severe.

THE following advertisement appears in the columns of a Paris paper: A student of three years' standing at a German university, wishes to marry, after taking his degree. He is desirous of finding a young lady who will advance him money to pay the sum necessary to finish his university career. Thus bound to his fate, she would, after two or three years, become his wife.

"O, dear!" exclaimed a bright girl the other day, who had just entered the high school, and had to commit two pages of ancient history a day. "I pity the generation of scholars who are to come after me."

"Why?" asked we.

"Because they will have to remember so many more names of officers and places and dates and battles, and number of killed, wounded and missing."

WHEN you go to kiss—first grasp with haste around the waist, and hug her tight to thee; then she will say, "Do go away—do, won't you let me be?" Then, O, what bliss! but never miss so good a chance as this; then make a dash, as quick as flash, and—Georgie hold my hat.

"I HOPE to live to see the day," said Brougham, "when every peasant in England can understand Newton." "Wouldn't it be better that they had a little bacon first?" inquired Cobbett.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

Monday, Aug. 24, 1863.

The market on Saturday was inactive This, however, is a usual occurrence on the last of the week. The market remains in an unsettled state. The difference of opinion between buyers and sellers continues. Hence we have but few sales to report. A number of sales were made the terms of which did not transpire.

The New York market for crude was steady but figures were unchanged.

The exports from this city on Saturday afternoon only amounted to 495 bbls.

The imports were, Per A. V. R. R., 172 Per Allegheny river, 2478 barrels From this it may be seen that the imports are large compared with the shipments.

The nominal rates in this market were, Crude, including packages, 23@23½c: without, 22@22½c. A number of lots are held above these rates.

Refined—The market was firm notwithstanding the limited amount sold. The asking rates were, bonded, 58@49c; free is held at 58 to 59c for present delivery and higher for October and November.

Crude—Buyers seem to have come to a standAmong the sales were 2,000 bbls delivered on cars, at 28c; 167 do in bulk at 22c: some dealers only offered 21c in bulk and 27c with packages.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST,
Monday, Aug. 24th, 1863.

The market since our last presented nothing worthy of special notice. In fact the sales partake more of a retail than a wholesale character. One thing that no doubt operates as a check is the continued hot weather. We may look for a change in a short time. Our rivers continue to decline, there being at the time of writing less than three feet of water in the channel. Money matters remain about the same as previously noted. The premium on gold and silver is steadily declining in the East. Money on the street can readily be obtained for good paper on easy terms. Hay—Notwithstanding the high rates for this article prices are still going up. From appearances they will soon reach the top. The supply barely meets the demand. Bacon—Holders firm and are doing a good business at full rates. Some dealers are holding at an advance. The stock on hand is not large. Grain is dull but will no doubt take a turn for the better in a few days.

Flour continues dull. In fact beyond the sales making for home purposes there was nothing done nor will there be any large operations unless holders concede among the sales made were 120 bbls Extra at $4 75; 75 do do at $5 00; Extra Family is selling at 6 00@6 75@6 37½. The stock in first hands is not large but fully equal to the demand.

Hay—The market was firm; sales at sesles of new at $20@25, and old at $26@33.

Salt—Sales 140 bbls at $2 50.

Whisky unchanged; sales 30 bbls city rectified at 44@45c.

Cheese—Demand fallen off; sales 130 boxes W R at 9@10; per lb.

Butter—Sales 1400 lbs at 17@19c per pound, as per quality.

Bacon continues a leading article; demand active. Among the sales made were the following: sales of 6,500 lbs shoulders 5¾@6c; 3 500 lbs sides 6¾@7c; plain hams, 4,500 lbs, 9¼@9½c; 2000 pound 8-c. hams at 13c.

Eggs dull and nominal at 7@7½c.

Groceries firm. Prices unchanged.

Apples—Receipts increasing. sales 50 bbls at 2.50@3c per bush.

PROVISION MARKET.

Cincinnati.

There was no new feature in Provisions. There is a good demand for bulk shoulders and 150,000 lbs sold at 4½c. A little more was sold about bulk sides, but we did not hear of any sales. Old city mess pork is salable at $10.

Lard is held at 9¼@10c for city and not much offering. The lower grades of Lard and Grease are in good demand at very full prices. Butchers' Lard, 8½@8¾c, and Grease, 7@8c.

Sugar in Baltimore.

The inquiry from the local trade continues moderately active, but prices are without material change. We quote:

Cuba and E. I fair to good refining	10 00@10 25
" grocery	10 50@10 75
" prime grocery	11 00@11 25
Porto Rico fair to good grocery	10 75@11 25
" prime to choice grocery	11 50@12 00
New Orleans fair to prime

Philadelphia Leather Market.

Slaughter sole—The inquiry for light slaughter fit for wax upper and for heavy leather for harness and bridle has been good Sales have fully equalled receipts but at about former quotations. We hear of no sales of country leather above 42c and only for prime stock at these figures: city tanned are selling at 40@42c: selected oversweights at 42@44c.

Spanish sole—The transactions in dry hide leather have not been large for the season. The stock in store is moderate and rates have been generally sustained. We quote best Buenos Ayres at 38@39c: Caracas, Chili and inferior descriptions, 34@38c.
