

DAILY POST.

The Gazette requests us to publish Judge Woodard's speech in Philadelphia...

Where there is no law there is no freedom. WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 26.

Democratic Nominations. FOR GOVERNOR. GEORGE W. WOODWARD.

THE FALL OF SUMTER. The telegraph, yesterday afternoon, announced the fall of the rebel stronghold...

ANOTHER REBEL RAID ABOUT OCTOBER. The following interesting bit of information is from the Pittsburgh Gazette...

Notwithstanding the hapless condition of the rebel cause, at all points, the retention of Lee's army to less than 35,000 men...

There are not now, nor have there been those members of cavalry in our whole service...

This remarkable vigilance, which snuffs danger at so great a distance, is very remarkable...

THE "GAZETTE" AND GOV. CURTIS. The Gazette yesterday, under the pretext of replying to the Post...

When we protested against the nomination of Gov. Curtis, it was only a political device...

A question between loyal men. It was a question between a set of the most corrupt political rascals...

Mr. Editor: The Gazette, in its issue of July 31st, says: "We have shown some of the reasons why Governor Curtis can and ought not to be elected."
