We call particular attention to the following re-markable and well authenticated cure of one of he nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own ang uage has been saved by the Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofsand's: German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of shorman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. B. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I wa attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysontery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Visine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality: For a week or more I was careely able to swalow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

or more twas carcery and to swaitew anything, and if I did force a moreel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicishe who had been working fal hfully, though unsuccesfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and a lyised me to see a clergyman, and to make such aisposition of my limited funds as best suited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advired me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commoneed taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottes, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguing of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman, I am aloyal Virginian, 13 m he vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I ove the glorious privilege of again classing its my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

DAILY POST. Pugh's Excoriation of Tod.

At the great Democratic mass meeting at Cadiz, Ohio, on the 31st of August, Hon. George E. Pugh, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, commenced his speech as follow: Mr. Pugh began by saying that he had supposed every man in the State was aware of the circumstances in which he had been nominated a candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governor, and the motives which impelled him to accept the nomination. But there was one man in the State so lost to decency and truth as to charge him with improper motives i his conduct, and that man was David Tod, who, having lost the confidence of the Democracy, got an office by selling out to the enemy, and who has now arrived at that condition that he is despised by both parties. The Democracy got tired of him, and now, after serving them two years the Abolitionists have thrown him aside. [Laughter.] And this renegade has the straighter the audocity to audocity. And will positively provent Yellow Fever, Billious Fever, &c.
