The Fiftieth Thousand.—Dr. Bell's Treatise on Self-Abuse, Premature Decay, Impotente and Loss of Fower, Escual Diseases, Seminal Weakness, Nightly Emissions, Genital Debility, &c. A pamphlet of fifty pages, containing important advice to the afflicted and should be read by every sufferer as the means of cure in the severest stage is plainly set forth. Two stamps to pay postage. TO THE PUBLIC. CONCORD GRAPE VINES. Having had a man employed for the last six years compounding the above excellent remedies for my own practice, and having used them with uncommon success in all that time, I feel the duty to set them before the public, as my experience leads me to think they are as near specifier as any romedies well can be for the following diseases, namely: Scrofula, Coitre, Syphilis, and all diseases that arise from an impure state of the blood. One trial will convince any person of their fitness for those diseases.
